WCC Routs Southeastern

The Cougars of Wilkes Community College built up a 35 point halftime lead and then coasted to a 90 to 60 victory in the regular season finale at the Wilkes YMCA. Tommy Guy lead the Cougars to the easy victory with 23 points. George Howard was second with 17 points. High scorers for the Cavaliers were Troy and Perry with 16 and 14 points respectively.

It was the last regular game of the season for the Cougars and proved to be one of their easiest victories. The Wilkes team ended the season with a 13-9 mark winning their last 5 out of 6.
