GUILFORD SCRUBS DEFEATED

Mixed Aggregation of Nondescripts Lack Team Work.

With a few hours' notice on last Saturday, Manager Marlette and Captain Stanley whipped into shape the scrubs who remained at the college and journeyed to Winston-Salem to meet the strong High School team, State championship contenders. The game resulted in a 25 to 0 score for the home team. The scrub team was composed of only six regular second team men, owing to the fact that the other five were with the varsity at Wake Forest. Winston scored a touchdown in each quarter, but in all but the second quartet failed to kick goal. The work of Crute and Davis, of Winston, was of a high order, these two men scoring all points made by their team. Their attack was thru tackle and around the ends, with the completion of three long forward passes. Captain Stanley starred for Guilford, with Johnson, Dorsett, D. Finch, Tremain, Barnard and W. Finch playing a steady, aggressive game. The contest was well played and clean throughout and final score by no means showing the strength of the Guilford team.

The team was royally treated, the entertainment ending with a reception at the High School in the evening. The line up was:

Substitutes—For Winston, Sheppard for Conley, McKinnie for O'Brien, Linville for McKinnie, Langley for Kirk, Bollick for Morley.

For Guilford—Barnard for W. Finch, Cooper for Thrift.

Referee, Dean (Davidson). Timekeeper, Prof. C. B. Edwards. Head linesman, L. Newbold.

Guilford Well Represented at Five Years' Meeting.

The following Guilfordians go as delegates from North Carolina Yearly meeting to the Five Years Meeting held in Richmond, Indiana, during the ensuing week: Dr. and Mrs. Hobbs, Prof. and Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Alpheus White, Mrs. Eunice Darden Meader, Miss Laura Worth and Mrs. Anna Williams.

Following Prof. Brinton's suggestion of Tuesday morning, the entire student body assembled in front of Founder's Hall on the following afternoon and some enthusiastic cheering took place. However it might be said that there is still room for improvement. The Guilford boys and girls marched around Hobbs field, singing college songs, and otherwise making demonstrations of loyalty and support.

BAPTISTS HELD TO THREE TOUCHDOWNS

Crimson and Grey Puts Up Plucky Fight But is Defeated 20-0.

The third football game for the Quakers this season was staged at Wake Forest on last Saturday afternoon. It resulted in a 20-0 victory for the Wake Forest eleven.

The game was in several respects the best of this season so far. Although she lost to the Baptists, Guilford has the best of reasons to be satisfied with and proud of her team. Guilford had the misfortune to have Bryant put out by injuries in about the first three minutes of play, and this more than any other factor lost the game. The great burden of the back field work then fell upon Newlin and Jones, the only regular back field men left.

The first half saw no scoring and appeared to be anybody's game, with perhaps a good shade of advantage to Guilford. The ball was never close to either goal and this period was particularly marked by Captain Newlin's line plunging, and by the work of Reddick at end, Fort at center, and Zachary at guard.

The second half, however, showed

CHURCH HERE SCENE OF BEAUTIFUL WEDDING

A very pretty and impressive marriage was solemnized at the Friends church here Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock when Miss Anna Davis, daughter of Professor J. Franklin Davis, became the bride of Mr. Colin Shaw McArthur, of Parkton, N. C.

The church was artistically decorated with a profusion of ferns and pink and white cosmos. Before the ceremony Mr. Fowell Mendenhall, ex-'17, sang "At Dawning," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. A. K. Moore, of Greensboro. The bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March. The bride, dressed in white satin and carrying bridal roses and lilies of the valley, was accompanied by her father. The maid of honor, Miss Mary Mendenhall, of High Point, wore a handsome gown of pink georgette crepe and carried bridal roses. The other attendants of the bride were Miss Cassie Mendenhall, of High Point, and Miss Gertrude Hobbs, of Guilford College. They were also dressed in pink georgette crepe and carried huge bouquets of pink chrysanthemums. Mr. Lauren McArthur, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Mr. Culbreth, of Parkton, and Mr. George Dees, of Grantsboro, were also attendants. The ushers were Mr. Paul Edgerton, of Winston-Salem, Mr. Charles Doak, of Guilford College, and Mr. George Fort, of Summerfield. Rev. C. E. Hodgkin, of Greensboro, performed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. McArthur will make their home at Parkton after a bridal trip to the western part of the State.

GET READY FOR TRACK MEET

The annual "Indoor Track Meet" will take place in the Gymnasium next Saturday night and every class including the preps should make early plans to put the best possible teams on the floor. Last year the present Senior class won the cup and the competition this year will be keener than ever. It is expected that many of the records established then will be broken. Prizes will be offered to the winners of all events. The exact order and nature of the events has not yet been fully determined by the committee in charge but the following is the probable program:

1. Girls' throwing contest. Get some pillows girls and practice at your roommate's head.
2. Wheelbarrow race. Human wheelbarrows only will be used.
3. Three-legged race for girls.
4. Three-legged race for boys.
5. Shoe race for boys. Good training for those who get up for breakfast when the last bell taps.
6. Cracker race for boys. Guilford's many gastronomic experts will have a good chance to shine here. Look out for Stafford.
7. Two-lip race. All rag chewers get ready. This is your chance.
8. Potato race for girls.
9. Sack race for boys.
10. Nail driving contest for girls.
11. Tug of war.
12. Clothes pin race.

In the last two events the order will be: Seniors vs. Juniors, Sophomores vs. Freshmen, Winners vs. Winners.

Any one in full class standing or who has a good chance of making it during the year will be eligible for the class teams.

THE LITERARY CLUB ORGANIZES

The Literary Club spent an interesting half hour last Wednesday evening discussing possible subjects for the winter's study. Many expressed their appreciation of the opportunity, offered them last year, of studying Greek literature, the real basis after all for the study of every literature. All had such good suggestions to offer for the coming winter's program that it was thought best to postpone the final decision till the next meeting. For the first few meetings the club plans to make a thorough study of Chaucer, his age, his gifts and his influence on English literature.

Mr. Edwards, Mr. Guess, Mr. Rogers, Miss Noles and Miss Roberts were elected members of the club. Mr. Balderston, Miss Osborne and Miss Edwards were appointed on the executive committee; Dr. Hobbs, Mrs. Hobbs, Mr. Brinton, Dr. Meredith and Miss Roberts on the program committee.

At the last meeting of the Church History Seminar, Arthur Lineberry gave an account of Paul's first missionary journey. Nigal Marlette outlined the first Jerusalem Conference, and its results.

Y. W. C. A. PICNIC MUCH ENJOYED

Annual Battle Ground Affair a Successful Combination of Songs, Eats, Fine Weather and Good Spirits.

The Y. W. C. A. girls had waited and longed for the coming of October—the time of the annual picnic. Finally the day dawned, and it seemed that autumn donned her loveliest gown for the occasion, for the day was as nearly ideal as even the most fastidious picnickers could desire.

Promptly at one-thirty, there was hurrying of feet, shouts of delight, and words of caution, which showed that the longed-for time had really come, and soon a merry crowd was on its way to the historic battle-ground.

After a safe arrival, Miss Louise proclaimed that every girl could do as she pleased, but everybody must be back at five o'clock. Accordingly, the group was soon scattered, some hastening to see the various monuments, others seeking the placid beauty of the lake, and others the lovely retreats of the red and gold woods. Everywhere could be heard happy voices, and here and there could be seen groups who were letting Mr. Brownie focus on some spot which, as a memento, was especially desired.

As five o'clock drew near, girls could be seen straggling in from all directions, carrying in their hands forked sticks, which later were found to be very useful. Already a fire had been lighted, and Miss Gainey was in the midst of coffee-making—the secret of whose excellence is alone known to her. Soon the whole band of girls was comfortably seated around the glowing fire with thoughts of what would soon come. Each girl however was patient and loyal enough to join heartily in the good old college songs. After this there was evidence that the hopes of that hungry mob were by no means groundless. Ravenous appetites were satisfied by such products of culinary art as: Sandwiches, pickles, coffee, persimmon pudding, cake, grapes, etc. There was much fun over the roasting of the "puppies"—some of which showed a natural antipathy for forked sticks and a distinct preference for the glowing embers. After this sumptuous repast had been sufficiently enjoyed, orders were given for every girl to seek her vehicle of conveyance. With yells, laughter and songs, the happy party wended its way home, and all too soon entered the precincts of the college campus. As each girl sought her dormitory she inwardly or outwardly acknowledged that the day had been truly one of joy and pleasure.

Miss Louise Osborne conducted the morning collection last Sunday, and spoke most helpfully on the worth and value of ideals in life.
