

pursuit of higher education and careers? Now that globalization is being encouraged, has Alpha Kappa Alpha, Inc broadened their philanthropy efforts to include non-blacks?

[J.C.] Alpha Kappa Alpha will always be the first Greek lettered organization for women of color. With changing times, more non-black women are choosing to find interest and membership in our organization. Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. is open to women of all races and creeds. Therefore, anyone with an interest of joining our illustrious organization comprised of hard working women should continue to do so regardless of race.

[Voice] What type of programs will the Delta Alpha Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha, Inc implement for the Spring 2010 semester? What goals does your organization wish to accomplish by implementing these programs?

[J.C.] Delta Alpha will be hosting several programs during the Spring 2010 semester beginning with Delta Alpha Week which is January 24th-January 30th 2010. All of our programs will be under our national platforms. We hope to inspire, teach, and also learn while implementing these programs.

[Voice] How does the Delta Alpha Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha, Inc maintain their status as the premier Greek organization for African-American college educated women?

[J.C.] Very simple, we follow the path that was set out by our founders in 1908 to be and remain the premier Greek lettered organization for African-American collegiate women.
