

served by Christy Poteat and Sharon Bouchelle. Instructor Tamara Grayson aided with clean-up. It was, as they say, "short but sweet". Sweeter still will be the opportunities that are afforded to the newest members of Alpha Kappa Omega. We wish the following new inductees congratulations for past efforts and continued success in the future!

The Alpha Kappa Omega Spring 2000 Inductees

Robert Jake Billings	Samantha Cheek Call	Cathy I. Childers
Rebekah Lynn Choate	Mathew Thompson Collins	Janice Freeze Davis
Brandy Denise Edmiston	Tracy Miranda Edsel	Sheri Grogan Gragg
Jennifer Childress Hackett	Anita Anders Hamby	Janessa Nicole Johnson
Scott Christopher Kastl	Derek Thomas Kilby	Amy Catherine Lohse
Melissa Call McLeese	Crystal Gayle Miller	Mary Ann Myers
Sara Harvey Owen	Judy Lynn Phillips	Yvonne Yates Pyles
Jennifer Elizabeth Reavis	James Keith Reavis	Randy Allen Royal
Jennifer Renee Sheets	Shawna LeeAnn Sheets	Melanie Renae Sicheloff
Martha Elizabeth Sloan	Angela Lynn Smithey	Kristy Lynette Stone
Kerri Lynn Tadt	Lisa Little Testerman	Mary Williams Warren

(Continued from page 1)

program at WCC. She is involved in the Baptist Student Union, is a mission friend leader at New Hope Baptist Church, and is employed part-time as a cashier at Lowes. Angela's future plans are to become a pediatric nurse.

Christine Weber, elected Sophomore Class President, is enrolled in the Horticulture Technology program. She is employed at Ken's Greenhouse and plans to work in soil and water conservation in the future. She is involved in intramural volleyball and softball at WCC.

Dee de Wet, elected Sophomore Class Vice-President, is in the Associate in Science program at WCC. She is employed at the campus bookstore and is also a camp counselor at Camp Seafarer. Dee enjoys playing tennis and is a volunteer life-guard. Her career plans are to double major in computer science and recreation.

Anita Hamby, elected Sophomore Class Secretary, is majoring in Information Systems/Network Administration at WCC. She is from Millers Creek and enjoys singing and drawing. Anita and her husband Scott have three children.

Lindsey Brason, elected Sophomore Senator, is pursuing an Associate in Arts degree at WCC. She works part-time as a waitress at Don's Seafood and is an assistant at Wilkesboro Chiropractic Clinic. She plays intramural volleyball and plans to become a counselor or to work in clinical psychology.

Matt Collins, elected Sophomore Senator, is enrolled in the Associate in Arts Program (Pre-major- Business Administration). He works part-time at Hampton Inn and is involved in Boy Scouts. Matt is a member of Three Rivers Community Church and enjoys skiing and playing on the Internet.

Tim Wagoner, elected Sophomore Senator, is majoring in Computer Programming at WCC

Top Words Causing Giggles Among Pre-Teens

- 2% Parts
- 1% Slot
- 15% Ball-peen hammer
- 8% Mastication
- 7% Receptacle
- 16% Titular archbishopric
- 13% Pu-pu platter
- 5% Abreast
- 11% Lake Titicaca
- 12% Penal system
- 6% Opening
- 4% Moist

Aa Bb Cc Dd E

