Jordan Visit Campus

By HOMER PIKE

U.S. Senator B. Everett Jordan, Democrat from Saxpaw, N. C., paid a brief visit to Wayne Community College on Friday, February 11, during his truly whirlwind tour of Wake County. Senator Jordan, now in his late 70's and facing what appears to be his most challenging campaign since he filled the vacancy caused by the death of W. Kerr Scott on April 19, 1958, showed visible signs of fatigue induced by the rapid pace of an election year agenda. The Senator was on campus for but fifteen minutes and was able to manage only a few handshakes and smiles. The visit was very obviously merely political and few students and faculty were able to speak with him much less discuss issues.

What a life, that of a politician.

WCC Dance Is Success

By JOHNNY WIGGS

The Miss WCC Dance was a great dance which everyone thoroughly enjoyed. The total number of students participating involved between six-and-seven hundred students. Music for the dance was provided by "The Men of Distinction and the Goldsboro

Moose Lodge was designated as the location.

By nine-o'clock the results of the Miss WCC contest were revealed! Debbie Folston was crowned Miss WCC; Willie Maye was first runner-up; and Sherry Walton was second runner-up. The crowning of the new Miss WCC was executed by Dr. Clyde Erwin, President of Wayne Community College.

Special recognition goes to the fraternity brothers and the sorority sisters who took a main role in making the dance a success. Through their efforts the Friday preceding the dance, the Moose Lodge was decorated nicely in time for the dance. The Student Activity Committee expressed strong appreciation to the Sigma Tau Sigma fraternity brothers and Alpha Pi Epsilon sorority for their cooperation and support.

Take One-- Leave One

"Take One and Leave One" describes the new policy on paperback books initiated in the Learning Resource Center. Under this policy, any student wishing to donate paperback books is encouraged to do so. Students will take a book only in exchange for another. These books will not be checked out as usual, but Mrs. Doris Elledge hopes that this new idea will prove to be successful in promoting interested readers.

Henson P. Barnes, chairman of the Democratic Party in Wayne County and candidate for the State House of Representatives, spoke recently to the Young Democrats Club of Wayne Community College. The meeting, held in the student union board room was attended by students, faculty and members of the Young Democrats Club. John Prevette, president of the Young Democrats, introduced Mr. Barnes. Mr. Barnes spoke on the differences between the Democratic and Republican parties in North Carolina.

Student Wins Pagent

Jenny Gordon, a Wayne Community College student in the College Transfer Program was crowned "Miss Goldsboro 1972" by Brenda Sasser, "Miss Goldsboro 1971" at the recent pageant. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Gordon of Goldsboro.

While a student at Wayne Community College, she has gained recognition for her service. Last spring she was selected for listing in Who's Who in American Junior Colleges. Her activities and honors include: Miss Homecoming Queen, 1971; S.G.A. Treasurer, Co-head cheerleader, Student Justice on Honor Council, statistician for the Bisons basketball team, former Chairman and present member of Budget Committee and costumer for music department productions.

Quickies

YDC STATE CONVENTION

A delegation from the Young Democrat Club consisting of: John Prevette, Jean Edgerton, Hazel Broom, Nancy Taylor, Homer Pike, Carmen Turrone (opps) Pike, attended the state convention in Charlotte on Saturday, January 22. Democratic candidates for state offices were represented at the cocktail party held at 7:00. Afterward there was a banquet at which the officers for the state YDC were installed. A dance was held following the banquet which featured guest speaker Hubert Humphrey.

IN MEMORIAL

The death of Wayne Garland Crumpler has left a vacancy at Wayne Community College which cannot be filled. Many knew him by his smiling face and care-free nature, but those who knew him more closely came to know him as a truly great individual. His death has left more to our campus than just an empty desk in a classroom—we've all lost a great friend.

Many things could be said of him, but perhaps the greatest of all was his determination and desire to get ahead—to accomplish something worthwhile. His ability as a football player while attending Charles B. Aycock will long be remembered by many as outstanding. Those at Wayne Community College will also remember him as a member of the Delta Chi Omega fraternity who did much to uphold the standards of the club and also to establish a closer relationship among the fraternity brothers. The Delta Chi Omega Fraternity and the Student Body express their deepest sympathy to the family and friends.

A Psalm of Life

Tell me not, in mournful numbers,
Life is but an empty dream!—
For the soul is dead that slumbers'
And things are not what they seem.

Life is real! Life is earnest!
And the grave is not its goal;
Dust thou art, to dust returned;
Was not spoken of the soul.

Not enjoyment, and not sorrow,
Is our destined end or way;
But to act, that each tomorrow
Find us farther than today.

Art is long, and Time is fleeting,
And our hearts, though stout and brave,
Still, like muffled drums, are beating
Funeral marches to the grave.

In the world's broad field of battle,
In the bivouac of Life,
Be not like dumb, driven cattle!
Be a hero in the strife!

Trust no Future, how'er pleasant!
Let the dead Past bury its dead!
Act,—act in the living Present!
Heart within, and God o'er-head!

Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time;

Footprints, that perhaps another,
Sailing o'er life's solemn main,
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother,
Seeing, shall take heart again.

Let us, then, be up and doing,
With a heart for any fate;
Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait.
Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

"Getting Together"

The 1972 WCC annual has undergone changes from the previous editions. This paperback collection has changed its name from its previous title, "The Insight." The new annual will consist of 100 pages of new, and different things. Students on and off campus are featured, along with sports at WCC, "Miss WCC," dances and other social activities, faculty members, and fraternities. Pictures in the annual will be action pictures, not the posed-type ones. Expressions of all kinds will be seen.

The new annual is expected to come out the last of the Spring Quarter. Jean Edgerton, editor of the annual, and other annual staff members encourage everyone to get an annual. She also comments, "that the annual is now finished due to the hard work of the annual staff and the devoted help of the Sigma Tau Sigma Brothers. Tune in on What's Happening with the 1972 WCC annual.
