

Spring Fling offers respite from books, study

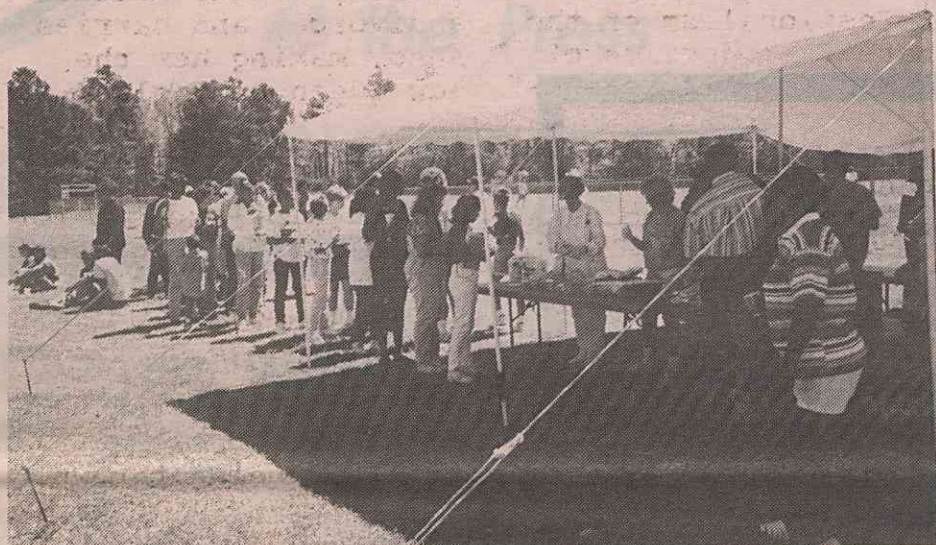

PHOTOS: CORRIE WEAVER

Chef Cheyenne Corbitt rustles up some grub for hungry students.

Students participated in games throughout the day, among them Tug of War shown here. Other competitions SGA organized included a water balloon toss, scavenger hunt, flag football, basketball shootout, and dance and drag contests.

The chow line attracts hordes hungry for the traditional hot dogs, chips, and trimmings.

Students enjoy volleyball competition.

Career Day attracts job-seeking students

Students inquire about job possibilities from one of the vendors during Career Day.

By JAMES ARTIS

On Thursday, March 19, 1998, Wayne Community College held its annual Career Day in the Atrium from 9 a.m.- 12 noon in the Atrium.

The following organizations participated:

Local Industry

Glen Raven Mills, Carrolls Foods Inc., Nortel, Prime Financial Service, Cooper Kenworth Inc., Howell's Center, Stone Heavy Duty, APV Baker, CPCU-Coastal, Mt. Olive Pickle Co., ISN, Boddie Noell Enterprise, Goldsboro Milling Company, Tupperware, McDonnell Douglas, and Waste Industries.

Local Banks
Wachovia Bank

Postal Services
United Parcel Service
Federal Express.

Hospitals
Lenoir Memorial Hospital, Cherry Hospital, and O'Berry Center.

Park Services
NC State Parks

Law Enforcement
NC Division of Prisons, Goldsboro Police Dept., and Forsythe County Sheriff's Dept.

Health Services
Wayne County Dept. of Social Services, Health Trim International, Mileage Wizard, and ECOLAB.

Volunteer Services
Wayne County 4-H, U.S. Army, and UNC-TV.

Educational Institutions
East Carolina University, and Wayne County Public Schools

Department Stores
Belk, AAFES-Base Exchange