

FSU NEWS

Faculty in The Spotlight

Dr. Juliette Bell, Director of FSU's Biomedical Research Program, has been named one of four national "Giants in Science" by the Quality Education for Minorities Network. Giants in Science awards recognize individuals who are outstanding mentors, teachers and researchers. Dr. Bell was also recently recognized with the 1997 national Distinguished Research Award from NAFEO for her work in Biochemistry and Molecular Genetics.

FSU Announces Undergraduates Selected for Who's Who

The 1998 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges will include the names of 62 undergraduate students from Fayetteville State University who have been selected as national outstanding leaders.

These FSU students join an elite group of students selected from more than 1900 institutions of higher learning in a 50 states, the District of Columbia and several foreign nations.

Sport's Spotlight

FSU's Schavonne Brown was named to the Fayetteville State Invitational volleyball all-tournament team. She had 25 kills, 76 total attacks, 38 digs and 13 blocks.

FSU's Demeco Archangel was named Don Hansen's Football Gazette special teams national player of the week. Archangel returned seven kickoffs for 151 yards and one punt for 65 yards against Virginia State. He also caught four passes for 90 yards and a TD.

Notice of Deaths

We here at the Broncos' Voice, along with the entire FSU family, wish to extend heartfelt sympathy to the family members of the following in their time of bereavement:

Mrs. Edna Laney, Mother of Mr. William Woods of the Department of Fine Arts and Humanities.

Mr. Thomas L. Stanley, brother of Mr. Marvin Stanely of the Physical Plant.

Dr. James Boyte, Associate Professor, Department of Mathematics and Computer Science.

Mr. Raymond E. Stewart, former Maintenance Mechanic of our Physical Plant.

Dr. Francis Baird, professor of art; Department of Fine Arts and Humanities.

FSU APPOINTS NEW DIRECTOR OF POLICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY

Jerry L. Monroe, an alumnus of Fayetteville State University, has been named as the new Director of Police and Public Safety at the university. Chief Monroe began his duties on October 8.

Chief Monroe earned a B. A. in Political Science with a minor in Police Science at FSU in 1986. He comes to FSU from the Town of Wagram, NC, where he served as Chief of Police from 1994 to the present. He has also taught in the Scotland Count Schools; was an Alcohol Law Enforcement Agent with the NC department of Crime Control and Public Safety from 1988-1993, and served as crime Technician in the Fayetteville Police Department from 1986-1988.

Monroe is active in numerous professional and civic organizations, including the National Association of Chiefs of Police, the Police Executives Association, Law Enforcement Planners Association, and Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc.

Fayetteville State Choir Releases New Recording

The Fayetteville State University Concert Choir has released a new CD. It has been more than 20 years since a Fayetteville State University Concert Choir has released a recording.

The CD, "Sing 'Til The Spirit Moves Into My Heart," was recorded at John Wesley United Methodist Church. The cost is $15 for the CD, and $10 for a cassette. Proceeds will be used to help finance the choir's spring trip to Europe, where the group will present concerts in France and Belgium.

This collection of sacred recordings will be available from the Department of Fine Arts and Humanities.

For more information or to order a copy, call 486-1571 or 486-1276.

The FSU Concert Choir is under the direction of Dr. Marvin Curtis.

Broncos In The Spotlight

Miss Tammy Burroughs, a senior majoring in Biology and a Glaxo Women in Science Scholar, is the 1997 recipient of a national award for Excellence in Mathematics and/ or Science from the quality Education for Minorities/ Mathematics and Science Education Network. Miss Burroughs has presented her DNA research projects at conferences in Mexico, Miami, and other cities around the country. In 1995, she traveled to Helsinki, Finland for a ten-week fellowship in Plant Physiology in the Minorities' Global Research in Progress Program at the University of Helsinki. She was also recently recognized for her leadership efforts with the Ntional Collegiate Minority Leadership Award.

Mr. Demarco Jeter, a Chancellor's Scholar and football player, has been named as a Coca-Cola USA Sports View Scholar/Athlete for the fourth year in a row.

Misses Dorthie Henderson, Tameka Kenan, and Kimberly Burney traveled to Bloomsburg University in Pennsylvania to compete in the 12th Annual Through the Looking Glass individual

FSU CALENDAR OF EVENTS

December

- | | |
|-------|---|
| | Library Workshop for Faculty every Thursday
3:00 - 4:00 p.m. (through December 21)
Contact: Ms. Cave, 486-1750 |
| 1 | Final Financial Clearance for December Graduates |
| 1-6 | Final Examinations for December Graduates |
| 5 | 11:00 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.
Amahl and the Night Visitors — Christmas opera
Location: Seabrook Auditorium
Contact: Dr. Curtis, 486-1276 |
| 5 | Student Christmas Cabaret
Location: TBA
Contact: Ms. Council, 486-1166 |
| 6 | Last Day of Classes |
| 7 | 4:00 p.m. An African-American Christmas Celebration
with the FSU University Concert Choir
Location: Seabrook Auditorium
Contact: Dr. Curtis, 486-1276 |
| 8 | 5:30 p.m. Home Basketball vs. Bowie State University
Location: Capel Arena
Contact: 4861349 |
| 8-13 | Final Examinations |
| 13 | 10:00 am Eighth Winter Commencement
Location: Capel Arena
Contact: Dr. Wyatt, 486-1661 |
| 24-30 | University Christmas Holidays |