

CLAYS DISCUSS

COLLEGE FRATERNITIES

The Henry Clay Society met on Friday night and discussed the question: Resolved that College Fraternities should be abolished. The affirmative completely convinced the judges that fraternities were a menace to a college and to the country because they develop a feeling of social superiority and also a habit of idleness and extravagance among college students.

J. D. White gave a lecture on Industrial Chemistry which was very helpful and instructive.

Hugh L. White and B. L. White were then called upon for an extemporaneous debate. Both speakers were very humorous and witty.

ZATASIAN DISCUSS

THE NEGRO PROBLEM

The negro problem given by the Zatasians on Friday evening, Nov. 8, was very interesting. The first number was a paper on the "Negro of Africa and His Development," by Florence Cox. The debate for the evening was, "Resolved, that the negro should be allowed equal suffrage with the white man." Affirmative, Novie Yow; negative, Nina Robertson. The judges, Clara Belle Edgerton, Katharine Campbell and Mabel Ward decided in favor of the negative.

The next number on the program was a negro song by Marjorie Williams. Teressa Abbiati then recited.

The following new officers were elected: President, Eula Hockett; Secretary, Alma Chilton; Marshal, Nina Robertson.

Arthur Lineberry has been promoted to a corporal. His address is Battery E, 8th Reg. Y. A. R. D, Camp Jackson, S. C.

Sergeant H. N. Williard paid a flying visit to the college Monday afternoon. He is stationed at Camp Sevier.

Miss Beulah Jessup has returned to the college after spending two weeks at home.
