EDITORIAL COMMENT

Guilford in all its past history has been known for the thoroughness and high grade scholarship of her students. Guilford alumni have gone out and made marks in the world which compare favorably with the work of graduates of any college this size. Because ours is a worthy institution we were granted the Bryn Mawr and Haverford scholarships, which were to be awarded to the girl and boy in the senior class who should make the highest average grades in the Junior and Senior years. Among the girls who have won the scholarship there have been some who worked so hard to win it that they were unable physically to do the work. Besides, the adjustment and different methods of study were difficult to make in many cases. Hence, it was felt that a change was needed.

This new basis for awarding scholarship is, as we see it, a very fine thing for Guilford students. The person who is the most brilliant student is not always the most all-round and representative of his class. Some other person who does not make so many "A's" as he, may be an all-round college person, who is able to do good work in several fields of activity. Under the old system, sometimes the students who was awarded the honors could not take advantage of them that year, so there was no representative, or a substitute was provided. Now the scholarships will be awarded to the persons who really want them in order to continue their studies in an institution of higher learning. No one will have greatness thrust upon him. Furthermore, one of the greatest advantages of this system is the fine opportunity it offers to Guilford Alumni, who can have the chance to obtain the scholarship after they have achieved success in some profession.

We feel that we are speaking for the student body of Guilford in saying that we heartily approve these steps, for we believe they are founded on a more democratic basis, which will make the outcome happier for everybody for it is just one more step in making educational advantages equal for everybody. It is better to have people who are physically and mentally fit than those who have destroyed their physical fitness in gaining knowledge, for, with due apology to the gospels, one might say, "what doth it profit one if he gain all knowledge, and lose his own health."

NEW CONSTITUTION FOR THE GUILFORDIAN

ing and to act as treasurer for the organization.

Sec. 5. It shall be the duty of the assistant business manager to aid the business manager in such duties as may be assigned him.

Sec. 6. It shall be the duty of the circulation manager to solicit and collect for subscriptions and to take charge of the distribution of the paper. He shall turn over all funds to the treasurer as received and shall make disbursements only with the approval of the treasurer.

Sec. 7. It shall be the duty of the student reporters to report regularly such assignments as may be given them by the managing editor, to assist the circulation manager in distributing the paper, and to constitute an electoral body to represent the four literary societies in the election of such officers as are chosen from the society membership at large.

Sec. 8. It shall be the duty of the alumni reporter to report regularly all alumni news.

Art. VI. Sec. 1. Only members of the four literary societies shall be eligible for student officers in this organization.

Sec. 2. a. The Student editors and the business staff shall be elected by the electoral body of reporters, from the membership at large of the four societies. They shall be chosen on the basis of ability.

b. The student editors shall be elected at a regular meeting of the electoral body on the third Wednesday in December, taking office at the opening of the second semester.

c. The business staff, faculty advisors and alumni reporter shall be elected at a regular meeting of the electoral body on the first Wednesday in May, to take office at the opening of the following fall semester.

d. At such meeting the editorial and business staff shall be present and exert the right of discussion, although casting no vote.

Sec. 3. Three student reporters shall be elected by popular vote from each society in January, to take office at the opening of the second semester. Candidates for this position shall be nominated by committees from each society. Only such candidates shall be nominated, as shall have been approved by the English department as eligible for such positions. After the year 1922 eligibility shall be judged on the basis of competitive work covering at least three weeks of definite assignments made by the managing editor.

Art. VII. In case of any financial deficit at the close of a school year, the four literary societies agree to make up this deficit, sharing equally in the responsibility.

Art. VIII. Sec. 1. This constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of members present at a regular meeting of each literary society.

Sec. 2. All proposed business must be read at a regular meeting of each society at least one week prior to being voted upon and published upon two public bulletin boards.

TEA FOR FEDERATION OF CLUBS WELL ATTENDED

In spite of a rainy day the tea given for the Federation of Women's Clubs by the women of the faculty and Guilford College community on Wednesday, May 3, from five to six-thirty, was well attended. The guests, delegates to the convention being held in Greensboro and their Greensboro hostesses, numbered about 300. The tea was held in the reading room of the college library since the parlors in Founders' Hall are in process of redecoration.

Mrs. Raymond Binford and Mrs. J. F. Davis received the guests at the door. Miss Bessie V. Noles and Miss Aline Polk poured tea while the refreshments were served by the girls of the junior and senior classes.

Unfortunately the rainy weather and the late hour made it impossible for the guests to see much of the campus or any of the things of particular interest about the college.

ALUMNI NEWS

Miss Mary E. M. White, '14, who has been studying at the Haverford Graduate school this year, will teach in Friend's Select School in Philadelphia next year.

Mr. Henry Doak '08, has recently been made associate professor of English at the university of North Dakota.

Guilfordians will all be glad to learn that Mr. Walter Mendenhall, '95, has completely recovered his sight after undergoing a very serious operation at John Hopkins.

Mr. Joseph D. White, '19, who received his Master's degree from Haverford in 1920 and has been an instructor in chemistry at Harvard during the past year, will become head of the Chemistry department at Guilford next year replacing Prof. George Palmer who expects to resume his study for the doctorate at Johns Hopkins next year.

Mr. Curtis Newlin of the present senior class has been awarded a scholarship in the Haverford graduate school for the coming year. Mr. Newlin is one of the most prominent seniors having been very active in student activities during his college career.

The fourth granddaughter of Guilford, Miss Edna Raiford, daughter of Mrs. Sue Farlow Raiford, receive her degree this spring. The other granddaughters are, Alma Chilton, Gertrude Crowls, deceased, and Clara Farlow. As yet Guilford has no grandsons.

We regret to learn that Mr. Rufus King, father of Edward, Emma and Annabel King, all graduates of Guilford, is quite feeble and totally blind.

Miss Bessie Guthrie, '16, who is now teaching in the Jamestown high school, will be a graduate student at Haverford next year.

Mrs. Gilbert Pearson, formerly Miss Elsie Weatherly, is visiting in Greensboro.

E. J. Coltrane, '07, superintendent of schools at Roanoke Rapids, attended the alumni banquet at the Jamestown high school, Saturday evening, May 6, and delivered the chief address of the evening.

—All previous production records of the Ford Motor Co. of Detroit will be smashed during the month of May with a 120,000 car schedule, the office of Edsell Ford, president, announced. Employment of 5,000 to 10,000 more men is planned. This schedule means a new car will be made every 6½ seconds.
