Y. W. C. A. HEARS ABOUT "TALENTS"

The Thursday evening prayer meeting was conducted by Susan Gentry. She read for a Scripture lesson the well known parable of the talents. In the beginning, she said every girl possesses some talents; it may be only one or it may be ten. And, the speaker said, a girl's first duty is to come to a knowledge of what her talents really are, and then to use them where they will count for most. No girl should let her one talent be neglected; first, because she is not so gifted as another—that one talent was given to her for a purpose, to be used for some definite work, to bring about some desired result. Each person has a special niche into which that individual fits, and no other person can fill that place.

Miss Gentry's talk was purposeful and beneficial, inspiring in her hearers the desire to do better the tasks of daily life.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS IN CONTEST.

On Saturday, the 14th, the annual declamation contest for High School boys was held under the auspices of the Henry Clay and Websterian Literary Societies. In the afternoon a preliminary was held and six boys chosen for the finals. The program was as follows:

Worth Henderson, Bessemer High School—"America a World Power."

Walter Thornburg, Farmer High School—"Love Your Farm."

Grady McBane, Spring High School—"A Plea for Justice."

Curtis Carroll, Mountain View School—"Opportunities of the Scholar."

Russel Blackburn, Summerfield High School—"American Motherhood."

William Fishell, McLeansville High School—"America as a Battlefield."

Flavius Amick, Liberty High School—"Responsibility of War."

Arlie Harper, Siler City High School—"A Tribute to Washington."

Joe Ellis, Trinity High School—"Eulogy on Stonewall Jackson and Robert E. Lee."

Collin Steed, Biscoe High School—"My Home is the World."

Everett Louis Holladay, Pomona High School—"My Mother, My Country, My God."

Messrs. Henderson, McBane, Carroll, Fishell, Ellis and Holladay appeared in the finals held in the evening before a large and interested audience. The judges, Messrs. Garner, Beeson and Valentine decided in favor of the representative from Pomona, Louis Holladay. I. T. Valentine, for the judges, made an interesting speech in presenting the medal, after which the contestants and a large part of the audience repaired to the Society Halls where an informal reception was held.

Quakers Make It Nine Straight

"ALL LOOK ALIKE" TO ZACHARY, MURCHISON AND FINCH—FAST, SNAPPY BALL TEAM, HITTING HARD AND FIELDING CLEANLY.

Wake Forest.

Guilford triumphed over Wake Forest's nine on Saturday, the 7th inst., at Cone Park, Greensboro, by shutting out the Baptists by the score of 3 to 0, in a fast and healthful game of the national sport. The Crimson and Gray proved to be entirely too strong for the Baptists.

Zachary, Guilford's big mound artist of the southpaw variety, held the Baptists at his mercy, allowing only five hits, which were so well scattered that no two came in the same frame, while on the other hand Ellis was pounded hard and only two men fell victims to his benders.

The game was fast and snappy, there being only one miscue, Guilford being guilty of the offense.

Guilford scored in the initial frame on a base on balls, a hit, and a sacrifice. In the third inning another tally was added when Massey cracked out a three-sacker and scored on Garner's clean hit. The final run came in the fourth on a hit batsman, two hits and a sacrifice.

Wake Forest's only good chance of avoiding a shut out, came in the first inning when a man reached third on an error, and two sacrifice hits, only to die on the path, for Cox, next up, succumbed to Zachary's fast benders. Franks in the eighth, connected with a nice one for half a circuit, but was out at third in an attempt to stretch it into a triple.

The features of the game beside the pitching of Zachary was the fast work of Cox at first for Wake Forest, the splendid fielding of Garner, and the heavy slugging of Massey for Guilford. Box score and summary:

Winston-Salem.

Guilford handed the leaguers hailing from the Twin City a 5 to 2 surprise on the latter's diamond, on Easter Monday. The Crimson and Gray hit the league twirlers hard, forcing O'Brien to retire in three frames, while Finch, the speedy right-hander for Guilford, was somewhat wild but in reparation for this he sent seven husky batsmen to the club house with a grim face, and yielded only five hits, these being scattered.

The feature of the game was the hitting of Reddick and Marlette, both sending the pill over the fence for a complete circuit. Box score and summary:

Trinity.

Guilford won her seventh straight game by defeating Trinity on the local diamond, on Tuesday afternoon, the 10th inst., in a contest fraught with errors and ragged playing, to the tune of 6 to 4. The twirling of Zachary and the heavy slugging of Marlette, who garnered two three-base hits, and one two-base hit out of four trips to the plate, were the outstanding features of the game. Ten Methodists breezed by the curves of Zachary.

Trinity scored twice in the first inning on two errors and two wild throws. The Crimson and Gray also

Y. M. C. A. HOLDS BUSINESS MEETING

The meeting on Thursday, April 5, was the regular annual business meeting. At this time the chairman of each committee read his report and offered suggestions for the next year.

Jesse P. Garner, chairman of the Bible study committee, gave a very interesting report. Out of the five Collegiate Bible classes four had a perfect attendance, and the other one an average of 97½ per cent. This is a good record, yet there is more work to do for a few college students do not attend Bible classes at all. The faculty have charge of the preparatory students and a large number of them do not attend regularly. Some method should be worked out to draw them in. The Bible study work for the college students is voluntary and all the leaders are students.

The chairman of the religious meeting committee, John Henry Beeson, gave his report, which showed that the Thursday evening meetings have been well attended, the average attendance being 94. The leaders at these meetings were practically all students and members of the faculty. The usual series meetings were not held due to the fact that funds were not available.

A. Jones Smith, of the mission study committee, stated that no regular mission study classes had been held this year. The Bible classes however have taken up mission subjects. Then we have had talks on missions; also a large number of the fellows attended the Student Volunteer Conference at Greensboro.

Joe Reddick, chairman of the so-

THAT DAVIDSON-GUILFORD GAME

The last game which local Guilfordians will have an opportunity to witness this year is scheduled for Monday, April 23, at Cone Park, Greensboro, with the Davidson College team. The Quakers have been playing a brand of ball which has deserved the best of support from the alumni and friends of the college but the degree of interest and support accorded the team, aside from the student body, is discouraging. Last Friday when A. & E. was blanketed in Greensboro just a measly bunch of 89 (aside from the Guilford student body and faculty) saw the best college game of the season.

Similar crowds witnessed the Wake Forest and Haverford games in Greensboro. Certainly the team is deserving of a good attendance at their last appearance in this section of the state on next Monday. Besides we must trim the Presbyterians as they took the contest last year by the score of 6 to 5. Come and help bag the game.
