

Jordan Welborn

- 1 Cat-eye sun glasses
- 2 Everyone to recycle
- 3 Pink flamingoes for my yard
- 4 My car never to frost
- 5 Alarm clock
- 6 The Mystery Machine
- 7 Swing set in the backyard
- 8 Sense of direction
- 9 Dishwasher
- 10 Coke machines in the commons instead of demonic Pepsi machines

Misty Warren

- 1 New TV
- 2 Million dollars
- 3 New VCR
- 4 Tim McGraw
- 5 Money
- 6 2000 Eclipse
- 7 Clothes
- 8 Diamonds
- 9 Vacation
- 10 Stone Cold Steve Austin

Christmas Surveys

Recently ACA students were asked the following questions, and here were some of thier responses:

Do you believe in Santa Claus? If not, when did you stop believing?

Amanda Wilhelm: No, when I saw my mom putting presents in the closet that were labeled "From Santa."

Marci English-Piner: Yes, I believe in Santa Claus. He may not be a real person now, but at one time he was a true person.

Anita Hamby: Yes, I still believe in Santa Claus; just because he doesn't come to my house doesn't mean he doesn't exist.

Kristy Stone: No, when I was about 12 years old I got up and saw my parents putting up my presents.

What is one thing that you want for Christmas?

Bridget Stout: The North Star.

Brandon Shore: Golf clubs.

Marian Shumate: Peace on Earth.

Brent Cockerham: A new car.

Looking back over your childhood, what was your most memorable Christmas and why?

Wesley Smith: When I was about six, I think, because that's when I got my He-man castle.

Jennifer Sheets: Having my grandma home two years ago and out of the hospital.

Amy Wall: All of them. There's nothing better than celebrating the day our Savior was born!

Stefanie Taylor: When I got my first video game system. My oldest brother and I spent hours together without fighting.

I Can't Believe It's Yogurt!
& Java Coast Coffee Shop

10% Discount with a recent College I.D.

336-838-5940
 Collegiate Drive, Wilkesboro

Attention ALL students!!

Need a little spending money but no time between class to check out employment listings.

Take advantage of your local JobLink Center to view employment listings for part time work between class or during breaks.

Room 700 of the Technical Arts Building