Shakespeare is back! The FSU Theatre Company will be performing "A Midsummer Night's Dream" by famous playwright, William Shakespeare.

Opening tomorrow, they will be hosting a party that will have food and games. This will take place before the show starts. So arrive early and enjoy the celebration.

This production of "A Midsummer Night's Dream" is sure to be a hit with students and all who attend. "A Midsummer Night's Dream" is Shakespeare's classic love story that intertwines a mixture of fairies and magic. This is considered to be one of Shakespeare's most famous works.

The production is scheduled to run from Thursday, Nov. 17 through Saturday, Nov. 19 starting at 7:30 p.m., and Sunday, Nov. 20 starting at 3 p.m. in the Butler Theatre. Tickets are still available for the show. Season tickets are also available, and only include the four main productions of this season. This includes A Midsummer Night's Dream, Holiday Spectacular!, A Soldier's Play, and Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat.

Tickets:

Single show:

Adults are $10
Senior citizens, FSU staff and faculty are $8.
Children (0-12) are $3
Students with valid ID ONLY are $2 until curtain time after which it is $10.

Season tickets:

$35 for Adults
$30 for Senior Citizens,
FSU Faculty or staff.
$12 for children with a parent/
guardian
STUDENTS are not eligible for season tickets.

An upcoming production is the Holiday Spectacular! on Dec. 4 at 4:00 p.m. in the Capel Arena.

A few policies to be aware of at the theater are:

- If you use a cell phone, flash camera or video camera during the show, an usher will ask you to leave.
- If you arrive after the show has started, you may not be seated until an appropriate break in the play (for example at a scene change or intermission).
- If you have a complimentary ticket, it must be picked up by 7:15 p.m. If it is not picked up by curtain time, it is forfeited and you will be charged the full adult price. Limit of one ticket per student ID and student must pick up their own ticket.
