

THE GUILFORDIAN

VOL. IX.

GUILFORD COLLEGE, N. C., NOVEMBER 15, 1922.

No. 8.

QUAKERS GO DOWN TO DEFEAT AT HANDS OF MAROON AND GOLD

Perry Outstanding Figure in Game; Purvis Star for Guilford

In the annual Armistice day football clash at Cone park between Elon College and Guilford College the Christians defeated the Quakers by a score of 20 to 6. Both teams put up a strong fight, and until the last quarter it looked like anybody's game, each team having scored one touchdown.

Neither team seriously threatened to score in the first quarter. Both lines held, forcing the two teams to resort to punting, and the play swayed back and forth in midfield, neither team approaching close to the goal line. Lassiters superiority in punting asserted itself, for Guilford gradually worked down the field until the ball was punted out of bounds. The quarter ended with Elon in possession of the ball in her territory.

Aided by two costly fumbles by Johnson, Elon put over her first touchdown early in the second quarter. After Perry had kicked the ball to Guilford's fifteen yard line, Johnson carried it for a good gain, but lost the ball on Guilford's twenty-five yard line. Guilford's line put up a stubborn resistance and forced Perry to punt. The ball was out of bounds and went to Guilford on

(Continued on page 4)

Old Girls Defeat New Girls in Last Game of Baseball Season

The final game of baseball was played between the old and new girls, Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 8, on the Hobbs athletic field. The hard fight which was put up on both sides reflects the good work that has been going on back of New Garden. Although the new girls did good work, they were not able to meet their more experienced opponents with equal strength in battle. They were overpowered with a score of 13 to 2.

Among the old girls who showed skill, Sarah Hodges probably made the best record, having made three runs—the highest number made by any individual. One of these was a home run and the other a second base hit. Marion Ward almost equaled Hodges in skill, making two runs, one of which was a third base hit. Ione Lowe deserves much credit also. In addition to the two runs which she made, she alone made four "put outs," two of which were flies caught in immediate succession.

The two runs of the new girls were made by Pauline Curtis and Lalah Cox. Rosa Elliott deserves mention for having fanned a member of the old girls' team.

The line-up:

Old Girls—B. Zachary, p; S. Hodges, 1b; I. Lowe, 2b; I. White, 3b; R. Hodges, ls; V. Farlow, rs; M. McBane, lf; E. Macon, rf; A. Johnson, cf; M. Ward, c.

New Girls—P. Curtis, p; K. Cooper, 1b; L. Moore, 2b; G. Moore, 3b; R. Elliott, ls; G. Highfill, rs; I. Mixon, lf; E. Spencer, rf; E. Brookshire, cf; L. Cox, c.

STUDENT FRIENDSHIP ORGANIZATION TELLS OF SITUATION AMONG RUSSIAN STUDENTS

Stirring Appeal Made for Suffering Students

Appeal is renewed in colleges all round the world this year for aid to 30,000 suffering European students through the Student Friendship Fund.

Famine conditions in Russia, and the terrible emergency in Smyrna and the Near East, make it urgent that student response exceed the 1921 gift of a half a million dollars to students in twelve European countries. This gift came from students from forty-nine lands, through the Fund. The American agencies sharing in the Fund and the Young Men's Christian Association and the Young Women's Christian Association in colleges. Gifts made this month will be sent direct to the areas of need through the Fund headquarters in Geneva, Switzerland.

At typical case of student relief has been found in the following story of Sonia, a Russian student, told by a relief worker.

"This is to introduce Sonia Kapralova, the student I have spoken to you about." So read the card.

"I glanced at once at Sonia's feet because it was all a matter of shoe but the two hunks of leather, cozy with mud, were so unattractive that I looked away very quickly to her shy little face. A pretty college girl, large portfolio under her arm, rather young to be attending the Russian Pedagogical Institute. Pink checked and healthy, I thought her capable of walking two miles to school, but not on a couple of sponges.

A great doubt came over me when I fitted the mental image of the foot inside those sponges into the mental image of the pair of shoes we had been saving for Sonia Kapralova. What twist in the process of evolution has made the American girls' foot long and narrow and the Russian's short and broad. This physical fact which heredity or environment or the shoemaker ought to explain, becomes most inconvenient when one has a good looking, almost new pair of narrow shoes to donate to a pair of poorly-shod broad feet.

"Titiana was getting the shoes from the shelf and Sonia was dissociating one foot from a wet piece of leather. Moist semi-circles had crept up her brown stocking from the sole. The joy in her face at the sight of the neat, almost-new shoes was embarrassing, so much that I hastened to say, 'I am afraid they are not going to fit.' It was too true. Sonia tugged and shoved and grew much pinker, but the uncompromising American shoe refused to give in. Finally she sat down breathless and murmured something about wet stockings, but Titiana and I both warned her that she should not spoil her feet with narrow shoes. Great was the disappointment among us.

"Then I thought of a room full of clothing newly arrived to be distributed among the neediest men students. We must get these poor feet covered, and a pair of men's shoes would be better than none. The three of us trailed through many pas-

(Continued on page 4)

STUDENT Y. M. C. A.'S OF STATE ORGANIZE COUNCIL; MEET AT GREENSBORO

Leaders Urge Colleges to Push Student Friendship Fund

Representatives of the college Y. M. C. A.'s of the State met at Greensboro, Tuesday, Nov. 7, and organized a North Carolina State Student Field Council, the purpose of which is to further organize and promote the work of the Association throughout the State.

The first session, which met at ten o'clock, was devoted to the organization of the council and the framing of the constitution and by-laws. The officers for the coming year are: W. S. Morris (N. C. State), president; A. F. Raiford (Carolina), vice-president, and J. D. Sheppard (Mount Pleasant), secretary. The executive committee consists of the above officers; Dr. C. C. Taylor from State, and Dr. A. L. Currie from Davidson.

The afternoon session consisted of a round-table discussion of the strong and weak points of the various college Associations, after which D. M. Ritchie, from N. C. State spoke on the conditions and problems facing the students of central and southwestern Europe as a result of the war. Mr. Ritchie, who spent last summer in the stricken area, emphasized strongly the extreme needs of the students for financial aid and closed by suggesting that a campaign for the Student Friendship Fund be begun at each college in the State.

Each of the meetings were full of interest and indicated that the Field Council would receive strong support. Hershall L. Macon and Marvin Shore were the representatives from Guilford College.

Professor L. B. Hurley, N. C. C. W., Talks Before Faculty Literary Society

Leonard B. Hurley, of the English department of N. C. C. W., spoke to the faculty literary society at its first regular meeting of the year on Tuesday evening. His subject was "The American Locality and the American Short Story."

The year's program of work, centering about the short story, was presented at this meeting. The officers of the organization, recently elected, are: Miss Katherine Smith, president; J. D. White, vice-president; Mrs. Robert Dann, secretary. The executive committee is: Mrs. Raymond Binford, chairman; Miss Katherine Smith, Miss Hedwig Hoffmann, Robert Dann and J. D. White.

THE DRAMATIC COUNCIL

presents

JEAN WEBSTER'S

"DADDY LONG-LEGS"

MEMORIAL HALL

Saturday, Nov. 25th; 8 p. m.

Admission: 50c, 75c, and $1.

Under the Auspices of the Y. W. C. A.

MARIE DE KYZER WINS SECOND TRIUMPH IN COLLEGE ESTIMATION

Artist in Splendid Voice; Gives Many Encores

Whether Marie de Kyzer won her audience with her beautiful voice or by her pleasing personality is a question of small moment. The fact is, the audience that filled Memorial Hall on the night of November 11 was so enthusiastic in its praise and commendation that it was necessary for Mme. de Kyzer to add numerous encores in order to satisfy the applauding Guilfordians.

Gifted with a voice of beautiful and velvety quality which in its upper range takes on a power and brilliance that is seldom found combined, Mme. de Kyzer sang songs of many nations and moods (but it was in the group of songs in English that she was at her best. The song "Tally-Ho" so captured the fancy of the audience that she had to repeat it. Her rendition of Romskv-Korsakoff's "Song of India" also excited the audience to enthusiastic applause.

The following is a program of the songs rendered and to this must be added as encores, "April Fool," "A Memory," "On Wings of Song," and "Spring has Come."

1. "Deh piu me non vo sondate," Bononcini; "Coro, Caro el mio bambino," Guaraiari; "O mio Babbino Caro," from "Gianni Schicchi," Puccini.

2. "Charity," Hageman; "Pirate Dreams," Hueter; "Tally-Ho," Leoni.

3. Aria "Pleurez, pleurez mes yeux, from "Le Cid," Massenet.

4. "Zeugnugung," Strauss; "Nur wer die Sehnsucht kennt," Tschai-kowsky; "Der Neugirige," Schubert; "Wie Melodien," Brahms; "Die Mainacht," Brahms.

5. "Romance," Debussy; "Chanson Indoue," Rimsky-Korsakoff; "Si j'étais Jardinier des cieux," Chaminade.

6. "Don't come in sir, please." (words from the Chinese) Cyril Scott; "A widow bird sate mourning," Lidgley; "Sacred Fire," Alexander Russell.

Guilford College is fortunate in having so distinguished an artist to visit her. The successes of Mme. de Kyzer have been many and large during her short career as a concert singer. She has appeared as soloist with the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra. The Handel and Hayden Club of Boston and she appeared in joint recitals with many of the leading artists of the day, among them Galluceri, Morgan Kingston and Arthur Middleton, all of the Metropolitan Opera company.

Former Guilfordian Dies at Her Home Near Greensboro

Mrs. Elma Hodgkin, who was a student at Guilford when it was New Garden Boarding School, died at her home south of Greensboro, Saturday Nov. 11. Mrs. Hodgkin was a member of Center Friends' Meeting and had for many years been a faithful worker in the Friends' Church. She was the aunt of two of our present students, Ruth and John Reynolds.

Benbow Merriman spent Sunday at his home at Oak Ridge.

ORIGINAL SKETCH OF NEGRO LIFE FEATURE OF PHIL-CLAY PROGRAM

Local Characters Figure in Clever Piece of Kitchen Comedy

The members of the Henry Clay literary society were the guests of the Philomathean society at its regular biennial reception Friday evening, November 10, in Memorial Hall.

The feature of the program was a sketch of negro life in the South at the present time. As indicated by the favors in the form of colonial iron posts, the setting for the first number, "Culinary Capers," was Founders' kitchen. The action concerned preparations for supper which begin at two in the afternoon and last until five-thirty, and was supplemented by "Uncle Mun's" jig, and music by the aspiring soloist "Ma'y Jane."

The cast included:

Laura, Bertha Zachary; Lizzie, Elizabeth Brooks; David, Janie Mae Butler; Mrs. Burgess, Sallie Wilkins; Pickaninnies, Gladys Futrell, Maude Simpson, Tiny Raiford.

Uncle Mun, Lalah Cox; College girls, Ruth Ragsdale, Lloyd Merriman; Miss Benbow, Edith Macon; Ma'y Jane, Marie Beaman.

The players interpreted their parts exceptionally well, and their conversations in the southern darkey dialect were strikingly realistic.

The second number of the program was a group of negro spirituals by the quartet, Hope Motley, Vera Farlow, Annamae Fowler and Dora Moore. This number pleased the audience very much.

In behalf of the society, Helen Robertson, the president, welcomed the guests. The Clays who responded were: Ralph Farlow, Spot Taylor, William Blair, Edward Holder and James Barbee.

After the program the meeting adjourned to Founders' Hall for a social hour. Here "Darkey's Temptation," "Forbidden Fruit," "Hoe Cake" and "Pickaninnies Choice" became chicken salad, pickles, saltine wafers and Saratoga chips. "Mammy's Delight" proved to be lemon pie with whipped cream. "Coon's Stimulator" was coffee and mints.

The guests, in addition to members of the Henry Clay literary society were: Misses Louise Osborne, Sallie Benbow, Bessie V. Noles, Beatrice Byrd, Mrs. Burgess, Mme. and Mlle. Hoffmann; J. D. White, R. L. Newlin and H. N. Baker.

Basketball Season Opens for Girls

The basketball season for the girls began last Thursday. Quite a number of girls came out for the first practice. Each of the four classes has a team while the freshmen have enough to make three teams.

Practice days are Tuesdays and Thursdays, and it is expected that the new outdoor court will be in use by next week.

The new girl-old girl game will take place just before the Christmas holidays.

George Zachary visited his sister Bertha the past week-end.