Along with the splendid work in baseball we would not forget to mention the progress of track. Many girls have started to walk one hundred miles in order to win a "G." Several have already reached the fiftieth mile post and are still striving for the one hundredth one.

Last year many started but fell by the wayside and only four reached the goal. Let us hope that those who have begun this year will not give up but persevere to the last.

Several girls have taken an active interest in tennis. We trust that more will become interested when the real tennis season opens next spring.

Girls, let's line ourselves up with these different phases of athletics. Let's make use of these flying opportunities. They will come to us no more. It will soon be time for basket ball. Let's make this year the best in the history of girls' athletics at Guilford. We've got the girls—more than ever before. Let's seize this chance to develop this side of college life. Don't be in the list of slackers or disinterested ones. Let's lay our books aside for a short while each day after school and develop strong physical, as well as mental qualities. You can do much to make this college of ours better by supporting athletics. Besides you are receiving something which you can get nowhere else. Will you be alert to these advantages?

Come join our ranks with all your might,
 And we'll surely, surely win the fight.

GIRLS' ATHLETICS GOING FORWARD.

Despite the fact that girls have been a little late in beginning athletics, on account of the sultry weather during the first weeks of school they are now entering into the spirit wholeheartedly and much is being accomplished.

So far baseball has been the main feature. Never before have so many girls taken such an active part. Almost every day from 4:15 to 5:30 p. m. the baseball field is dotted with girls—yes, girls, big girls, little girls, tall girls and short girls—each one doing her best to become the most skillful.

This phase of girls' athletics has been loyally supported, altho this is only the second year that it has been listed as a department of girls' athletics.

The new girls have shown much interest in the contest and are rapidly coming to the front. At first some of them seemed very timid and awkward, but now many can boast of the fact that they can make a three-base hit, and occasionally a home run.

It is urged that this "pep" and co-operation continue, as only the most skillful will play in the public game which is coming this week.

If you wish to be on the winning side and play in the public game, you must seize every opportunity for real practice, for skill in throwing balls, in batting, etc. Remember all these points count in winning a "G." Get into the spirit of the game, give your best co-operation and be there on good time, full of enthusiasm and "pep," and you will be sure to win the day.

AGE BEFORE BEAUTY.

To the Editor of the Guilfordian:

We wish to draw attention to the fact that one table in the dining room is very fortunate. This table is honored by the presence of two students who invariably take care that the professor at the table is the first person to whom each of the various dishes is passed. These two also never fail to ask to be excused when they are obliged to leave the table before the other students do. That these young people know the ways of the world is apparent.

ZATAZIAN'S ELECT ORATORS.

Ward and Allene Johnson completed the program.

Under miscellaneous business the following were elected to represent the society in its annual oratorical contest: Florence Martin, Edith Harrison, Mabel Ward, Eurie Teague, Hazel Richardson and Margaret Levering.

Miss Alma Chilton, as critic, gave a very helpful report.
