quired. This over industrious lad is a prime example of our students preparing themselves for that hideous venture known as final exam. This scholar is endowed with the wisdom of Socrates, the consistencies of Romeo and the fortitude of a modern Homer. All students enraptured with the delight of reading this article should follow the illustrious example of this searching young mind in his quest for infinite enlightenment. Race home with the speed of Mercury and study, study, study no doubt the lad in this picture is doing at this very moment.

TIME TO START

Some people are inclined to quit looking for work the moment they find a job.

Joke

The young couple had met early on New Year's Eve and hit it off quite well as the party progressed. "Sweetheart," he finally said to her. "it's almost midnight—why don't we end the old year with a kiss?"

"If you personally want to," replied his striking young friend. "Personally, I'd rather go to your place and finish it off with a bang."
