

THE GUILFORDIAN

VOLUME I.

GUILFORD COLLEGE, N. C., OCTOBER 27, 1914.

NUMBER 3

GUILFORD DEFEATS LENOIR

Thursday afternoon Guilford met and defeated the strong tennis team from Lenoir College in the doubles. The first game started with quick, snappy plays, and it seemed that both teams were evenly matched, but Guilford forged steadily ahead so that after the first set there was no doubt but that the Guilford representatives would carry off the honors.

Wood and Brown started the doubles for Guilford and took the first set 7-5. When Guilford had taken the second set 6-4, Wood gave way to Price. The next set was lost 2-6, but after Price had "warmed up" the next set was easily annexed 6-3, thus giving us the necessary three out of five sets for victory.

Lenoir was represented by a stronger team than the score would indicate. Both Conred and Hale played a good, stiff game, and fought to the last against defeat. Especially did Conred have a good serve, and would have given his opponents a close race in the singles which were scheduled for Friday afternoon. Unfortunately the weather did not permit these, so Guilford was given the decision of the tournament.

Manager Price has announced that we will meet the team from Davidson College soon, so the students may look forward to a tournament that will afford some of the fastest tennis to be seen this season.

Cox Hall Loses to Archdale.

The first public base ball game of the year was staged Wednesday afternoon when picked teams representing the two boys' dormitories were chosen to determine their pre-eminence. Cox Hall scored in the first inning, but their lead was overcome when Archdale came to the bat and made three. From that the Archdale boys gained steadily one or two runs nearly every inning until the eighth when Cox Hall started a rally and three runs were scored before the side was finally retired.

Zachary pitched a good game for the Archdale boys, and, with the exception of the first inning when he forced a run on bases on balls, and in the eighth when three runs were scored, he held Cox Hall under his control. Strayhorn made a good showing for Cox Hall, and had he been given the support that Zachary received the score would have been much closer. A good many new men were seen in ac-

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

What the Old Presidents Are Doing.

J. E. Coltrane is now at the head of the Jamestown High School.

A. E. Lindley is now College Secretary Intercollegiate Department, Baltimore Young Men's Christian Association.

Edward S. King is now Secretary at the University of South Carolina.

R. H. Fitzgerald is Secretary at University of Tennessee.

Paul S. Kennett is attending a Theological School up in Maryland.

J. B. Woosley is teaching History and Economics in Guilford College.

S. J. Lindley is teaching at Archdale.

On Thursday night, October 15, the Y. M. C. A. meeting, after the Scripture reading and a few remarks by J. D. Wood, was given over to hearing reports from the Elon Conference.

The meeting on last Thursday night was conducted by Prof. Geiser.

There are one hundred and seven boys rooming in the dormitories. On last Thursday night eighty-seven of these boys were out. Where were you?

tion, and they made a creditable showing in their first public game.

Cheering.

Now is the time for the new fellows to be learning the college yells. The basket ball season will soon be here, and the support given the team in cheering will help them fight harder for victory. And the way to obtain this is for all the boys to learn the yells, and then we may have a mass meeting of the boys, elect a leader, and have organized rooting. This form is much more effective, and also tends to suppress the personal remarks which are exceedingly distasteful to the players and also the spectators. Then let us organize, and support our teams.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Elwood Cox, Mrs. Emma Cox, Misses Clara and Effie Cox motored over from High Point Thursday afternoon to see Miss Luna Cox.

Miss Blanche Dawson, voice instructor, has returned from a visit to her parents at Matthews, N. C.

SUBSCRIBE FOR GUILFORDIAN.

NEW SOCIETY HALL

Since the burning of King Hall in 1908, all loyal Henry Clays and Websterians have been anxiously awaiting the day when we should again have halls suitable to the needs of these organizations. We have been promised adequate quarters when the front of New King Hall should be completed. Six years have passed since the destruction of our halls and the prospect for this location seems yet very remote.

A great many of the alumni and old students firmly believe that the work done by the societies is far too important a phase of life at Guilford to be neglected or hampered in the least degree. They are ready and eager to do whatever they can to increase the efficiency and vigor of the work. There are few I believe who will question the fact that the present location (in class rooms) is inadequate and unsatisfactory.

What therefore can be done to replace the "Clays" and "Webs" amid the surroundings they desire and deserve?

For some weeks there has been a movement on foot to secure the second floor of Y. M. C. A. Hall as permanent homes for the societies. It is a part of this plan to devote the Y. M. C. A. building to the Y. M. C. A., the societies and headquarters for the Athletic Director—thus centering all these activities in one convenient and accessible place.

An architect has examined the building and says that the plan is feasible in every particular; also that two halls can be made equal in size to the Y. M. C. A. room. The seating capacity of this room is seventy-five; thus it will be seen that the halls would be fully sufficient as to size.

This proposition meets the approval of both societies, which have endorsed a petition to the Board of Trustees asking that they remodel the stairway and construct the necessary partitions and then allow each society to arrange and equip one of the rooms as it may see fit.

The success of this undertaking will depend in large measure upon the whole-hearted support of old society men. We urge therefore a liberal expression of opinion upon this important matter. Write to the GUILFORDIAN and tell what you think of the proposition, as the Board of Trustees will be like-

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

Perhaps nearly all of the new students have joined the Y. M. and Y. W. Christian Associations and feel that they have made a wise step. But do they know how great a factor it is in our college life? I dare say many thought it was an obligation which ceased when they paid the fee.

Some of us think when we go to the Thursday evening prayer-meeting that we have done all that is necessary. To be sure this is one of the most helpful parts of the Association work, but it is by no means all. Everywhere we turn there is some good resulting from this great work. Here at Guilford, Field Secretaries of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A.'s, Student Volunteer Secretaries and other strong men and women visit us from time to time and help to make our vision of life broader.

Each Association has a president and cabinet officers who receive useful training in the work. Then if there are any who are really willing to do something they may help on the committees by which the work is systemized and promoted.

Through the efforts of the Bible Study committee we have Sunday morning chapel. Here, short, impressive talks are made by the students and occasionally by some member of the Faculty. Often we have special music. Following this is an hour in some well-chosen Bible study. This will be replaced by Mission Study in the second semester.

The Associations promote the social life of the college to a very great extent through the committee for this purpose.

To take these two organizations out of our college would be almost as serious as doing away with the church in the community. Because it affords the only opportunity to students for the development of Christian character. Do we fully realize this?

ly to accede to this arrangement if they can be assured that it will be permanently satisfactory.

R. J. M. HOBBS, '09.

There was a Rook Social at Founders Hall Saturday night, October 17th, in which all the student body took part and thoroughly enjoyed.

PATRONIZE ADVERTISERS.