I always knew I wanted to be an engineer and start my own business. But that means college and experience. And I didn't know how I'd pull it all together financially. So I took advantage of the Navy's Bicentennial Degree Completion Program. It lets you earn up to $8,000 to cover college and expenses. After I graduated, I was commissioned as a Naval Officer and now I get to spend the next few years putting what I've learned to the test and getting my future underway. Make the call. Broncos Impressive in Victory

By: Paul Pegues

The Fayetteville State Broncos kicked off the 2005 collegiate football season versus the Panthers of Virginia Union in the first annual Masonic football Classic, sponsored by the Prince Hall Mason's of North Carolina and Virginia. The atmosphere for the game was live and anticipation didn't take long while the Panthers wasted no time pouncing on the Broncos with a 97 yard kickoff return for a touchdown in the first 15 seconds. But ever resilient, the Broncos shut the Panthers down with a dominant display of defense which set a school record with seven interceptions and a balanced attack on offense which accumulated over 190 yards passing and 135 yards rushing. The Broncos reeled in 28 straight points in the first half in route to a 53-26 victory.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE GAMES:

Amir Holding 19 rushes 83 yards
Jonathan Autry passed for 190 yards
Dentyl Jackson 10 catches 110 yards, 1 td
Chris Holden 1 td
Nick Green 1 td
Eddie Agans 1 td
DeLaurance Walker 12 tackles 2 interceptions
Geron Harper 3 tackles for loss, 1 sack

The Mighty "Bronco Blue" and White Prevails!

By: Keisha Robinson

The Broncos suffered a disappointing second loss to Presbyterian College in South Carolina. The Broncos lost 35-6! But don't worry, the Broncos came back with a finer match up against Elizabeth City that decided who will move up the ranks to 2-1 and who will take the "L" and fall towards the bottom of the CIAA charts. There was a lot of talk going around about the big "Family Affair," being that the Vikings share the same school colors of the "Mighty, Mighty, Broncos!" But the talk suddenly changed when the Broncos took the field and showed the Vikings why the Broncos haven't lost at home since 2001.

The offense stepped up big time, while Senior Veon McHam let the Vikings know from his first out of four touchdowns with 11:11 to go in the first quarter that "it was game time!" I talked to Veon when they were heading to the café for lunch and I told him I had already prepared an article of the Broncos victory over the Vikings, and that I didn't want to retract my story. Veon turned around and said:

"Don't even worry about that!" Veon acknowledges their failure to defeat a South Atlantic Conference team, but didn't have any doubts about the Broncos victory over the Vikings!

Quarterback Jay Autry completed 12 of 24 passes for 244 yards, four touchdowns (all to McHam), and only one interception. Jay Autry threw impressively against the high pressured defense of the Vikings. He took advantage of what he was given by the defense, and I must say the Bronco fans were very proud of him!

Let us also give credit to the Broncos' Defense! Defense stepped up big-time! The Vikings couldn't make it to the scoreboard until midway through the fourth quarter. The Vikings had 7 turnovers and less than 100 yards in the game! This is very impressive while acknowledging the Broncos gave up over 400 yards in their first two games. However, linebacker Geron Harper seemed to be all over the place! I calculated at least two sacks and an interception.

Needless to say, the Broncos are on their way back to the CIAA Championship and we will be behind our Broncos 150%!!
