

WEBSTERIANS DEBATE SELF-GOVERNMENT FOR FILIPINOS

The Websterian Society is taking on a new spirit, and an increased interest was shown by the new men who were on the program last Friday night.

The question for discussion was: "Resolved, That the United States should give the Filipinos the right to govern themselves." The affirmative was upheld by Towe, Raiford and Gilbreath, while Brown, Smith and Lineberry defended the negative. The affirmative argued that the Filipinos are becoming an educated people and already are capable of governing themselves, and the desire to do so. They further showed that it would require a large army to protect them should the United States be involved in war with other nations and this would be more of an expense than the islands are a profit. The negative was successful in showing that the Filipinos are not an educated people, but of the illiterate class who depend on the United States for laws and also for their enforcement. They also showed that these islands are good coaling stations for our ships and that they form a good gate to the Orient.

The judges, Coach Doak, David White and Clarence Macon, decided two to one in favor of the negative.

The second number on the program was a report of the latest current events, given by J. A. Barnard, which was very much enjoyed by all.

After a very interesting critic's report by Raleigh Tremain, society adjourned.

DON'T WORRY SAYS

ELBERT FORT

There was a good crowd out at Y. M. C. A. last Thursday evening and much interest was manifested throughout the meeting. Elbert Fort talked to an attentive audience on the subject of "Worry." He began by stating that worry is not merely a local problem, but that it is universal. Everybody worries over something. Sometimes the causes are slight. Sometimes the causes are slight. Some people worry over things that would never even trouble another person. Any one who looks for worry can certainly find it. A man never knows how much worry affects him. He thinks only on the cause of worry and knows only that he is worrying. Again there are some who would stop worrying if they knew how. A man can quit worrying if he will determine to do so. Try being thankful for something. Look on the bright side of things; be prayerful about everything. Learn to do something good each day and much cause for worry will be removed.

for in the last half the Quakers gradually widened the breach between the two scores.

The whole student body showed unusual interest by giving all the assistance that organized cheering can give. The girls are to be commended for their singing, and boys led by Cheer Leader Dorsett deserve praise for their consistent yelling.

The line-up:

Guilford—Hubbard, 1. f.; Jones, r. f.; Groome, c.; Newlin, 1. g.; Zachary, r. g.

Davidson—Davenport, 1. f.; King, r. f.; Romeveldt, c.; McAlister, 1. g.; McAskill, r. g.

Substitutes: Hengeveldt for Romeveldt, Ballinger for Hubbard.

Field goals: King 1, Hengeveldt 1, Jones 2, Romeveldt 1, Hubbard 3, McAlister 1, Groome 2, Ballinger 1.

Foul goals: Jones 6, King 2.

Referee, Sharpe.

Guilford, 26; U. S. C., 28.

The last game of the season was played on the local floor on last Wednesday night, February 27, the University of South Carolina quint being the opposing team. The game was devoid of any spectacular playing. Due to the lack of team work on Guilford's part, the game was lost to South Carolina by the score of 26 to 28. Groome and Jones played the best ball for the home team, the former securing five field goals, while the latter was successful in pocketing six. For South Carolina Bowen led his team mates in scoring with four field goals.

The line-up was as follows:

Guilford: Groome, center; Hubbard, Ballinger and Jones, forwards; Zachary and Newlin, guards.

U. S. C.: Beall, center; Weston and Bowen, forwards; Means and Waring, guards.

Field goals, Groome 5, Hubbard 1, Jones 6, Weston 2, Bowen 4, Means 1, Waring 2.

Foul goals, Jones 2 out of 8, Waring 8 out of 14.

Referee, Sharpe.

CLAYS DEBATE

MONROE DOCTRINE

Last Friday night in the Henry Clay Hall the question, "Resolved, That the Monroe doctrine should be abandoned," was hotly discussed. Its flaws were so vigorously attacked that the audience wondered how the United States could possibly have upheld such a selfish theory, while its virtues were so magnified that they seemed to wear halos. The doctrine was hotly attacked by Messrs. Casey and Williams, while the negative was successfully defended by Messrs. Newlin and Townsend.

An interesting synopsis of the current events of the week was given by J. G. White.

The society was highly pleased and honored by having three lady visitors, Mrs. Knight, Miss Gray and Miss Blackburn. The Clays extended a cordial invitation to pay such a visit again.

The society was also glad to have with it an old Clay, Mr. Murchison.

THE GATE.

When first I entered thru the gate
And saw the old beloved college,
I found the kindly hand of fate
Had led me thru the gate of knowledge.

When last I go from out the gate
No warden locks it with his keys,
It ever more shall open wait,
A gate to happy memories.
