

WCC S. G. A. Presidents

1966

Our first president was Franklin Pruitt of Elkin.

1966 - 67

To fill Pruitt's unexpired term came Roger Wright. Roger, his wife Becky, and their daughter Katie make their home on 304 Woodland Drive, Wilkesboro. Roger works at Hubbard's in Wilkesboro and is co-owner of the Underground Railroad in Wilkesboro.

1967 - 1968

Our next president was Jim Lyalls, who lives on Route 4, North Wilkesboro. After finishing at WCC, Jim transferred to East Tennessee State University where he was on the cheer-leading squad for two years. Jim now works at Lowe's Companies in North Wilkesboro.

1968 - 1969

Following Jim was Lewis Potteat. Lewis and his wife Lisa are now living in Munich, Germany, where he is serving in the Army. Lewis is in Military Intelligence. After finishing at WCC, Lewis transferred to East Tennessee State University.

SGA Grants Two Charters

By Ken Greene

The Student Government Association has recently granted charters to two new organizations. The Cougarettes, who are our majorettes, and the new Black Organization of Student Services (BOSS) were granted charters January 11, 1972. We sincerely hope these organizations will help to improve relationships among students and increase interest in our school.

The SGA would like to thank the students who came to our Christmas Dance for helping to make it a success. We hope that future dances will be as successful as this one. Speaking of dances, on January 22, Phi Beta Lambda is planning to co-sponsor a dance with the SGA. This is the Homecoming Dance at which Hierarchy in Music (HIM) will play. We urge you to come and enjoy yourselves. On January 26, the SGA and the Circle K Club will sponsor a bloodmobile visit to our school. We hope you will all let your blood run so this project will be a success.

The SGA is also going to the NCCCCSGA in Raleigh at the end of this month. This convention is held once each quarter at various schools in the conference. All other conventions have helped greatly in comparing the attitudes of the students in the different schools. We will report to the students on the accomplishments made at this convention.

1969 - 1970

Charles Johnson is presently a senior at ASU, where he is in the Bachelor of Technology Program. Charles was elected to Alpha Chi Honor Society and is now doing an internship at WCC. Married to the former Barbara Lewis, he now lives near West Jefferson.

1970 - 1971

Charles Mitchell was our president from 1970 to 1971. After finishing at WCC, Charles transferred to Appalachian where he is majoring in history. Charles was active in organizing an intramural football team at ASU.
