NEVER SATISFIED

Satisfaction, is one's fulfillment of a desire,
When it comes to goals,
Aim higher,
To say I was satisfied,
I would be a liar,
Never settle, crave for more, NOT less, become the BEST
Never get caught slipping while you rest,
You saying you're satisfied, that would be a lie and
actually kind of funny,
Because when one EARNs money, what does one
want more of?...MORE MONEY,
Don't play yourself like a dummy,
As long as you have this education, success comes with, gratification, which gives you happiness,
A pleasurable emotional reaction which makes you feel the feeling of satisfaction...
For a brief moment, cause when its gone, your going to keep wanting it,
So keep striving and trying, honesty is the best policy
so,
To say we as students are satisfied, that would be the BIGGEST lie,
Cause at this point in LIFE, we are NEVER SATISFIED

School is almost over, and you are getting senioritis... chill out!... grades have not posted just yet; and your grade point average can not afford to drop.

You're feelin' the weather change, but try not to get too excited and ruin the good things you have around you.

Your emotions are running high and if you do not release them you will drive yourself crazy. Be careful how you word things.

Libra (September 23 - October 22)

Someone very close to you is annoying you right now. Instead of being mean, find something to do to create some sort of distance between the two of you.

Scorpio (October 23 - November 21)

You need to find a summer job fast. Money makes the world go round and right now, you may not have the kind of money you desire.

Start planning your summer vacation early, nothing says fun like a very organized well prepared trip. Leave time for things to go wrong.

Capricorn (December 22 - January 19)

Just because things don't affect you, does not mean it won't affect the next person. Therefore, try to be more sensitive of people's feelings.

Aquarius (January 20- February 18)

Your new hobby may draw the wrong attention to you. Try keeping your business to yourself for awhile.

Stop being so frustrated, something you have been waiting for is coming your way. Just be a tad bit more patient.

Aries (March 21- April 19)

When you finally expressed your feelings; things couldn't have been any more awkward! Try to see it as the glass half full just not the juice you like.
