FAYETTEVILLE STATE UNIVERSITY

Two Positions Available: Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs and Vice Chancellor for Business and Finance

Fayetteville State University invites applications for the positions of Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs and Vice Chancellor for Business and Finance. FSU is a Comprehensive I level university within the University of North Carolina System with an enrollment of nearly 4,200 students and an annual budget of over $35 million. In addition to bachelor's degree programs, master's programs are offered in Arts and Sciences, Business Administration, and Education, as well as a doctoral degree in Educational Leadership. Fayetteville is a trade and business center located in southeastern North Carolina, with an area population of approximately 287,000. Fayetteville is also the home of the major military installations of Ft. Bragg and Pope Air Force Base.

Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs—responsibilities include:

- Working effectively with the Chancellor and all major councils and committees to accomplish the mission of the University, serving as the chief academic officer and acting Chancellor in the absence of the Chancellor;
- Supervising, coordinating, and implementing all educational programs for the main campus and the Ft. Bragg-Pope Air Force Base University Center campus, including undergraduate and graduate programs in regular sessions, summer school, weekend and evening programs, and continuing education offerings;
- Supervising the development and implementation of faculty evaluation, tenure, and promotion procedures and encouraging and supporting faculty development, research, and other significant scholarly activities;
- Supervising the administration and general operation of all academic support services, including the Office of Admissions, the Office of the Registrar, Library Services, academic computing, the Title III Office, the Offices of Institutional Research, Research Administration, and Special Services programs.

Requirements: An earned doctorate or other terminal degree; a successful and demonstrable record of achievement in teaching, research, and scholarship; the ability to provide creative, energetic, and effective senior level leadership; and credentials appropriate for appointment in an academic department as a full-tenured professor.

Vice Chancellor for Business and Finance—responsibilities include:

- Serving as chief fiscal officer of the University, directly responsible to the Chancellor, advising the Chancellor on all University fiscal and resource management matters;
- Assisting the Chancellor in the preparation and control of the University's annual budget;
- Maintaining a sound and reliable system of financial recordkeeping and accounting for all University funds and accounts;
- Maintaining a system of purchasing that is consistent with the Office of State Purchase and Contract procedures;
- Managing and directing unit administrators responsible for fiscal operations, Physical Plant, Financial Aid, Personnel Administration, University Police Operations, and Auxiliary Services.

Requirements: A master's degree in Finance, Accounting, or Business Administration and at least five years of progressively responsible financial management and administrative experience, preferably in a higher education setting that included significant control over budgeting, fund accounting and public finance, and facilities management, and proven leadership ability and strategic planning skills that will enhance the realization of the University's unique mission.

TO APPLY: Submit letter of interest, resume, copies of transcripts, and the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of three (3) references by February 15, 1996, to:

ATTENTION VETERANS

A bill was recently passed by Congress entitling veterans to a dividend on GI Insurance they had while in the Service. Both current and former military personnel are entitled to this dividend regardless of whether or not they still carry the insurance. If you are eligible, you will not receive the dividend unless you ask for it. The Veterans Administration will review each individual case and determine eligibility. A general schedule of dividends earned is as follows:

2 years of service...$264.00
3 years of service...$394.00
4 years of service...$528.00

To apply for the dividend write to the Veterans Center, P.O. Box 8079, Philadelphia PA 19101. Include your name, address, GI Insurance number (if known), branch of service, date of birth, and date of military service. If you find a copy of your DD form 214, it would be helpful to attach it to your letter.

Real Men

unclaimed. So there are many fathers here at FSU but how many support their kids? I know you are screamin' "I pay my child support!" But where is the emotional support? Children need that fatherly touch and to know that dad cares. And that you pay child support NOT out of obligation or risk of jail time.

If you can honestly look in a mirror and say that you are a MAN in accordance to these guidelines, then maybe you can say "Real Women get Real Men" For the rest of you so called men at FSU, stop making the women pan for gold in a silver mine. And women if you fall for these men, you know you are getting FOOLS' GOLD.
