THANK YOU.

In closing this year's work and in sending out this our last issue of the Guilfordian we, the old board, wish to express our appreciation of the assistance rendered us by our friends both in college and without; with them we wish to share whatever success the paper has won during this, its first year.

To Miss Rhoades for her kindness in always furnishing a musical article, valuable for its information and high literary quality, we feel greatly indebted. By her the third page was always cared for, thus relieving any anxiety about that space. We are assured from numerous compliments we have heard that her articles have been widely read and appreciated.

Prof. Woosley, by his energetic and enthusiastic support in furnishing Alumni notes, has made the Guilfordian attractive to the Alumni and old students, keeping them informed of their classmates and friends. We feel that this has been one of the most valuable departments of our paper and are deeply appreciative of his work in connection with it.

Among those who have made contributions are: Dr. and Mrs. Hobbs, Profs. Dixon, Downing, Hobbs and Peele; Misses Edwards and Ayer, Mrs. Meredith, Messrs. Richard Hobbs, Joseph Purdey, Robert Brown, Harrell Budd, Deborah Brown, Bernice Pike, Lola Edwards, Callie Lewis and Ethel Speas.

Mr. A. K. Moore, '11, very kindly conveyed the manuscript to the printer for many weeks and has our warmest gratitude.

There remains another to whom the board feels that it owes more than to any other person—Prof. Montgomery, our censor. He has displayed unfailing patience and care in correcting manuscripts, giving us the best of advice at board meetings and in fact in every detail of the paper and its work. He has censored practically all of the articles that have been handed in and nothing short of his marked ability could have made our Guilfordian what it is. To him we express our sincere thanks and gratitude.

It is with regret that we lay down our pen for the last time. We have worked hard on the Guilfordian, but it has been a labor of love. If it has endeared Guilford to the hearts of her Alumni and student body, if it has brought up pleasant memories of the past, if it has shown the work that she is trying to do today, if it has aided in the least toward a bigger and better Guilford, with a higher and nobler spirit animating all her activities, then our labor has not been in vain, and we are repaid many fold for our exertions. We hand the torch to those who follow us with the best of wishes for the success of their endeavors and the fond desire that they may far surpass our feeble beginnings, and be guided ever in their labors by the single ideal—for Guilford.

GOODBYE, OLD GUILFORD.

Senior Farewell Song.

(To be sung to tune of Bluebell.)

Classmates, the dawn is waking,
Classmates, we must not sigh;
Oh! how our hearts are breaking,
We've come to say goodbye.
Hear how the world is calling,
Calling to each brave heart;
Classmates, our tears are falling,
Classmates, we soon must part.

(Chorus)

Goodbye, old Guilford,
Farewell to you;
Our fond farewell,
To those we love so true.
Mid future gleanings,
Mid work and fun;
We'll still be dreaming,
Of the tasks well done.

Some day we'll be returning,
Classmates and friends so true;
Guilford, our Alma Mater,
Oh! how we'll all greet you.
Then we will tell the story,
Tell how we fought and won;
Glad to be called your daughters,
Proud to be called your sons.
E. R., '15.

SENIOR RECEPTIONS.

The members of the Senior class considered themselves honored in being invited to take supper with Dr. and Mrs. Hobbs on the evening of May 17, 1915. Dr. and Mrs. Hobbs entertained in their usual pleasant manner.

Also on May 20, 1915, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. White were at home to the class in honor of their niece, Miss Blanche Dixon, and on May 29, 1915, Mr. and Mrs. Edgerton, of Goldsboro, and Dr. and Mrs. Williams entertained the class in honor of Miss Mabel Edgerton at the home of Dr. Williams.
