HOMECOMING '74

WHO'S WHO

We have fifteen students honored by being selected as "Who's Who Among Students in American Junior Colleges."

The students have been selected by a campus nominating committee that considers a student's scholastic achievement, his participation and leadership in academic and extracurricular activities, his citizenship and service to the school, and his usefulness to the society of the future.

The Cougar Cry staff wishes all of you success in the future and expresses its thanks for helping to make our school better.

The following is a list of the selected students and their curriculum: Gary Bernard Bailey, college transfer; Sandra Kaye Brooks, college transfer; Martha Ruth Duncan, Business Administration; Linda Burns DuVall, Business Administration; Larry Lamarr Hash, Diesel and Equipment Technology; Douglas Brent Holloway, college transfer; David Arthur Myers, Data Processing; Deborah Darlene Nichols, college transfer; Charles Edward Osborne, college transfer; Don Carlan Phillips, Building Construction; Warner Hardin Shew, college transfer; Betty Jean

Four Vie For Crown

Phi Beta Lambda and the Student Government Association of Wilkes Community College will be sponsoring Homecoming for 1974, Friday, February 8, at the Wilkes YMCA. The presentation of the Homecoming Court and the crowning of the queen will be the highlights.

On January 22, 1972, the first homecoming celebration in the history of WCC was held. The basketball game featured the Cougars vs. the Mitchell Junior College Rebels of Statesville. During halftime, Miss Peggy Byers was crowned queen by Dr. Howard E. Thompson, President of Wilkes Community College. Miss Evelyn Bailey of Statesville was the maid of honor. The ladies of the court were Miss Carol Gentry, Miss Kay Miller, Miss Sandy Jones, Miss Judy Carroll, Miss Cathy Blevins, and Miss Shirley Glass.

Miss Jennifer White was the Homecoming Queen of 1973, and her maid of honor was Miss Barbara Russell.

Ballgames, queens, and dances, as a celebration for WCC, thus started the tradition for Wilkes Community College Homecoming.

This year's halftime festivities promise to be the most exciting ever. The presentation of the queen and her court will be made more spectacular as the Cougarettes and Pep Band perform.

From sophomores pictured above will come the queen, maid-of-honor, and two attendants. Freshman attendants will be Diane Whittington, Linda Shaffner, Jeannine Hutchens, and Kathy Greene.
