QUAKERS PILE UP SCORE ON LUTHERANS

Slow Game. Many Errors.

In the slowest and worst played game seen here in years Guilford won her second game of the season from Lenoir college, April 5th. The final count showed the score to be 14-5. The game was a good contrast to the one played in Greensboro on Easter Monday and at times brought back memories of when basketball was played in cornfields where the score was supposed to run up in the twenties.

Lenoir took first bat and started the game off with a run in the first game. Rudisill first up was given free transportation to first and was only prevented from scoring later when Newlin's long throw from left field caught him at home plate. Mackie who had sent a hot drive by McBane, scored the first run when Deaton sent a nice single over second base.

Guilford failed to reach first in this inning. The first two men up fanned, had the third flew out to center field.

Second Inning. Lenoir managed to send a man as far as second but left him stranded there. The Quaker lads then came to bat and decided to cooperate with the working force in wearing the grass off the diamond. By "Slapping" out five hits and taking advantage of multitudinous errors on Lenoir's part they succeeded in going around ten times and left the ring bare of all but tracks.

Third inning—no score, no excitement.

Fourth inning—McAlister and Boggs for Lenoir, both singled. Curry grounded out to first and then Miller drew a pass filling the paces. Bolick sent a line drive to McBane for the second out. Gilbert then connected with a good one and sailed it far enough to enable him to count three sacks and bring in three runs. He scored later on Rudisill's single.

From this time on Lenoir scored no more although they had a man on third at two different times.

Guilford in the remaining four times at bat scored once in each inning.

THE COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS WILL BE DELIVERED BY WILLIAM C. DENNIS

William Cullen Dennis, attorney of International Law, Washington, D. C., will give the commencement address. Mr. Dennis is unusually brilliant and a comparatively young man. He had completed the regular college course and taken a four year's law course at Harvard University before he was twenty-one. Also he has had extensive experience as Secretary of Peace organizations, as a member of the staff of Attorney General of the U. S. under President Taft, as an attorney dealing with cases of International law. He was very prominent in the Venezuela case. In 1917 at the request of the Chinese government he became special council to that nation, and did some very remarkable work in Peking. This office he held until 1919.

ZATASIAN ORATORICAL

Miss Eva Holder '24 Wins. "The Farmers Wife"

The Zatasian Literary Society held its thirteenth annual oratorical contest in Memorial Hall on Saturday evening, April 9th.

The variety of subjects which were presented held the interest of the audience throughout the program. The excellent manner in which the speakers delivered their orations reflects the splendid work which the Zatasians are doing.

Miss Holder's oration, "The Farmer's Wife" showed the situation as it exists on the average farm in America, and that better conditions must be brought about if the farm woman is to have freedom from the ceaseless toil which has been her lot from time immemorial. It is only to be another job added to her full program to get it, but it must eventually come about as one more step in the progress of the American home.

The fact that the United States must intervene in Mexico, not with arms, ammunition, and soldiers, but with a band of teachers, if Mexico is to set up a stable government out of the present state of strife, was clearly presented. The need and value of physical education in our high schools, and the obligation lying upon each individual to climb, rather than to rely upon chance, were emphasized. Honorable mention was made of "Our Educational Outlook," which set forth so clearly the fact that North Carolina cannot advance to a higher rank in education until she shall have first provided ample facilities for boys and girls in institutions of higher learning, for these will be the teachers of tomorrow.

The musical numbers were well rendered.

- I. "To a Water Lily" Edward McDowell, Alta Ruush
- II. Neighbors Mabel Ward.
- III. Physical Education in our High Schools Carrie Norman
- IV. Life's Stewardship Telma Farlow.
- V. The Farmer's Wife.. Eva Holder
- VI. Our Educational Outlook Allene Johnson.
- VII. Vocal solo Marjorie Williams

The judges for the evening were: Dr. L. L. Hobbs, Prof. C. A. Wil and the Rev. Waldo Woody. Professor Williams delivered the prize, a complete set of the works of Shakespeare, to Miss Eva Holder.

MEMBERS OF FACULTY VISIT HIGH SCHOOLS

Several members of the Faculty are adding to their programs, visits to some surrounding High Schools. On Friday Professor Newlin and Professor Dann visited several schools in Chatam county, Siler City, Mount Vernon Springs, Bonlee and Goldston. They report a very interesting trip. Next Tuesday, Professor Balderston will visit Liberty High School, while Doctor Hobbs will go to Burlington on Wednesday. These trips are being made in the interest of the college.

JUNIORS BANQUET SENIORS

The O'Henry Hotel the Scene of the Annual Banquet.

The annual banquet given by the Junior class in honor of the graduating class took place on Wednesday evening, April 6, at the O. Henry Hotel in Greensboro. This event is always looked forward to by each succeeding class with great anticipation, but the class of '21 feel especially honored this year because this longed and wished for event was given at the O'Henry Hotel.

Full of curiosity and emotion a happy group of Seniors left the college on Wednesday evening and upon arriving at the hotel were taken to their respective rooms where they awaited the appointed hour to meet their hosts.

At seven o'clock the Seniors were ushered to the lobby on the first floor where they met the Juniors and faculty guests.

After a few minutes of conversation, and exchange of greetings that served to put every one in the right frame of mind for what was to follow, the Seniors and Faculty guests were escorted to the banquet hall. The banquet was very beautiful, being tastefully arranged in the balcony overlooking the main dining floor of the hotel. In center of the table was placed a raised square (seemingly) covered with green grass. In the center of the square were placed two large dolls, one dressed in white, the other in a Senior cap and gown—Over these two dolls was raised a beautiful umbrella—all symbolizing the month of April.

Nominal place cards marked with a tiny umbrella showed each one his place at the festive board. The O'Henry orchestra furnished music for the evening. A delicious five-course menu was then served as given below.

Chicken Gumbo	Celery Hearts
Saltines	Olives
Rare Steaks
String Beans	Creamed Mushrooms
Rolls	Butter
Tomato and Lettuce Salad
Ice Cream	Cake
Coffee

The toastmaster for the evening was Gladstone Hodgkin who announced the toasts—using his genuine wit, with famous quotations from great writers. Ruth Outland '22 responded to "Clouds and Showers" in her usually interesting way. "Seniors and Mud" as responded to by Algie Newlin '21 was amusing as well as interesting.

President Binford as the head of the faculty guests answered to the toast, "Rainbows and Guilford," and proved in a very logical way that the toast should have been worded, "Guilford Rains Beaux." Then he told how the lives of Guilford graduates reflect the spirit of the college in the same way that the various colors of the rainbow are reflected.

"Sunshine and Flowers," as responded to by Marjorie Williams '21 was especially beautiful.

"Umbrellas" by Curtis Newlin '22 closed the toasts. In this speech Mr. Newlin compared the umbrella to a college education. The first year being used in making the staff,

THE ANNUAL HIGH SCHOOL CONTESTS

Declamation, Track, and Basket Ball. Medals and Cups to Be Awarded Winners.

Saturday, April 23, promises to be an interesting day for Guilford students as well as for the large number of High School students from various schools of the State, who will be on the campus at that time to take part in the various contests which will be held.

Plans for these contests have been worked out by the faculty committee and a committee composed of Professor L. Lea White, chairman of the faculty committee, and a representative from each of the four literary societies.

A few years ago Guilford originated the idea of a state high school declamation and recitation contest and since that time has held annually these contests.

The contests this year promise to be even more interesting than usual, since a larger number of contestants have entered. The preliminary contests will be held Saturday morning and the finals will be held Saturday evening in Memorial Hall.

In order that a greater number of students might be present at that time, the committees have arranged also to hold an inter high school track meet, which heretofore has not been held. Approximately six schools have entered this meet which will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. A silver cup will be awarded to the school winning the meet.

Also at this time there will be a girls' basket ball contest. Several schools have arranged to send teams to participate in this part of the day's program. The preliminaries will be played off Saturday morning and the two winning teams will play for the final honors Saturday afternoon. A trophy cup will also be awarded the winning team by the Young Women's Athletic Association of the college.

All contestants will be guests of the college at that time, and a reception will be given in their honor by the social committees of the two Christian Associations, after the contest Saturday evening.

E. C. SAGE TO VISIT GUILFORD.

Mr. E. C. Sage, a member of the General Board of Education of New York City which has charge of the Rockefeller foundation, will visit Guilford in the near future, in order to study its standard and financial condition.

the second year the ribs, the third year the cover and the fourth year adds the finishing touches, while the diploma serves as the small catch which holds up the cover.

"Hail, Dear Old Guilford" was then sung by the united classes after which all came back to the lobby, where a very pleasant hour was spent in mingled conversation.

This occasion will doubtless be a cherished memory of the members of the class of '21.

Every Senior expressed his sincere appreciation of the pleasant evening to the members of the Junior class. Those who were present at the occasion can have no doubt that every one had a genuine good time.
