GUILFORD COLLEGE, N. C., FEBRUARY 10, 1914.5

NUMBER 14

Y. M. C. A. CONFERENCE AT WINSTON.

The twelfth annual convention of the two Carolinas convened in Winston-Salem at 3:30 p. m. Friday, Jan. 29, and continued its sessions until the Sunday night following. The Guilford Association was represented at this convention by C. R. Hinshaw, A. L. Riddick, F. H. Morris and T. G. Perry.

At the opening session of the convention Friday afternoon, Dr. Howard E. Rondthaler, president of Salem College, spoke to the delegates on "Christ Among the People." He continued his discourse on this same subject at the Saturday morning and afternoon sessions. In these discourses he pictured Christ as a tempted man, a cheerful man, and a usable man.

The Friday night session was addressed by Mr. A. M. Trawick, of Nashville, an International Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. on "The New Evangelism." Mr. Trawick read as the basis of his address some verses beginning with Mathew 16:13, and closing with the statement of Christ, "Thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." He said, "We face the 20th century church, which has its roots in the past, but which is not the church of the past. The church to which I belong is partly what it is because of what I am. The church of today is what we make it. God expresses Himself in me every day just as well as I will allow Him."

Among all the speakers of the convention Mr. Fred B. Smith, of New York, deserves more special mention than any others. At the Saturday morning session of the convention Mr. Smith spoke of the spiritual force of the Y. M. C. A. He also delivered a powerful sermon in the First Presbyterian church at the 11 o'clock service Sunday morning on "Faith." But the crowning event of the convention came Sunday afternoon when Mr. Smith delivered a masterful address to men in the Elks' Auditorium, his subject being "America's Greatest Sin." After drawing vivid mental pictures of the many great sins, he finally said that America's greatest sin is the Sin of Ingratitude.

One feature of the convention that will linger long in the minds of the delegates was the annual

GUILFORD WINS LAST GAME OF SEASON

Defeats Elon College in Interesting Game by Score of 25 to 20.--Greensboro Y. M. C. A. Wins.

Guilford closed her basket ball season at home in brilliant style Wednesday night, when she defeated the strong Elon team, 25 to 20. Not only was the game of intense interest throughout both halves, but also it was the fastest, hardest fought game that the student body has had the opportunity of witnessing this season. Elon, our rival in athletic honors, came with the intention of administering a crushing defeat, but since the beginning of the season our team has steadily improved under competent coaching, and this improvement coupled with their determination to win meant only victory. Guilford clearly outclassed the Elon five in passing and general team work, and throughout the whole performance was master of the situation.

The home team worked together better than they have in any previous game, for, in fact, it was a game that demanded the best of each one of the five. They seemed to get together at the first, and from then they fought until the whistle blew. In one way the game was won by the work of Wood, Groome and Jones at forward and center, but it was also won in being saved by the excellent and close guarding of Hinkle and Semans. Groome led in field goals with three, and Wood followed with two. Wood also shot eleven fouls. Hinkle and Semans caged one field goal each. Jones, by his headwork and good passing was also a factor in helping to run up the score.

The work of Hinkle at guard was the outstanding feature of the game. He was guarding one of the best forwards in the State, and the way in which he accomplished this was very gratifying to his Guilford supporters. Semans, Hinkle and Wood each made beautiful shots from long range and at exceedingly difficult angles.

Moorefield was, by far, the star of Elon's quintette and upheld the greater burden of the game. It seemed that their sole object was to pass to Moorefield, to whom they looked to win the game. They were inclined to play a rather rough game, and outweighed our team. McCauley succeeded in finding the basket for one field goal and eight fouls. The weak point of the visitors seemed to be in general team work and passing. The line up was as follows:

Guilford.	Elon.
Wood r.f.	Moorefield
Jones l.f.	Bradford
Groome c.	McCauley
Semans r.g.	Massey
Hinkle l.g.	Morgan

Field goals: Wood (2), Groome (3), Hinkle (1), Semans (1), Moorefield (4), Bradford (1), McCauley (1). Foul goals: Wood (1), McCauley (8). Referee, Stuart; Umpire, Doak.

Greensboro Y. M. C. A. Wins.

Guilford was severely beaten Saturday night by the Greensboro Y. M. C. A. on the Y. M. C. A. floor by the score of 52 to 11. Greensboro outclassed the Guilford boys all around, but the latter were hampered by the very small floor which practically made dribbling impossible. Not a single man of the Guilford team played in his usual form, and they were also laboring under the disadvantage of Y. M. C. A. rules.

The feeling between the two teams ran high and some very unsportsmanlike conduct characterized the game. This was heightened by the attitude of both spectators and officials.

The score follows:

Guilford.	Y. M. C. A.
Wood r.f.	Harbison
Jones l.g.	Kellenberger.
Groome c.	Lewis
Hinkle r.g.	Beecher
Semans l.g.	Blair

Smith substituted for Wood in second half; Tutrell substituted for Semans in second half. Field goals: Harbison (7), Kellenberger (7), Lewis (4), Beecher (3), Blair (2), Wood (1), Groome (1), Smith (1). Foul goals: Harbison (1), Beecher (5), Wood (5). Referee, Barlow; umpire, Stuart; timekeeper, Shore.

Mr. Anderson, Superintendent of Public Instruction of Guilford county, was a visitor at the college Sunday.

MOCK TRIAL.

Memorial Hall was the scene of a special session of court on last Friday night for the purpose of clearing the docket of criminal cases. The brother Clay and Web. Societies jointly gave this program, which served to break the monotony of regular society work as well as to furnish amusement for the visitors.

The case surrounded by most mystery and of most interest was case No. 71, State against William Futrell for the murder of his sweetheart, Miss Mary Jones. A special venire had been summoned from which a jury of twelve men was picked. The evidence was all circumstantial, but the state showed that the evidence and the condition of the body pointed to foul play by Mr. Futrell, while the defense showed a reason for suicide and a possibility of it.

The state represented by Messrs. C. Hinshaw, Budd and Brown prosecuted the case with great zeal, but the defense represented by Brinkley, Morris and Mitchell were equally zealous in their efforts and succeeded in clearing the prisoner at the bar. Some of the speeches were very pathetic because of the serious condition of Mrs. Jones and the grief of Mrs. Futrell.

An attempt was made to make the scene realistic. The stage was arranged on the order of a courtroom and Mr. Perry as judge lent dignity to the proceedings. The examination of the witnesses was attended with some humor and was a very enjoyable part of the proceedings.

While the jury was out deliberating on this case some other cases of local interest were read, but they were postponed to the next session of court.

Mr. McCall, by his intimate knowledge of the workings of the courts of our state, was of invaluable assistance to both sides in the preparation of their material and added considerably to the proceedings by the realistic way in which he filled the office of sheriff.

Mr. Walter Hobbs, of Atlanta, Ga., is visiting relatives in this community.

Miss Sara Richardson, of High Point, was the week end guest of Miss Hazel Armstrong.

Prof. O. V. Woosley, of Lexington, attended the Guilford-Elon game last Wednesday night.
