

Angela Williams, Visual Arts/ Graphic Design 2009 graduate of FSU paints a manikin for "S.T.U.N Art."

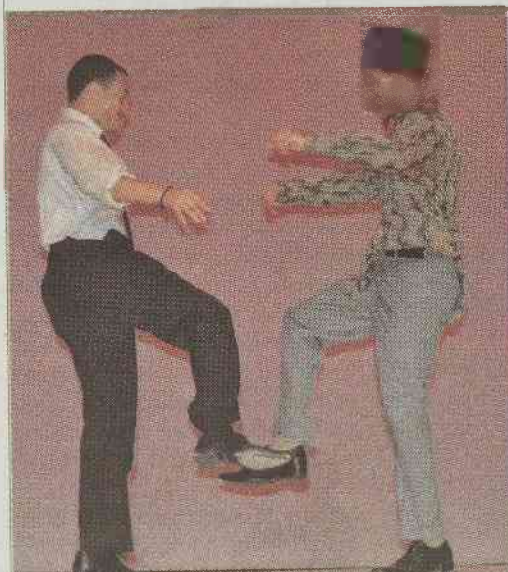

Shadonna Young (Left), Senior, Biology major receives an autograph from Christopher "Play" Martin of the movie "House Party" at the "Respect Your Roots" program on February 17, 2011 at the Seabrook Auditorium.

Voice photos by Dea Spicer

CELEBRATION OF HIP-HOP

By Nike Pascal
Voice Staff Writer

"The Birth of Hip-hop" was presented on Thursday, Feb. 17 at Seabrook Auditorium by the FSU Student Activities Council. Attended by nearly 300 people the event presented opening skits, impersonations and guest speaker Christopher "Play" Martin from legendary rap duo Kid 'N Play, who spoke on the history and positive aspect of hip-hop.

Shamar Farley(Left) and Mr. FSU, Troy Logan (Right) impersonates "Kid 'N Play" from the movie "House Party" at "Respect Your Roots" program on February 17, 2011 at the Seabrook Auditorium.

James Bristol, a member of the FSU Dance Company, does a HipHop freestyle dance at the "Respect Your Roots" program on February 17, 2011

Shantel Scott, Visual Arts/Graphics 2008 graduate of FSU does a live painting session of "Street Art."