

READ BARBEE DISCUSSES HABITS AT Y MEETING

The Y. M. C. A. meeting for April was a most helpful and inspiring one.

James Reed Barbee was the leader for the evening. He delivered an interesting and forceful speech. His subject was "Problems on the Campus." He took up each problem in turn, dealing with it in detail, showing clearly the bad points and evil effects of each. Profane language was mentioned first. The speaker defined it as a useless, degrading habit, which is inexcusable under any circumstances.

Card playing was also given a smashing blow. "This practice may not be morally harmful to the player but it is liable to be. To say the least it is a temptation and a possible, if not probable stepping stone to gambling. Furthermore it is not to be tolerated on the campus because it is a harmful waste of time and it is necessary for all to employ time in a useful and beneficial manner," said the speaker.

The choosing of good companions was the last subject. "Companions are a necessary part of every man's life and it is his duty to pick the ones of the better class."

QUAKERS LOSE FIVE

early season form. "Shirt" Smith pitched a steady game for Guilford, while Smithdeal led the attack with two hits and two runs to his credit. Lindley made a beautiful running catch.

WAKE FOREST GAME

Guilford lost the second holiday game to Wake Forest 5 to 2. The game was fast and snappy throughout, but Coach Doak's men threw away many good chances to score by bone-headed base running and loose fielding. Guilford was the first to score, on singles by Smith, Lindley and English. However the lead was soon overcome by the Baptists. "Shirt" Smith weakened and three runs were pushed over the plate. Two more were added on a hit, walk, double steal and a single by Riley.

Guilford's last run came in the eighth inning on a home run by Smithdeal. "Shirt" Smith after these two bad innings tightened up and pitched a good game, striking out ten men.

LENOIR-RHYNE DEFEATS GUILFORD

Lenoir-Rhyme defeated Guilford in a wierd contest on Easter Monday by a score of 8 to 7. Guilford secured 15 safe bingles while the Lutherans only secured 5. At the last of the ninth inning the score stood 7 to 4 in favor of Guilford. But after one Lutheran had retired, two singles, an error, a triple and sacrifice gave the game to Lenoir-Rhyme.

Guilford hit consistently throughout the entire game. The Quakers were the first to score. Smithdeal tripled and came home on an infield out. The local centerfielder was the star of the game with three triples, a single and home run to his credit, getting five hits out of six times at bat. Three pitchers were used by Coach Doak, Grey starting the game and holding for six innings. Shore was rushed in and stayed until the last of the ninth inning when he was relieved by Smith.

SECOND CAROLINA GAME

Timely hitting, clever base running and the breaks of the game enabled Carolina to triumph over the Quaker nine at Cone Park last Tuesday for the second time of the year. The Quakers were held scoreless until the seventh and eighth stanzas, when they pushed over runs in each frame. In the seventh R. Smith drew a pass and pilfered second. Smithdeal advanced him to third on a single. Smith counted when Bonner, Carolina catcher, threw wild at second. At this point the breaks favored Carolina. Griffin hit sharply down the first base line and the two runners would have scored had not the ball collided with the bag. Guilford scored again in the eighth on a single, a walk and an error.

The Tar Heels made their tallies in the first, third and eighth innings. Only one run was hit in, that being in the first inning. Bonner stole home in the third, and they again counted in the eighth on an error.

The Quakers had men on bases in almost every inning, but they failed to come through with timely hits. Poyner and Rufus Smith worked well on the mound. Smith fanned eight Tar Heels and had four assists to his credit.

GUILFORD DUKE GAME

Guilford continued its losing streak when Duke University nine won by the count of 9-4. The Quakers got away to a good start in the first frame when Kendall scored on Ferrell's two-bagger over left field. But the Methodists tore loose in the second and scored seven runs before the side could be retired. This break apparently salted down the game for the Methodists.

Nothing of note happened during the next three frames as Smith was sending most of them back via the strike-out route.

The affair was not a good exhibition of baseball. Neither team was playing at its best. C. Smith and Ferrell led in the hitting for the locals.
