QUAKER BASEBALL TEAM FAILS TO BUNCH HITS AND LOSES FIVE GAMES

Lose to Carolina, Wake Forest, Duke and Lenoir

SMITHDEAL STARS

Quakers Unable to Over- come One Run Lead

By Nereus English

After making a good debut before the baseball fandom by winning over N. C. State and High Point college, the Quaker nine during the Easter holidays lost five consecutive games to U. of N. C., Wake Forest, Lenoir-Rhyne and Duke University. Three of these five games were lost by one run margins, and one game went ten innings. Coach Doak's men played well, but the team lacked the final punch that it takes to win ball games.

CAROLINA DEFEATS GUILFORD

It took ten innings of first class baseball for the university of N. C. to defeat Guilford on the Carolina diamond by the score of 5-4. The game was fast and exciting all the way.

Guilford scored in the first inning. Smithdeal got a clean hit, and was sacrificed to second, stole third and counted on a fly to centerfield. Gibson, the Tar Heel right-fielder tied the count with a homer to left field.

Guilford scored one run in the third and two more in the fourth, on hits by Frazier, C. Smith, Lindley and Smithdeal. In the fourth inning Carolina got next to Smith, Guilford pitcher, and tied the score at four all. From then it was nip and tuck until the Tar Heels pushed over the winning run in the tenth inning after two men were away. Both teams played in great

SECOND STRING MEN WIN OVER JAMESTOWN CLUB

The Quaker second nine played two games with the National Guards at Raeford during the Easter holidays. In the first game they lost by the score of 7-3, and in the second they held the soldier boys to a 6-4 score. Over half of the opposing team are ex-college varsity and professional players. Both teams played jam-up ball.

Brown and Sherrill were the battery for the first day, and Hodgins, Thomas and Sherrill held the guards in check in the second set-to. "Toad" Thomas was the feature fielder on the trip, making a number of nice catches. "Red" Hughes copped the batting honors in both games. He connected with the soldier twirler's offering for three triples and a single in one game and a triple and two singles in the other. His batting average for the two games was .625.

On High School Day the second string men took into camp the Jamestown club of the Guilford County league and entertained them, allowing them the light end of a 7-5 score. Every man who has worn a suit this year was given a chance. Every man, who trotted in, played good ball but the honors of the game went to "Block" Smith umpire. Half of the crowd went away without knowing that it wasn't Bill Klein calling the game.

Ferrell pitched a good game for the club and Shore did the receiving. Brown and F. Smith, battery for the locals made a winning combination.

Miss Elliott Called Home

Miss Alfreda Elliott, who during the present year has been assisting in the French department at the college, was recently called home on account of the serious illness of her father, whose home is in Nova Scotia. Prof. Milton C. Davis, Madame Hoffmann and Miss Elizabeth Parker will take care of Miss Elliott's work for the rest of this year.

"SMILIN' THROUGH" WILL BE BEST PLAY PRODUCED HERE

Promises to be Super-Production—Cast Ready

BEAUTIFUL STAGE SETTING

With final rehearsals scarcely a week off, the spring dramatic production is being rapidly put into shape for the final production of "Smilin' Through," for the benefit of the Men's Athletic Association, Saturday night, April 25, by the Dramatic Council, and, according to all reports, it is going to surpass any play given so far at the college, in its scenic and costuming effects; even that of the conservatory scene in "The Art of Being Bored," which enthusiastic alumni and upperclassmen proclaim the loveliest scene ever enacted on the college stage.

The present play has only one setting however.

Large crowds are expected, because of the great box office attraction this play has, and because it will follow the "Athletic Day" at the college. Clara Coble makes a lovely and charming Moonyeen Claire, the sweetheart of dashing young John Carteret, played by John Reynolds, in the romantic days of hoop skirts and crinolines, of beaux

PROF. HAWORTH TELLS OF EIGHT COLLEGE SPIRITS

Prof. D. R. Haworth, in his chapel address Friday morning, spoke on eight great spirits which pervade our college life. He used eight spirits which begin with the letters in the name Guilford.

The first spirit is "Go." This word is the life of an institution. The second spirit is "Unity." "The act of one of us is the act of all," said Prof. Haworth. As an example he cited to us our baseball games in which nine men act for all of us.

The third spirit is "Industry," which means work. The necessity of work is a blessing to mankind.

The fourth spirit is "Loyalty." "I sometimes think that loyalty is the biggest word in the English language," said Prof. Haworth.

The fifth spirit is "Fun." A laugh is the cheapest amusement that man enjoys.

The sixth spirit is "Orderliness." This applies to dress, campus, room, study, schedule and other like items of campus life.

The seventh spirit is "Right Living." This is undoubtedly the hardest thing to do. We admire a man who has the principles of right living and sticks to them.

The eighth and last spirit is "Determination." This is the spirit that takes us from the slump of failure to the pinnacle of success. Determination has given many a great man his place in life.

MAUDE SIMPSON ELECTED PRESIDENT OF Y. W. C. A.

Elma Jones to Serve as Secretary

The Y. W. C. A. met on Wednesday, April 8, and elected officers for the incoming administration.

Maude Simpson, of White Plains, N. C., was elected president. Elma Jones of Goldsboro was elected secretary, and Pansy Donnell of Climax, treasurer.

It was the unanimous vote of the members that Maude Hollady should continue to serve as under-graduate representative.

The new cabinet was appointed and the coming week is to be devoted to cabinet study, preparatory to taking the national examination, which is sent out annually to college associations.

DATE FOR LENOIR-RHYNE DEBATE IS CHANGED TO FRIDAY NIGHT, APRIL 24

The date for the Guilford-Lenoir-Rhyne debate which was to have taken place last Friday, April 17, has been changed to Friday, April 24. Corresponding secretary John Cude is finishing up all the minor details and agreements with the Lenoir-Rhyne representative. Lenoir-Rhyne was also arranging a date with Elon at the same time she was corresponding with Guilford, and it was due to a mix-up of the names of the two colleges that it was necessary to change the date with Guilford.

Secretary Cude reports only one other compromise. That was in regard to the time. Guilford asked that twenty minutes be allotted to each speaker with seven minutes of it to be used in rebuttal. Lenoir-Rhyne wanted the time limited to eighteen minutes with only

CALENDAR FOR COMING WEEKS A CROWDED ONE

Athletics, Dramatics, De- bates and Other Activi- ties to Claim Attention.

The calendar of events scheduled for the college within the next two or three weeks is a full one as well as an interesting one. Athletics, dramatics, debates, and music will vie with each other in sharing the spotlight and holding the attention of every one.

On Friday, the 24th, the inter-collegiate debate with Lenoir-Rhyne will take place. The query, Resolved, that Congress should be empowered through constitutional amendment to enact uniform marriage and divorce laws for the United States, will be upheld by Byron Haworth and Russell Branson, who will speak at home, and James Howell and Gilmer Sparger, who go to Lenoir-Rhyne and debate the negative side. A considerable amount of time has been spent on the debates by all the speakers and an evening of worthwhile entertainment is in store for all who attend.

On Saturday, the 25th, athletics will be in the spotlight in the afternoon and dramatics in the evening. Wake Forest and Guilford will clash again in the National game, and SMILIN' THROUGH will be presented by the Dramatic Council as the annual spring production. These two events need no further explanation.

Katie Lambeth will appear in her

DR. BINFORD DISCUSSES BUILDING OF STUDENT BODY

In continuing his series of chapel talks on "The Building of a College," Dr. Binford spoke on "The Building of the Student Body," Thursday morning.

It has been said by some men that the student body will take care of itself after the buildings are erected and a faculty provided. Dr. Binford explained such to be a doubtful way to build up a student body.

"As in business," said Dr. Binford, "we must advertise our achievements and our aims. We do in one way or another choose our student body."

First, we choose students by our curriculum.

Second, by the way we administer the work; by high standards of scholarship, morals and conduct.

Third, by the effect of the students who go out from this institution.

The last of these three is probably the most important of all. "You," said Dr. Binford, speaking to the whole student body, "are the choosers of our student body."

High School Day Contests Best Given Here in Recent Years

Miss Nina Crawford, of Albemarle High School and Harry Rabinowitz, of the Durham High School, were winners in the final recitation and declamation contests Saturday evening, in what was one of the best High School Day programs that has been given at Guilford College in the fifteen years that High School Day has been an annual event here.

The two winners were picked from the four best of the ones who had participated in the elimination contests earlier in the day. Eighteen boys and twenty-two girls were in the preliminaries. The following girls were successful in passing the elimination contest and spoke for the prize in the evening: Misses Katherine Boyles, of Winston-Salem; Genevieve Dalton of the I. O. O. F., of Goldsboro; Virginia McClamrock, of Greensboro, and Nina Crawford, of Albemarle. The four boys who spoke in the final contest were: Phillip Thomas, of Guilford; Walter Johnson, Jr., of Winston-Salem; Pearl Snider, of Pleasant Garden and Harry Rabinowitz, of Durham. The young lady winner received a beautiful set of books and the young man a gold medal, both prizes given by the Zetesian, Philomathean, Websterian and Henry Clay Literary societies.

The judges for the preliminaries were enthusiastic over the splendid showing that was made. Not a single recitation or declamation was given in the tryouts that could have been adjudged a poor one. It showed that careful prepara-

CATALOGUE NUMBER OF BULLETIN OFF PRESS

The new catalogues have come off the press and except for a slight lightness of paper resemble those issued annually for the past twenty or twenty-five years. It, of course, contains no announcements as to sudden changes, but only embodies the changes that have taken place during the present year. Within itself, the introduction of aeroplane view of the campus, marks the only decided change from the others. The picture takes in the whole campus, when the trees were in full leaf, and shows distinctly the placing of the buildings and the symmetry of the campus.

The Freshman course, instituted this year, marks the most important change in the courses offered. This course is proving very satisfactory and interesting. The description runs, "A course which undertakes to give general review of human knowledge with a view to the orientation of the Freshmen in their college and later studies. Is required of all Freshmen." The course is divided into two semesters' work. "The Conquest of Nature," and "The Conquest of Self."

A fourth year in voice is listed and carries the statement that "The fourth year is a further development of the vocal technique, tone color, dynamic appreciation, contrast, etc., with a study of operatic arias and oratorio numbers added."

An announcement of interest in the back of the new catalogue is to the ef-
