VOTE NOW

Once again we are recognizing Independent Artist/Spoken Words, in the surrounding areas and serve as a platform to elevate the ambition and goals for these individuals that gave their all to their work. We would like to acknowledge and award the up and coming Independent Artist/Models regionally and locally for their hard work and dedication to the art of music and modeling. Our ultimate aim is to create an infrastructure to give these Independent Artist/Models a hand in ways that is useful by providing industry connected sources and also give community support. Most of these, if not all of these freelance Artist/Spoken Words are employees of themselves and find it hard to adapt to today's economy. Finding ways to motivate their abilities to go further is a must. On this night Fayetteville and surrounding areas gives honors to the highly voted of the nominee's in the categories of R&B, Gospel, Rock, Country, Rap, Jazz, Reggae, for Group and Solo with amazing live performances. Hosting this Big Event is the, CEO of Kool Beans and on air personality with Foxy 99 is Jane Dough. Also participating in this event will be Fraternity and Sorority steppers of FSU. So come out and let's support the independent Artist you'll be glad you did.

Research from around areas such as, Radio Stations, Clubs, Recording Studio's Producers, Agencies and My Space/ Web Pages will help guide us to the talent. Registering and on line voting will play the biggest part for selecting the winners for the 3rd Annual Independent Artist Music Awards {IAMA'S} and give honors to these individuals that have put in hard work and dedication to their music. This artist will be awarded for a job well done. Hopefully this will give them the encouragement to reach their dreams and get numerous awards in the future. God Bless
