The Student American Dental Hygiene Association Club (SADHAC) meets once a quarter or as often as needed.

Dues for the SADHAC are $45.

Brandi Barnes welcomes the audience to Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day.

The Forestry Club

By KIZUWANDA SMITH

The Forestry Club is a start up club under the direction of James Slye, advisor of the club and an instructor in the Forest Management Technology program.

Officers of the Forestry Club include President Brandon Webb, Vice-President Jeremy Flowers, and Tara Ruffin, Secretary/Treasurer.

Meetings are scheduled when needed, according to Slye, and are conducted informally.

The Forestry Club has not collected any dues this year.

Dental Assisting Club

The Dental Assisting Club under the direction of Christie Smith holds its meetings once in the fall and every other week in the spring and summer.

Dues for the Dental Assisting Club are $5.

The Dental Assisting Club conducts various fundraisers that will be used for a class graduation dinner in July.

Members of the club include President Amy Aldridge, Vice President Paulette Tyndall, Secretary Devon McCleery, and SGA Representative Melissa Hill.

According to Debbie Pickard-Heath, instructor in the Dental Department and the group's advisor, the officers include President Sam Jessup, Vice President Brandy Callahan, Secretary Gina MacDonald, and Treasurer Jony Moore.

The club keeps a scrapbook of its activities, which have included toothbrush sales.

Volunteer projects include participation in the sealant program for Head Start children.

The Associate Degree Student Nurses Association, Level II, will be holding a bake sale for both registration days in the fall on August 14th and 15th in the Learning Center Building, according to advisor Patty Pfeiffer.

Several class members attended the NC Student Nurses Association Conference held in the High Point this fall.

This year's officers are Vanessa Rose, President; Allison Hall, Vice President; Cheryl Worrell, Secretary; Amber Beard and Amanda Moore, Co-Treasurers; and Kelly Land and Jennifer Davidson, SGA Representatives.

Members pay $5.00 a month for dues.
