

WCC — WSBC

The W.C.C. Cougars started the new year off in the current manner when they rolled over W.S.B.C. Monday night, January 8, at the Wilkes Central gym. The students who attended got into the act also by enthusiastically responding to the cheerleaders.

After a slow start, the Cougars came alive in the second half and shot a blazing 70 percent from the floor. Winston-Salem B.C. carried into the second half a five point lead, but this did not stand long. Ronnie Triplett and Tommy Guy lead the Cougar attack, scoring 19 points each. Carl Hudson also had double figures with 17 points to his credit. Billings finished with six points and Steve Cardwell hit for three points. The game ended with W.C.C. the winner by the score of 73-65.

The Cougars play their next game January 13, at Sandhills Community College. The next home game will be January 15, with the tough Cagers of Isothermal Community College.

ABOVE, ONE OF WINSTON-SALEM BUSINESS COLLEGE PLAYERS GOES UP FOR TWO POINTS. BELOW, A W.S.B.C. PLAYER SHOTS FROM MIDDLE COURT FOR ANOTHER TWO POINTS.

The man at the next desk, down with a heavy cold, inquires incredulously: "You mean

I can feel this bad with a disease that doesn't even have a national foundation?"
