By SCOTT HERRING

Linda Sutton, secretary for JTPA, was born in LaGrange, NC. She received her associate degree in office systems technology from WCC and graduated Phi Theta Kappa.

She was enlisted in the Air Force for 15 years before starting full-time at WCC in February 1998. She has 2 children, Brandi, 11, and Calum, 4.

William Radford, head of dental occupations, was born in Smithfield, NC, in 1955.

He received his bachelor's degree in chemistry from Campbell University in 1976.

Later in 1982 he earned his DDS from UNC-Chapel Hill. From 1982 to 1998 he had a private practice in Smithfield.

Radford and his wife Alice of 21 years have a 17-year-old son Bill, a senior at North Johnston High School who plans to enroll at UNC-CH next fall.

Radford enjoys many outdoor activities. He hunts and fishes and is an avid Harley-Davidson fan with a bike of his own.

He transferred to UNC-Wilmington as a communications major and he was assigned to an internship with director Frank Coppola Jr. at Screen Gem Studios in Wilmington.

Under Coppola's supervision Clark went to New York to promote the filming industry in North Carolina.

Clark also worked as an extra on the hit t.v. show "Dawson's Creek."

His first production assistant job came on the movie "Payback."

Clark also had parts in films such as Shirley McClaine's "Bruno" as well as a part as a law enforcement officer in "Takedown," a police drama starring Tom Berenger and Skeet Ulrich.

Clark made a trip to California this summer and visited Steven Spielberg's studio Dreamworks.

Chad Clark poses on the set with actor Tom Berenger during the filming of "Takedown," which will be released in 1999.

Clark plans to return to California to pursue a career in the entertainment field as a producer in the near future.

Conference

Representing WCC were Wayne Parson, SGA Adviser; Michaelene Horton, SGA President; Tammy Evans, SGA Secretary; and Rianne Disch, Special Populations Chair.

The conference was held Thursday, Oct. 22 to Sunday, Oct. 25, at the Sheraton Inn.

In addition to the "Role of Officer" training seminars, those present chose several workshops to attend.

During business meetings changes to the N4C constitution were discussed.
