

THE GUILFORDIAN

VOL. IX.

GUILFORD COLLEGE, N. C., MAY 22, 1923

No. 29.

ENDOWMENT CAMPAIGN IS BEING LAUNCHED IN EASTERN PART OF STATE.

Guilford Clubs Hold Meetings in Raleigh, Goldsboro and Rock Ridge

DR. PERISHO IS ORGANIZER

The endowment campaign is progressing steadily throughout the state, owing to the efforts of Dr. Elwood C. Perisho and other leaders of the various communities. Meetings in behalf of Guilford have been recently held in Wake, Wayne, Wilson and Sampson counties.

The Guilford college club of Raleigh had its annual get-together dinner at Edenton street church, Wednesday evening, April 25. Chas. G. Doak, president of the club, presided. The

(Continued on page 3)

TENNIS TEAM LOSES TO TRINITY AND ELON

Guilford's tennis team lost both matches to Trinity and Elon. On Friday, May 11, Guilford encountered the strong Trinity Four who have made quite a record in the state. Score being as follows: doubles, Merrimon and Joyce won from Turrentine and Brooks, 3-6, 6-0, 6-3. Harris and Reynolds lost to Johnson and Whistnet, 6-3, 6-3. The doubles honors being divided. In singles, Harris won from Johnson, 10-8, 8-6. All other singles lost by Merrimon, Joyce, and Reynolds thereby losing the match by a small margin.

At Elon.

Guilford lost to Elon on the following day by few points. Only three men contesting, Harris being only man who defeated his opponent. Merrimon and Reynolds losing doubles, and Reynolds losing singles.

At Guilford.

Guilford split honors with Elon, Tuesday, May 15. Each team won one double and two singles. This ending Guilford's Tennis season which on a whole has been very good.

CAMPUS CALENDAR

- May 24, 8:00 p. m.
Debate
Freshman-Sophomore
- May 26, 6:00 p. m.
Supper on Campus
Stunt Social
- May 28, 9:00 a. m.
to June 1
Examinations
- June 1, 7:30 p. m.
Formal Opening
Greensboro-Guilford
Highway
- June 2, 8:00 p. m.
to June 5
Commencement

MISS FARLOWE GIVES SENIOR SONG RECITAL

Sings With Ease and Rare Clarity of Diction

Miss Vera Farlowe who appeared in her graduating recital in voice last Saturday evening sang an unusually well chosen group of songs and pleased her audience by her excellent interpretation of them. Miss Farlowe, the only pupil of Mr. James Westley White, teacher of voice, to give a senior recital this year, possesses a clear soprano voice of ample range and great carrying power. She sings with ease and finish and possesses a rare gift of clear diction.

The program began with a classic number from Hyden, "My Mother Bids Me Bind My Hair." Of a group of charming French songs the "Berceuse" from Gounod was the outstanding number. "In the time of Roses" by Reichardt was a lyric from the German which contrasted decidedly Brahms' "The Sand Man" and Schubert's "Whither."

Miss Farlowe sang the aria, "Ana voca poco fa" from Rossini's opera, "Barbiere de Seviglea" in a masterly fashion and in her interpretation succeeded in giving its true spirit of lightness.

In the last group of English and American songs the most pleasing was an Indian idyl, "Niawasa." "When Love Comes Clambering in" by Slater, and "The Rosy Morn" touched a cheerful note and formed a fitting conclusion to the program.

Miss Gracette Frazier added much to Miss Farlowe's program by her skillful execution and delicate touch as accompanist.

BASEBALL SEASON CLOSES WITH DAVIDSON GAME.

Hayworth, English, Winn and Shore Show Excellent Season Averages

The game between Davidson and Guilford colleges on May 17 closed the 1923 baseball season of the Crimson and Gray team. The team won six games, tied one, and lost twelve, making a total of games played nineteen. Orvie Hayworth, led the highest batting average with English, and Winn following second and third. Orvie Hayworth, catcher, claimed first mention individually for his season playing. He leads in hitting, stolen bases, runs, and around this man, Coach Doak has built his baseball team. Guilford has been fortunate in having him as a catcher for three years and it is to be regretted that it is his last year, as he has signed a contract with the Greensboro League.

Roy Burge, pitcher and Nereus English, short stop, both played college ball for the first time, this season. English finished second in the batting line up, while Burge hit so well it was necessary to play him in the outfield when he was not pitching.

Earl Cummings, J. W. Frazier, and Fred Winn, infielder, played better ball this year than either

(Continued on page 4)

Elma Ruth Reynolds, '23

Miss Ruth Reynolds of Randleman, N. C., who has been awarded the Bryn Mawr scholarship, for 1923-24, receives this distinction as a culmination to a splendid scholastic record maintained throughout her four years of college work. She was a winner of "honors" in her freshman year; was awarded the Marvin Hardin scholarship as a sophomore and has a general average of 93% for her entire college course. The following is a resume of her college activities: Philomathean society, (1) (2) (3) (4); freshman honors (1); Philomathean oratorical medal (2); Y. W. C. A. cabinet (3); president junior class, president Philomathean society (4); president Women's Student Government Association (4).

Miss Reynolds is a major in mathematics and is presenting for graduation 149 credit hours against a required 126 hours for the B. S. degree.

GUILFORD HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES STRONG CLASS

First Class to Finish Four Year Course; All Will Enter College

DR. RONDTHALER MAKES ADDRESS

Ten graduates, the first class to finish a four-year high school course at Guilford high school, all of whom are planning to enter college next fall, took part in the final commencement exercises of Guilford College high school, held in Memorial hall, Thursday, May 10.

Dr. Howard E. Rondthaler, president of Salem College, and speaker of the day, was introduced by Dr. Raymond Binford, who paid a fine tribute to Bishop Rondthaler, the speaker's father.

"The great tie between Guilford and Salem lies in the fact that their ideals are identical," began Dr. Rondthaler. "They have taken pride in constant progress side by side.

"Our ability to use the things taught by books after we have left school is the test of learning," the

(Continued on page 2)

CLAY ORATORICAL MEDAL WON BY JOHN REYNOLDS

"Our Commonwealth."

John O. Reynolds won in the thirty-seventh annual Henry Clay Orator's contest Saturday evening, May 19, with the oration "Our Commonwealth."

Mr. Reynolds discussed the various resources, industries and commercial achievements of North Carolina. He reviewed the development of manufactures in our commonwealth and the part agriculture has played in the growth of the state. North Carolina is now embarked on an educational and good roads program that will mean much for her citizens, he claimed. "Her resources and scenery," he further added, "are the finest in the East, and draw thousands of tourists both in the summer and winter."

The oration "The World is Too Much with Us," given by Edward M. Holder, was a discussion of the materialistic tendencies of our present age.

William W. Blair spoke on the present state and international affairs and suggested a policy for the solution of problems in the future, entitling his oration "The Next Step."

"The Law and the Individual" by John Webb Cannon, dealt with the development of government and the sacredness of its relation to the individual.

The judges were Dr. L. L. Hobbs, A. I. Newlin, and Guy Phillips, who made the delivery speech.

Musical selections were furnished by Miss Louise Frazier and Benbow Merrimon.

PIANO STUDENTS GIVE FINAL RECITAL OF YEAR

Honors Go to Miss Jackson, Miss Hollowell and Miss Tuttle

Members of the junior and sophomore classes in piano appeared in a joint recital last Wednesday evening at Memorial Hall. This is the last piano students' recital of the year.

Honors for the evening's performance go to Misses Edith Hollowell, Artena Jackson, and Viola Tuttle, who gave their parts of the program exceptionally well. Rudolf Friml's garden suite was given a sympathetic interpretation by Miss Tuttle, who seemed to understand the various moods of the composer. The "Turkish March" from "Ruins of Athens," played by Miss Jackson and Miss Hollowell, was probably the best number of the whole program. This Beethoven number lends itself to a two piano arrangement admirably. Miss Jackson also played one number from Chopin with good technique and spirit, and Miss Hollowell displayed astounding velocity in the "Movement perpetual" from Weber's sonata in C.

Others who deserve honorable mention are Miss Mary Webb

(Continued on page 4)

DAVIDSONIAN SHUT-OUT ENDS LENGTHY SEASON FOR GUILFORD BASEBALL

Quakers Hand The Final Bout to Presbyterian Wildcats on Davidson Diamond

SHORE PITCHING FOR GUILFORD

Guilford fell before the Davidson nine in the final game of the season on Saturday, May 12, by an 8-0 score. The spirals of Shore, the Presbyterian tosser, was the problem that the Quakers were unable to solve. He allowed the Doak disciples but three hits, while "Babe" Shore let his opponents into the secret of his twirls for 11 bingles.

Davidson began the counting right on the start by a series of hits, scoring two in the first act. The wild cats kept up this offensive throughout the scrap, crossing the rubber from time to time. The swatting of the Presbyterian brethren was aided and abetted by four errors of the Quakers. Guilford never threatened to score until the ninth when Hayworth eased one against the fence that sent him on an excursion to the third sack. Burge sacrificed but Hayworth stumbled.

English who has been playing a consistent game of fielding du-

(Continued on page 3)

MARIE BEAMAN WINS TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP

The girls' final tennis tournament of the spring season of 1923 came to a close last week with Marie Beaman, '25, winning the championship over Lucille Moore, '26.

The following girls won out over all competitors of their respective classmates, in the preliminary tournament: Virginia Galloway, prep; Lucille Moore, '26; Lloyd Merriman, '25; Marie Beaman, '24; Clementine Raiford, '23.

The above mentioned girls then entered an inter-class tournament in which Moore and Beaman came out victorious. In the final game between these two girls, Beaman won the laurels by a score of 6-2, thereby, establishing herself as champion tennis player of the Y. W. A. A.

COMMENCEMENT PROGRAM

- June 2, 8:00 p. m.
"Martha", von Flotow
Choral Society
- June 3, 11:00 a. m.
Baccalaureate Sermon
Robert L. Simpkin
- June 3, 8:00 p. m.
Sermon before Christian
Associations
- 11:00 a. m. Meeting Letter Men
E. D. Broadhurst
- 10:30 a. m. Class Day Exercises
- Monday, June 4
2:30 p. m. Baseball Game
4:00 p. m. Class Play
6:00 p. m. Supper on Campus
7:30 p. m. Alumni Address
9:00 p. m. Alumni Business Meeting
- Tuesday, June 5, 10:30 a. m.
Commencement Address
J. Henry Scattergood