Bison basketball underway

by KEVIN GURLEY

The Bison basketball season got underway on Tuesday, September 12, during an organizational meeting held in the North Campus Student Union at 7:00 p.m.

The Bisons, two-time defending state champions, have a couple of key players returning from last year's team that went 21-9 for the season, according to Coach Charles Britton.

Britton attributes that record to the players' hard work and determination.

Overall the team is looking for a return to excellence under the same coaching staff as before.

Despite a small turnout for the first basketball meeting, Coach Britton hoped that attendance would increase during the first week of tryouts which ended on Tuesday, October 15.

The 1991-92 Bisons include forwards Zach Kindlesparker, Tim Hines, Derrick Vick, Kelvin Reed, Reggie Lewis; guards Rudy King, Tim Holden, Kevin Gurley, Marcus Smith; and center Kenneth Hamilton.

Charles Britton coaches the team with the assistance of Jimmy Lewis and Jeff Smith, assistant coaches, and Julie Sugg, statistician.
