Phi Beta Lambda

By J. AZURE SHANKS

On Thursday, April 25, 2002 Phi Beta Lambda was presented with the President's Award at the SGA Banquet.

At the state conference April 11-14, 2002, 2 PBL members placed in their competitive event.

Amanda Mozingo took 6th place in Accounting Principles, and Joy Salsburg earned 8th place in Word Processing.

Salsburg was inducted into Who's Who in NCPBL.

Officers of PBL include President Joy Salsburg, Vice President Amanda Mozingo, Secretary Sharon Gibson-Mosley, and Treasurer Angela Wallace.

MASA

A newly established club this spring, the Medical Assistants Association, raised money for breast cancer awareness with a bake sale on Monday, April 29.

According to Lou Brown, advisor, the club raised $300 from raffle tickets, pink ribbon sales, and baked goods. The money will support the Avon Breast Cancer Research program.

Danny Worley won the $20 gift card for Wal Mart, and Heather Abel won the AM/FM cassette/cd player.

Officers for the group include President Jacci Boyd, Vice President Julie Coustin, Secretary Vicki Vineyard, and SGA representatives Angela Scheu and Crystal Merlin.
