Relationships

from page 13

spect for herself to not be so easy.

The promiscuity of male and female students at FSU has been called into question lately. One group wishes to blame the other. I always thought it took two people to tango, not one. The responsibility is yours not to get caught up in a bad situation.

Brothers and sisters should have enough respect for each other to be able to trust each other, but we don't. We must take responsibility for our own actions and not carry on like resident high school students. We are all young adults at FSU, let's present a mature atmosphere.

Mcleod

from page 17

founder of two scholarships.

FSU welcomes the man who has as his goal the production of graduates who will understand "that he/she ONLY has control of his/her destiny; that he/she ONLY can restore our communities and rebuild our families; that he/she ONLY can educate our next generation; and that the ultimate greatness of their university lies in their commitment to reach back and give back. It is only then that we can say they are truly educated. It is to this end that I pledge my tenure as chancellor of Fayetteville State University.,,