

ALUMNI NOTES

Harry Johnson, ex-'21, who is at Carolina this session, was a visitor at the college during the Easter week end.

Norman Fox, '20, spent the Easter week end with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Fox. He is registered at Carolina this year.

Ruth Coble, '17, and Mary Coble, '20, spent the Easter week end at Guilford. Ruth Coble is teaching at Smithfield and Mary Coble at Roanoke Rapids.

Hervie Williard, '19, and wife, Vivian Hayworth Williard, were both here for the Web-Phil reception Friday night, April 1. Hervie is connected with the High point Savings Bank and Vivian is teaching in the Trinity High School.

Wm. Rudd, Fowell Mendenhall, David White and Shields Cameron were present at the Web-Phil reception.

James Anderson, '09, was a visitor at the college during the Easter week end.

Julian E. White, '09, and Ethel Hodgkin White, '09, spent a few hours on the campus Sunday, April 3. Their young son, Julian E., Jr., accompanied them.

Guilford College alumni now in the teaching profession seem thoroughly awake to the possibilities for rural education in consolidation. Shields Cameron at Germanton is actively agitating consolidation for his district.

Carl Sink, ex-'10, who was a week end visitor at the college, is energetically pushing a consolidation project at Tyro, N. C. He hopes to consolidate four small school districts with the Tyro school.

Louby Casey, '20, principal of the White Plains High School, is planning a consolidation campaign for his district.

PROFESSOR M. C. MILLS DELIVERS AN ADDRESS IN GERMANTON

Professor Mills, head of the Economics Department delivered the commencement address at the Germanton High School, March 31. Shields Cameron, of the class of '20, who was principal of the school there during the past year, succeeded in carrying out a program in the interests of the advancement of education of which any Guilford alumnus should be proud.

WILLIS H. WHITE

Willis H. White of Providence, R. I., who has recently made a tour through Mexico in the interests of the American Friends Service Committee, stopped at Guilford on his way home and spent Easter with Dr. and Mrs. Binford. On Sunday evening the members of the Faculty and students who remained at the college through vacation, met with him to hear the stories of his trip. He told them many interesting facts, about the need for hospitals, sanitation and a better system of education.

"SUNDAY MORNING ADVENTURES."

Elizabeth Yates and Nell Carroll Have Charge of the Y. W. C. A. Prayer Meeting

The Young Women's Christian Association met at the regular time on Thursday, March 31. Very efficient leaders, Nell Carroll and Elizabeth Yates, had been procured, and the meeting proved to be very helpful and interesting. Miss Carroll opened the meeting with a scripture reading which was very closely connected with the subject, "Sunday Morning Adventures." Miss Yates then began the discussion of the subject. When Sunday morning comes we must not think it makes no difference if we do not attend church because we are not the whole thing. Each one of us is an important part and it is very necessary that we go. Nor can we, because each of us is not the whole thing, fail to give our individual attention to what is being said. Others may be influenced by us. There are thousands of people going to church every Sunday morning for the same purpose we are. For ages people have gone to church, and it is very necessary that they continue to go. Going to church should not be considered a minor thing. The discussion was continued by others who gave some brief remarks on compulsory church attendance, hymns, prayer and why we go to church. Is it because you are duty bound and who are the people to be affected by what we do or do not do?

GIRLS ARE ALL THE SAME

Some boys say they are all the same That the height of their ambition is to prove you tame, To twist you around their finger and turn you about, Until they have proven you are entirely without.

Yes, that they figure you a great asset to their string Not that you are human but merely a thing, They never call to mind that little quotation that's true "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you."

That they only love flowers, music and candy And pick for the boy that they think is a dandy, It's because he furnishes these things and can Not, that it's even love for their fellow man.

But listen, young man just a word today Don't be too sure in what you say, You have roamed and ranged a lot, no doubt, But what type of girls have you always picked out?

I have been there just the same as you And let me say that your statement's untrue, And it's time to change your associates too, Just as I was compelled to do.

There exists a girl that's different from all the rest So get wise young fellow and make this test, Depart from that type you have always picked out And God knows you will change, yes, without a doubt.

COMFORTABLE OLD AGE

What would it mean to your father and mother to get a check for several thousand dollars or a monthly income from our Company?

Wouldn't they rather have it now than wait until he dies? Isn't it really worth more? Mightn't it even prolong his life—and make them both happier?

You, sir, can do what your father wishes he had done—take an Endowment Policy payable at 65.

It is easy to do. It is good insurance, good investment, and good sense.

WHO GOES TO CHURCH

At a recent religious census taken among 2,000 students at the University of Chicago by the Board of Christian Union, it was revealed that among the 2,000 there was only one atheist, only two agnostics, and that more men go to church than women.
