Miss Sarah Benbow, Matron of Guilford for Over Twenty Years, Passes Away on Tuesday After Long Life of Service to the College

Dies After Long Illness That Has Kept Her From Her Work During Past Year

WAS A MOTHER FOR SICK

No Weather Was Too Bad For Her To Go To Doctor Some Sick Boy

Miss Sarah E. Benbow, who has for the last 22 years been matron of Founders hall, at Guilford College, died in her room at Founders Monday afternoon, April 6. For nearly two weeks her condition had been considered critical and her death had been generally expected.

Miss Benbow, more generally known as "Miss Sallie" took the place of her sister, Mrs. Priscilla Benbow Hackney, as matron at Founders hall in 1904, and would have shortly completed her 22nd year of continuous work. Her sister Mrs. Hackney, had held the place through the preceding 18 years.

The funeral services were conducted at the New Garden Friends Church, Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The local pastor, Joseph Peele, assisted by Milo Hinkle, of Greensboro, and L. L. Hobbs conducted the services.

Although many of the students had no classes Wednesday afternoon a large number returned to attend the funeral in a group. No classes were held in respect to the memory of Miss Benbow.

A large crowd gathered in the New Garden burying ground to pay their last respects to the memory of her faithful and devoted life.

N. C. COLLEGIATE PRESS ASSOCIATION IS TO MEET AT GUILFORD APRIL 29TH

Guilford To Be Host For Three Days To Young Journalists Of State Colleges

Plans are well under way for the semi-annual session of the North Carolina Collegiate Press Association which is to be held at Guilford College on April 29, 30 and May first.

President E. G. Moore of N. C. State College has stated that the meeting will be very similar to the one held last fall at the University of North Carolina. At this meeting there were two well known speakers who made talks that brought the college journalists in touch with the larger and more complicated newspapers. There will also be regular discussion groups where editors and managers may get together and discuss their problems and thereby help each other to solve them. In addition to the representatives of the publication, colleges which are publishing annuals will be represented. This is a new department of the Association.

HUNDRED LIVES ARE LOST IN COSTLY FIRE THURSDAY

No; Not Human—Just Chickens

Thursday night about 10:30 fire destroyed another brooder house containing about one hundred chickens.

This is the second house to burn in the last month and a half costing a loss of about two hundred future fried chickens. The fire was first noticed a little after 10 o'clock and was beyond control when a few people arrived on the scene; some from the community thinking that it was the power house or Hoffman cottage.

The cause of the fire is not definitely known but it is supposed, by the man in charge, to have been caused by a faulty flue.

The Athletic association of Princeton university spent nearly $43,000 for sports last year.

Doctor Hobbs Pays The Following Tribute To The Memory Of Miss "Sallie"

At such times as this—all too frequent it seems—we feel how little we can do, and how insignificant are words. In fact, the old Quaker way of silence, silent meditation at funerals, commends itself most to those who are most thoughtful.

Yet, a tender regard for the feelings of those whose is the wound and the sorrow, may be the divine way, that is God's call, for some expression of the common sorrow and appreciation of lives that have shed light on others pathway and made footprints on the sands of time.

To those of us who have walked by her side in her laborious task as matron in Guilford College, Miss Benbow's passing from our vision has not only

ARTHUR RUE DISCUSSES THE PROBLEM OF CHINA

Arthur Rue, Y. M. C. A. secretary from China, spoke on the Chinese situation during the chapel period Wednesday morning. He told of his experience with a class of young Chinese college men. The vital question in their minds was, "What is best for China?" Various solutions were brought forward by different members of the group. "The salvation of China lies in military power. China needs a war," said one, but when the question of financing an army and navy had been considered this method was thrust into the background.

"Probably China will see a brighter day if she will take the steps which have been taken by Turkey—kill the Christians and burn their cities," said another, but as there was no one from them who wished to kill nor any cities which they wished to burn this plan was also useless.

Education was next discussed and given up as hopeless, then they turned to Christ and the sermon on the Mount and realized that here was the real solution of China's problems.

THE HENRY CLAYS ENJOY A UNIQUE PROGRAM GIVEN AT ZATASIAN'S RECEPTION

The Novel Program Is Opened With Adjournment And Is Given Exactly Backwards

The members of the Henry Clay Literary Society were delightfully entertained by the Zatasian Literary Society at an irregular meeting held in Memorial Hall, March 29, in which all business was transacted exactly backwards.

Immediately after the boys had entered the Hall President Ruth McCollum adjourned the society without having received a motion to that effect. A motion for adjournment was then seconded, after which the motion was made.

ANNUAL HIGH SCHOOL DAY TRACK AND DECLAMATION CONTEST HELD SATURDAY

Friendship Wins The Track Trophy By One Point With Greensboro A Close Second

DAY IS GREAT SUCCESS

William Farthing Of Durham Wins The Declamation Medal And Hortense Brower Of Winston Wins Recitation Prize

Friendship, Durham, and Winston-Salem carried away honors from the annual High School Day field meet and declamation contest held at Guilford College Saturday, April 10.

Friendship High School was the high scorer in the track meet, winning from Greensboro by the small margin of one point.

William Farthing, from Durham High School won the boy's declamation medal. Miss Hortense Brower, of Winston-Salem, received a four volume set of O. Henry's works as the best reciter.

In spite of the fact of a little rain at ten o'clock Saturday morning a crowd gathered on Hobbs field to watch the representatives from the different High Schools over the state fight for the silver cup. At the same time the athletic representatives were trying their skill on the field the literary boys and girls, some from the same schools, were doing their best in the preliminaries of the Declamation and Recitation contest.

The meet was to stimulate interest in track among the high schools. The participants showed a spirit of clean

ATTAINMENT OF SUCCESS PROF. HAWORTH'S SUBJECT

Professor Samuel H. Worth began his chapel talk Thursday morning by recounting the story of Peter counseling the fishermen who had given up all hope of any catch but who still had faith enough to follow Peter's instructions for which they were greatly rewarded.

"The person who anticipates failure," said Mr. Haworth, "Weakens his own effort." The two kinds of failures mentioned were failures without effort and failures with effort. Professor Haworth stressed the fact that a successful man has to cultivate the right kind of attitude toward himself and other people.

The key point of the talk was that with all failures there is a possibility of turning them into success. "Even the failures of others," concluded Professor H. worth, "May be turned into success."

GLEE CLUB TO GIVE HOME CONCERT SATURDAY NIGHT

To Play In Randleman, High Point Burlington And Guilford During Week

The week ending April 17, will be the last heavy week for the Glee Club this season. Wednesday night the 14th the club will go to Randleman and the next three successive evenings it is to be at High Point, Burlington, and will end the week with the home concert, on Saturday night at 8:00 o'clock. After the program there will be a reception.

The program this week will be practically the same as was given on the eastern trip, with the exception of the solo numbers. Mr. Hodgkin will probably be with the club if Mr. Miller cannot be present.

Shirt Smith Blanks Wake Forest In Tight Game Wednesday; Team Makes Even Break of First Series

LEWIS MACFARLAND IS TO HOLD SERIES OF SERVICES

Lewis McFarland, for a number of years evangelistic superintendent of the North Carolina Yearly Meeting, will conduct a series of meetings here at the Friends meeting house beginning Sunday evening, April 11.

Mr. McFarland is highly respected throughout the North Carolina Yearly Meeting for his ability and earnestness. He has been a recent speaker here on Sunday evenings and his messages are remembered as being very practical and constructive.

Services will be conducted each evening at 7:30; day meetings will be announced later. Mr. McFarland, Mr. Peele, and the church extend a cordial invitation to everyone in the community and college to come to these services.

Shirt Smith Gets Revenge On Wake Forest Wednesday

ALLOWS ONLY THREE HITS

Team Plays A. C. C., Wake Forest, Lenoir-Rhyne And The Winston Twins

On Thursday, April 1, Guilford College defeated the Atlantic Christian College nine in a loosely played game. From the beginning, Guilford had an apparent edge on the "Little Christians." Early in the game the Quakers jumped into the lead and soon had the Wilson aggregation trailing by a 3-0 count. In their half of the sixth, however, the Wilsonites drove Coltrane off the mound, scoring three markers and tying the score. Rabb prevented further scoring for the Christians, however, while the Quakers chalked up two markers in both the seventh and ninth innings.

F. Smith and Ferrell pounded the pellet for good averages, while Fulgham connected with two hits for the Christians.

Score by innings:

	R	H	E
Guilford	100	101	202 7 9 2
A. C. C.	000	00'	000 3 7 4

Coltrane, Rabb and Ferrell; Boykin and Brinkley.

Wake Forest Wins

Friday, April 2, the "Fighting Quakers" were downed by the Deacon team from Wake Forest. The Baptist nearly upset the dope, as the Quakers were slated to trim the Wake Forest aggregation.

Sorrell, the Deacon hurler held the Quaker lads well in hand, letting them
