

Students await the descent of the volleyball during Spring Fling. PHOTO: JOHN HOLMES

Weather favors Spring Fling

By LANELLE SUTTON

The SGA sponsored its annual Spring Fling on April 14, 1993, from 12:00 p.m. until 5:00 p.m.

Approximately 300 - 500 students, faculty, and staff members participated in Spring Fling, according to Beth Jones, Student Union Coordinator.

Classes were dismissed at 1:00 to give everyone the opportunity to sit back, relax, and enjoy the activities that various clubs sponsored.

Members of Phi Beta Lambda and the Publications Club hosted the wheelbarrow contest, the three-legged race, and a cross country skiing contest.

The Fashion Club sponsored a tie-dyeing contest which allowed participants to dye white t-shirts various colors.

Students who participated in the contests won WCC t-shirts and hats.

Other events included a dunking booth, several volleyball matches, and a Student-Faculty softball game.

Beginning at 4:00 faculty and staff members participated in Spring Fest, a talent contest and a turkey cookout with ribbons awarded for first, second, and third place.

Meeting
Tom Lutten
page 2

First Ms. WCC
pageant
page 5

Spring
sports
pages 8-9

Handicapped
grievance
page 11

The winners were the Planning and Research Department, first place; the LRC staff, second; and Liberal Arts and Math, third place.

The Planning and Research team, using the theme "WCC Bison Saloon," sang an original version of "Oh, Lord, It's Hard to be Humble."

The LRC Staff sang "Tip Toe Through the Tulips," and Grace Lutz read an original poem, "The Blooming LRC."

The Liberal Arts and Math team presented a Mardi Gras parade.

Largest Career Day attracts 2000

By SHARON MITCHELL

On March 17, 1993, Wayne Community College held its largest annual Career Opportunity Day ever.

Presented by the college's Co-op, Apprenticeship, and Job Placement office with sponsorship from the Foundation of WCC, Career Day attracted some 2,000 students and visitors.

From 9:00 a.m. until 12 noon representatives from 53 different businesses, industries, government, and law enforcement agencies met students in the Atrium to answer questions and give information about job opportunities.

"This was the best Career Day we have had, and we are all very pleased with the turnout of students and their participation," said Irma Wiggins, Counselor for Job Placement Co-op, and Assistant Director of Career Day.

Ed Kelly, Director of Cooperative Education and Director of the event, attributed the successful day to the hard work of the co-op staff who planned the event: Anne Millington, Job Placement Coordinator; Gerald Heath-Braswell, Secretary; and Joyce Gregory and Sarah Faison, work-study students.

Congratulations to Gerald Heath-Braswell
Secretary of the Year

Tonya Davis and Nicole Smith take full advantage of career day information. PHOTO: SHARON MITCHELL