EDITORIAL COMMENT

Merry Christmas!

To whom it may concern, greetings!

The Guilfordian wishes each of its readers a merry Christmas and a very prosperous New Year.

We hope that our students will take it upon themselves to dismiss from their minds the grind through which they have recently been passing and take up that frame of mind which is conclusive to a real rest.

Fellow students, let us not forget the fact that we are representing more than ourselves, that we are representing Guilford and her ideals. Let us so act that our friends, seeing our good works, may glorify our college, Guilford.

The Banquet

Three years ago the student body, for the first time, enjoyed the hospitality of the faculty at a faculty-student banquet.

The speeches were centered around the endowment campaign which was being launched at that time.

A remarkable spirit of support was aroused in the student body, out of which came pledges for over $4000.

Last Saturday was the fourth time our student body has had this opportunity of discussing problems and conditions with the faculty, and the enthusiasm continues to increase.

To say that the banquet on the 16th was a success, is much too little. Miss Noles arranged a splendid menu. The dining hall was very attractively decorated under the direction of Mr. Pancoast.

Miss Polk was instrumental in arranging the program. This part of the occasion was excellent. The applause ran highest during the president's speech when we were told that the approaching endowment campaign was assured of success by the promise of large donations. Come on Guilfordians, let's go!

MRS. BLAIR IS HOSTESS TO BREAKFAST PARTY

Mrs. W. C. Blair, of Guilford College, gave a most charming breakfast party to Misses Lloyd Merriman, Hope Motley and Mary Henley, Saturday, Dec. 16, at 8:30 o'clock. The young ladies, after college diets, ate heartily of fried chicken, and hot pancakes.

DR. PERISHO SPEAKS

TWICE AT WINSTON

Dr. E. C. Perisho will leave early Sunday morning for Winston-Salem, where he will spend two days. During his stay there he will deliver several lectures in the interest of Guilford College. The two most important talks will be his addresses to the Friends Meeting, Sunday morning, and to the Winston-Salem high school Monday morning.

While in Winston-Salem, Dr. Perisho will see a number of Guilford graduates in reference to their being present at the Alumni meeting, which will take place at Guilford, during the Christmas holidays. He will also remind them of the important part they will play in the success of the Guilford College banquet for Forsythe county students, which will take place early in January.

TRAINING OF MIND, SOUL, AND BODY, TOPIC FOR Y. M. C. A. MEETING

Development of the mind, soul, and body was discussed by Clyde Shore at Y. M. C. A. last Thursday evening. He said we develop the intellect by the unhindered use of our mental powers in all the fields of knowledge.

The speaker said that for the best results, we must join religion and education. The church is the originator of schools, colleges, and universities. Great men carry religion and education together.

Dr. Perisho, who spoke next, quoted from Rev. Timothy Stone of Chicago, "You cannot get along very far in life unless your heart is right."

CLARA COBLE WINS PRIZE IN ART EXHIBIT

An informal tea was served by Mrs. Francis C. Anscombe on Friday afternoon, December 15, from 4:00 to 5:30 o'clock in honor of her art pupils.

Mrs. Anscombe had placed on exhibition the pictures painted by her pupils during this term. Mne. Hoffman, Mrs. Dann, Miss Robinson, Prof. James Westley White were judges for selecting the best pictures. They decided upon a picture painted by Miss Clara Coble, who received a set of brushes as a prize.

Mrs. Anscombe treated her guests with excellent raisin sandwiches, tea, cocoanut wafers and caramel candy.

DEPARTMENT NOTES

Alumni Association Meets

A meeting of the Alumni Association is called in Greensboro, Friday, December 29, to consider the question of the endowment campaign for the college.

College Receives Contributions

The college has recently received $1,000 from the estate of Addison Hodgin, a former trustee. This sum is to be added to the endowment fund. It has also received $2,500 from the estate of Dr. Dicia Baker, to be added to the endowment fund for New Garden Hall.

Biology Laboratory Has New Table

A new table for the bacteriological laboratory is being planned for the second semester. There are about 15 prospective students for this course.

Class Visits Furniture Exposition

The class in house decoration went to High Point last Wednesday to visit the Southern Exposition Furniture building. Mr. Ralph Parker conducted the party, pointing out the furniture of the various periods. He gave a talk on different kinds of furniture woods, their production and finishing.

Christmas Projects

All the classes in cooking are having their regular annual lessons in making Christmas candies. Cookery I is making the simple candies, fudge, etc., while the more advanced classes experiment with the fancier kinds, using fondant as a basis.

"DO IT FOR GUILFORD"

teast by formally presenting to the college an electric gong syetism as a gift from the present senior class.

Dr. Binford closed the banquet by an address on "business Growth and the Balance Sheet." "Are we growing?" he asked.

As an answer he showed the remarkable growth of Guilford as a college during the past few years. The faculty which as he put it, has become worth $36,000 is outstanding because of the fact that its average teaching experience is over thirteen years. Guilford this year has enrolled more students in its college department than in all its history.

"But above all," Dr. Binford continued, "the student body this year is the finest in ideals and character ever in attendance at Guilford. Students leaving Guilford College," he added, "are leaving with great ideals and visions and this brings pleasure to me, for institutions may crumble, but if the work is done well they have not failed."

During the courses musical numbers were rendered by Miss Beatrice Byrd, the glee club and the college orchestra.

"Split Guilford for the faculty, everybody!"

FACULTY FACTS

And the half year closes with Joe White answering the call of the wild. It's back to Philly, then perhaps it's a stag hunt in the Maine Woods.

Pancoast is out for smaller game. It's been the feathered birds of ested him the most in the last the Greensboro show that has interfew days.

Baker is defending himself against the Home Economics seniors, who are trying the "back" out of Bacteriology.
