

THE GUILFORDIAN

VOL. IX.

GUILFORD COLLEGE, N. C., OCTOBER 25, 1922.

No. 5.

Guilford Wins Costly Victory From Catawba

Three Men Injured, Weakens Outlook for Wake Forest Game

In a football game featured by numerous fumbles and penalties, Guilford College won over Catawba College on Welch Field in High Point, Saturday, October 21, by a score of 13 to 0.

This was the third game of the season and the second victory for the Quakers. During the first quarter, Catawba put up a strong fight, and this, coupled with penalties, kept the ball in Guilford's territory most of the time.

Catawba was once within ten yards of the goal but could not put the ball over. In the last three quarters Guilford's superiority asserted itself. Catawba resorted to the defensive play throughout, punting consistently.

In the latter part of the second quarter, Coach Doak's boys seemed to find themselves and started an advance that netted them a touchdown. A pass and two long runs put the ball within striking distance of the goal. Just here the driving power of Captain McBane enabled him to carry the ball over for the first score. The try for point was unsuccessful.

The second touchdown and last score came in the fourth quarter. Sensational runs by Taylor and Frazier advanced the ball for this touchdown, Frazier carrying it across the goal line. A pass caught by Thomas counted for the additional point.

The game as a whole was somewhat erratic and with this many penalties suffered by Guilford, helped to keep the score down. The victory was extremely costly, for three of Guilford's men received injuries that put them out of the game. Captain McBane with an injured arch will be out of the game for some time. Knight and Thomas were also taken out on account of injuries. This is most unfortunate in view of the game with Wake Forest here the 27.

Captain McBane, Frazier and Warrick deserve special mention for the part they played in winning the

(Continued on page 4)

TRINITY TENNIS MEN TO MEET GUILFORD

Through a misunderstanding between Lenoir and Trinity, the latter has had to postpone here western tennis trip for one week. This necessitates the scheduling of the Trinity-Guilford match for Thursday, Oct. 26.

Although preparations had been made to receive Trinity last Friday, yet this unexpected postponement did not hamper the home team in any way as they needed a few days in which to settle the tournament which started Monday, Oct. 16.

So far in the tournament Merriman has easily disposed of the men with whom he has been matched. Joyce has eliminated several promising new men and stands ready to battle Merriman for a place in the finals. The Harris-Shore match has proved a deadlock, each man drawing a set to his credit when the third set was called, on account of darkness, with a score of six all. Winn who is scheduled to meet the winner of the Harris-Shore contest, has a strong barrier between him and the finals.

Although the team is not definitely formed, yet this much is sure, that the four men who will face a Greensboro team on Tuesday, Elon on Wednesday, and Trinity on Thursday, will be selected from the following six men; Merriman, Joyce, Harris, Shore, Reynolds and Winn.

Guilfordian Will Send Delegate To Raleigh

At a recent meeting of the Guilfordian board, it was decided that the publication should send a delegate to the next semiannual convention of the State Inter-Collegiate Press Association, which is to be held at Meredith College, Oct. 26-28.

STUDENTS TAKE ANNUAL HIKE TO BATTLEGROUND

Come Home By Longer Route

Saturday afternoon the student body made its annual trip to the Battleground, the main features of which were the long hike and a weiner roast.

After an early dinner, students and teachers gathered in front of Founders' Hall, from which point the procession started off in twos and threes. Soon, some of those who had never tried hiking for a "G," began to lag behind and were picked up by the wagon. It was a great relief when the Battleground was finally sighted, and the party stopped under the big oaks by the side of the road.

But the new students could not long be content with such inactivity and were soon scattered in all directions, from the store to the farthest corner of the park, investigating the inscriptions on the monuments, and pursuing the gentle art of kodaking. Soon a group had discovered a canoe which they immediately put into use by going boat riding on the lake.

At 4 o'clock a campfire was made. Boys with pocketknives were dispatched to the woods for weiner sticks for themselves and companions. The "hot dogs" soon began to sizzle over the coals, and the aroma of coffee brought the stragglers in for refreshment.

At last when the sun was getting low the hikers took the trail for home by the longer route. About 6:30 they began to straggle in, very foot-sore and weary, but not too tired to enjoy the good supper awaiting them.

LYCEUM COURSE TO ADD THE DEVEREUX PLAYERS

The Devereux Players, who will stage "Romeo and Juliet," by William Shakespeare and "Arms and the Man," by Bernard Shaw, in Memorial Hall, Guilford College, November 1, have been added to the regular college Lyceum course.

The Shakesperian play will be given in the afternoon. Mr. Devereux will play the ardent lover to Miss Zanita Graf's Juliet, and there is no doubt but that the old hall will be treated to a most satisfying balcony scene. Mr. Devereux is supported by a company of fourteen.

On the evening of November 1 at 8:30, "Arms and the Man," by Bernard Shaw will be presented. "Arms and the Man" is a satirical comedy, relating the experiences of a Servian refugee soldier in the home of a rich Bulgarian enemy. Mr. Shaw's abilities as a humorist are brought into full play and by the end of the play he has made the audience laugh so heartily that it forgets every once in a while that he is making fun of a few modern conventionalities.

Those not possessing Lyceum tickets will be charged $1 for one performance or $1.50 for the two entertainments.

The college students, having already purchased their Lyceum ticket at registration, will be charged only 50 cents extra for the two perform-

(Continued on page 4)

Trustees Hold Annual Meeting at the College

Advisory Board, Alumni and Faculty Represented in Joint Conference

J. Elwood Cox, David White, Henry A. White, Dudley D. Carroll, D. Ralph Parker, Jeremiah S. Cox, Will Blair and Paul Lindley were the members of the trustees present at the second annual joint meeting of the trustees, the executive committee of the alumni, the advisory committee and the faculty, held at the college Wednesday, Oct. 18.

The meeting was opened at 10 o'clock by Dr. Hobbs in a period of devotion. The election of officers for the year followed, when J. Elwood Cox was reappointed chairman and David White, secretary.

The principal matter to claim the attention of the morning meeting was a report from the preliminary committee, appointed some time ago to prepare the way for an endowment campaign, to be undertaken this fall. Dudley D. Carroll and J. Elwood Cox gave a report of their recent trip to New York where they visited the General Education Board and the Carnegie Corporation to place before them the needs and conditions at Guilford.

J. Elwood Cox is planning a visit to the Hon. Elihu Root as soon as arrangements can be made in order that he may lay before him the claims of Guilford. Mr. Cox has letters of introduction that highly recommend not only the college but Mr. Cox himself. Mr. Root is an influential member of the Carnegie Corporation and a visit to him is made in an effort to turn every stone, that can be moved, to the advantage of Guilford.

Encouraging reports were made that indicate that several of the old friends of Guilford are still very much interested in the welfare of the college and are ready to be called on when the time comes.

As a result of the discussion of the morning the meeting was prepared to take action after lunch, and appointed a committee to prepare, organize and carry out a campaign for increased endowment, setting as a

(Continued on page 3)

Shores To Fill Gaps In Guilford Team

"Babe" Shore, Guilford's big tackle is now hitting the line regularly and preparing for the fight next Friday. Clyde Shore, last year's end man, is also in training. With these two valuable men back, Coach Doak expects to fill the vacancies caused by injuries in the Catawba game.

Saturday's victory proved a most expensive one for the Quaker team. With Knight and McBane out of the game for two weeks or more, and Thomas severely injured, Guilford bids fair to pay heavily in this week's game.

Librarian Reports Missing Book Lists

The librarian asks that the following books be returned to the library by the persons who have taken them out, without signing for them:

1. Main Street—Sinclair Lewis.
2. If Winter Comes—A. F. Hutchinson.
3. Textbook of Biology—Smallwood.
4. Little Women—L. M. Alcott.
5. Poets and Poetry of North Carolina—J. C. McNeill.
6. Songs, Merry and Sad—John Charles McNeill.

Freshman Class Meets

The freshmen held their first class meeting in Memorial Hall, Wednesday evening, Oct. 18, with 35 members of the 48 enrolled, present. The only item of business was the appointment of a nominating committee to bring a report before the next meeting. After this the meeting adjourned for a social hour.

Men Hold Song Service

A spirited song service was the order of the Y. M. C. A. meeting of October 19. H. L. Macon was the leader of the evening.

THREE FACTORS IN MODERN LIFE DENOUNCED IN CHAPEL

"Nationality, politics, and denominationalism are the three things above all others that have enslaved the minds of men," said Prof. Anscombe in a chapel talk Wednesday morning, October 18.

"Nationality or patriotism is twisted, warped and abused. Nationality is an accident. Our race, time and place of birth are beyond our choice," said Mr. Anscombe.

"A person's mind cannot be free, as long as it is hemmed in by nationality. Love of country does not mean hatred of neighboring countries, as the people of Europe seem to think." He cited the present situation in the Balkan states as an illustration of the wrong kind of national spirit, and said that there could be no lasting peace until the schools and colleges show that humanity is greater than nationality.

In regard to politics, he said a "person should keep his mind free and unprejudiced, that he should know for what the different parties stand, that a person's mind cannot be free when he does not know the policy of the other party. He stated that no party could succeed which depended upon sectionalism for its appeal.

He gave denominationalism as the third greatest barrier to freedom of the mind, differentiating between a Christianity, which binds people together and sectarianism, which drives them apart.

On Friday, Professor Davis read and commented on Luke 1: 1-4 and spoke at length on traditional interpretations of the Bible. He said that there could be no freedom of mind when one accepted the traditional interpretation of the Bible without finding out for himself whether this view of the Scriptures was the correct one.