

FEAST ON $10

Tired of swiping at the cafe, why not venture out on the town for a meal? All you need is $10 and you can find a number of places, relatively close to campus, that offer meals from a variety of cultures.

In the mood for seafood? Check out NY Supreme Steamers, which offers both steamed and fried dishes from the sea.

Would you rather eat Asian cuisine? China Garden offers a range of choices from beef to chicken and more. Located in Bronco Square, they are an excellent option for students who don't have off-campus transportation.

Another cost efficient option is Subway, which offers foot-long subs for $5.

Jason's Deli, located in Cross Creek Mall, deserves a visit. The deli also has a salad bar in addition to their menu.

Interested in Jamaican food? Jamaican Kitchen, located on Murchison Rd. offers dine in and take out. Feast on jerk chicken or curry dishes and more.

K&W cafeteria, located on Village Drive across from Cape Fear Valley Hospital, is the place to be. K&W offers a full service menu of breakfast, lunch and dinner. It's a few minutes of a drive but it's worth your time.

Momma's Kitchen, located on Raeford Rd., would make your momma proud. Southern cooking at its best, the menu includes breakfast lunch and dinner.

Momma's
Soul Food
Kitchen

golden corral
Buffet & Grill

Golden Corral's food is fair but there is more than enough to fill you up. The buffet offers almost anything you could possibly want.

Roly Poly located on McPherson Church Road, has a number of half and whole sandwiches as well as wrap combo's that are wholesome and healthy.

Finally, we can't leave out McDonald's at the corner of Murchison Road and Country Club Drive. Breakfast, lunch or dinner, Micky Ds is always cheap. It may not be the best option for your health and weight, but it is certainly light on your wallet.

All photos courtesy of restaurants' websites

Article by Deitric Davis