If You Haven't Noticed

We have changed our format here at The Voice. We are now a newsmagazine. This means that we need photos to help spice up our pages so that you aren't looking at boring text all the time.

We're specifically looking for art majors that want to pad their portfolio with artistic photography. If interested, get an application from room 241 in the student center, or call 910-308-8793
