

Attention All Students

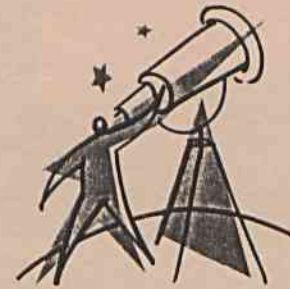

By: Deborah Dancy

Student Support Services is a federally funded TRIO program offering free academic support services to eligible students. These services help to fill the voids that prevent students from succeeding in college. I have been a participant of SSS since I started at WCC in 2001, and I can honestly say they have been a blessing in many different ways.

Academic Advising

Student Support Services Include:

Career Exploration

Cultural Events

Computer Lab

Disability Services

Free Lunches

Financial Aid Advising

Lending Library