A letter has been received from Professor Eugene J. Katharine Campbell and Mary Coble of the class of '20 are now connected with these schools.

Mr. Charles C. Smithdeal of the class of 1911 is making a special effort to get his class back for a reunion at commencement. The editors wish to commend Mr. Smithdeal for his work on this line. We hope that members of other classes will follow his example.

N. C. UNIVERSITY

Chapel Hill, April 8.—The sixth series of original one set plays is now being worked up by the Carolina Playmakers. The offering this time will consist of one tragedy and two comedies. The performance is scheduled for April 29th and 30th and later a state trip will be taken. —"The Tar Heel."

MRS. MERIDITH RECITES

On Friday evening April 8th, an audience in Memorial Hall was charmed with the recital given by Mrs. Angelina Wood Meridith, mezzo-soprano singer, and Gracett Frazier accompanying her at the piano. The singer's mastery over a wide range of songs was displayed in the program which contained numbers in Old Scotch, Old English, Irish, French and German.

The following is the program as given—

- 1. a. A Song of Sunshine—A. Goring Thomas.
- b. Three Fishers Went Sailing.—John Hullah.
- 3. Caller Herin'—Old Scotch.
- d. How's My Boy—Sidney Homer
- 2. a. Orpheus with His Lute—Arthur Sullivan.
- b. Recitations and Aria from "Orpheo."—Gluck.
- 3. a. The Three Ravens—Old English.
- b. Kerry Dance (Irish)—Molloy
- c. Mutterseelenallein—German Folk Song.
- d. Vous Dansez, Marquise (French)—Lemair.
- 4. a. Nymphs and Shepherds—Purcell.
- b. Fairies' Lullaby—Needham.
- c. The Legend—David B. Johnstone
- d. All in the April Evening—Diack.
- e. Dainty Dorothea—Reginald De-Koven.
- f. The Awakening of Spring—Teresa del Riego.

In number one, parts "b" and "c" were the most enjoyed, probably because of the few words of explanation which preceded them. "Caller" is the Scotch word for "fresh" and in "c" there was a vivid word picture of the old Scotchman crying his "Caller Herrin" for sale.

The English translation of number two (b) was sung. In both parts, (a) and (b) the words of explanation given were such that the audience could more readily appreciate the interpretation placed on these numbers by the singer.

The German music is rich in folk songs, of which Mutterseelenallein is a typical example. This in English is "Utterly alone."

"Vous Dansez, Marquise" was typical of the grace and rythm which characterizes the French music.

Numbers four was enjoyed immensely though parts (a), (e) and (f) bear special notice.

Throughout the entire recital Mrs. Meridith's control was perfect.

Mrs. Meridith was a former instructor in this institution and now resides near the college campus.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT CONSTITUTION REVISED

House Presidents Elected.

The girls' Student Government Association certainly has not taken the spring fever for it is more active than ever. In the Mass Meeting Saturday afternoon a revision of the old constitution was adopted. The meeting also voted to send its president-elect for 1921-22 to the Inter-collegiate student government conference to be held April 12-16 at Agnus Scott, Atlanta, Georgia.

The 1921-22 House Presidents were elected last week. Annie Brown holds the office in Founders Hall and Florence Cox in New Garden Hall. Both of these girls are quite capable of superintending the work of the House Committees and carrying out the Dormitory Rules.
