

Library

THE GUILFORDIAN

GUILFORDIAN

Zay Oratorical Contest Saturday Night

Guilford Meets Elon March First

VOLUME XIV

GUILFORD COLLEGE, N. C., FEBRUARY 29, 1928

NUMBER 18

PLANS BEING MADE FOR CELEBRATION OF CENTENNIAL IN 1937

F. Hill Turner, Business Manager, is Local Director of Plans at Present Time

NEWS LETTERS SENT OUT

Centennial Committee Gets Work Well Under Way, Keeping Old Students and Alumni Informed

The business manager is very busy at the present time sending letters to our three thousand old students and graduates of Guilford. The purpose of this move is to keep the associates closely in touch with the institution as it now is and with the plans for the future. No definite announcement has been made about these letters except that they are preliminary to more definite plans to be carried out later. The plans are to send these news-messengers at two or three weeks intervals. In the first one sent out there is first of all a considerable section devoted to historical sketch of Guilford, including a story of the growth, development, and influence of the institution. Another part of the letter gives news sketches, containing those things especially interesting to old students. All of this work is under the auspices of

(Continued on Page Three)

OAK RIDGE RESERVES SNOWED BY QUAKERS

Score Is 43-32 and Game Is Featured by Accurate Shooting—Alley and Chisholm Play Well

FROSH TEAM DEFEATS JUNIORS

Feb. 24.—The Guilford Reserves snowed Oak Ridge Reserves under Friday night by the score of 43-32.

The Guilford team passed the ball all around the heavier Oak Ridge team and shot with deadly accuracy. The Guilford team got off to an early lead which they maintained and strengthened up until the last few minutes of play when numerous substitutes were used by Guilford.

Alley was the bright light for Guilford, scoring 20 points. He was ably assisted by Chisholm.

Solomon and Henry each played a nice game for Oak Ridge.

Freshmen vs. Juniors

In the only inter-class basketball game of the week the freshmen defeated the juniors, 27-24. The freshmen found the juniors to be worthy foes; in fact, the juniors maintained the lead until just a few minutes before the final whistle, when a field goal and a foul accounted for the three-point advantage of the freshmen. Zachary, freshman center, was high scorer with 14 points, closely followed by Hinshaw, junior satellite, who accounted for ten.

The lineup:

Juniors	Position	Freshmen
Hinshaw (10)	Forward	Wildman (8)
Chandler (2)	Forward	Cheek (4)
Rabb (6)	Center	Zachary (14)
Holt (4)	Guard	Alley (1)
Benton	Guard	Cox

Substitutions, Davis for Cheek. Referee, Purdom.

CATAWBA OVERCOME BY QUAKER VARSITY

Davidson Game Proves Thriller to Last Second of Overtime Period With 30-27 Score

WILDCATS GET REVENGE

Feb. 20.—On Monday evening Pat Crawford's proteges routed the Catawba cagers, winning a 35-22 victory. The visitors took an early lead with a field goal. Guilford quickly retaliated by chalking up several consecutive points, and gained a lead which was never threatened. The first half ended 20-9.

In the second half, the Quakers were offered a little more opposition. Even at that, Crawford considered it expedient to risk the affair in the hands of a second string team. In the last few minutes of play, the team was composed almost entirely of freshmen, who held Catawba in check.

Haworth and Marshall were high scorers for Guilford with 13 and 11 points, respectively. Griffin showed up well, displaying clever floor work and neat passing. Whisenhunt was high scorer for the visitors with eight points.

Lineup:

Guilford (35)	Pos.	Catawba (22)
Haworth (13)	Peeler (4)	R. F.
Griffin (7)	Whisenhunt (8)	L. F.
Moore (4)	Miller (4)	Center
Marshall (11)	Sasirt	R. G.
Coltrane	Finch (6)	L. G.

Substitutions: for Guilford, Coble, Chisholm, Yelverton, Ayers, Alley, Cox, and Cheek; for Catawba, White, Everhardt, and Evans. Referee, Spencer (U. N. C.)

Davidson Wildcats Win

Feb. 23.—The Davidson Wildcats got sweet revenge on Crawford's Quakers here this evening in an overtime game. The score as the final whistle blew stood at 26-26. During the overtime period the Quakers chalked up only one

(Continued on Page Three)

ALL-STATE TEAM FOR LITTLE FIVE ANNOUNCED

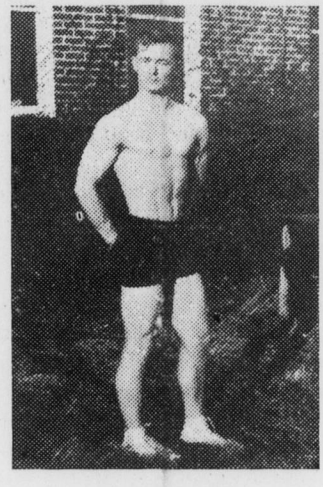

Guilford Furnishes Three Men for Two Teams Selected and Three More for List of Honorable Mention

Pat Crawford, Guilford College mentor, has announced his All-State Little Five basketball team. Due to the wealth of material, he deemed it necessary to select two teams, which he regards as of practically equal strength. Of the ten selected, Guilford furnishes three. Three more were given honorable mention. The Greensboro Daily News, as well as other leading newspapers of the state, regard Crawford's selections as authoritative, and always strive to gain his opinions.

Haworth (G.)	Newman (Elon)
Mulligan (H.P.)	Kiser (L.R.)
Moore (G.)	Snyder (H.P.)
Coltrane (G.)	Marshall (G.)
Mitchell (H.P.)	Ritchie (L.R.)

Honorable mention: Winecoff (L.R.), Crutchfield (E.), Mille (H.P.), Miller (C.) Coble (G.), Fulghum (A.C.C.), Perdue (H.P.), Thompson (H.P.), Riggan (A.C.C.), Griffin (G.).

GUILFORD'S SAMSON

FLOYD PATE

We have here a tintype of powerful, pulsating, puissant Pate, the redoubtable, resolute, reputable wrestler. Pate fearlessly challenges the world and all comers. Of heroic physique, truly he is a man of iron. He breaks bricks; he bends horseshoes as though they were but leather in his fingers; and the mighty Sampson would be but a child in the grasp of his sinews of steel. Pate's prodigious power cannot be measured; he twists his most ferocious antagonists as easily as a child would twist a piece of twine. Guilford is enormously proud of this bouncing baby boy, Floyd Pate, who has developed into such a tower of strength and marvel of skill. Indeed, this is what Guilford does for her devotees!

M'CRACKEN CARRIES OUT AN EXPERIMENT

Students in Sociology Participate in Teaching of Course Presenting an Original Lesson Plan

BELIEVES IT TO BE REAL SUCCESS

By DUANE MCCRACKEN
In connection with our course in general sociology we have carried out what may be considered a novel experiment in student leadership.

According to this plan, each student in the class was made responsible for the preparation of a lesson plan on one day's assignment. He was then required to conduct the recitation on the basis of the plan he had prepared. The order in which they appeared was determined by lot.

All students were required to prepare all assignments just as if the regular instructor were in charge. At the beginning the plan was announced as a contest. The student preparing and executing the best lesson plan was to be announced as the winner. The instructor was to sit with the other students and keep still until near the close of the period when he was to give a critic's report.

I am pleased to announce that every student co-operated splendidly in this adventure. Practically every student excelled in some respect. But, everything considered, Miss Alma Hassel deserves first honors. From the standpoint of execution alone, Mr. Howard Trivette ranks first.

As a part of the final examination each student was asked to criticize the experiment favorably or unfavorably as he saw fit. The most discriminating criticism was given by Miss Louise Kendall. Since these criticisms tell

(Continued on Page Three)

GUILFORD ARGUIERS LOSE FIRST DEBATES

Catawba Wins Both Sides of Dual Debate on U. S. Protection of Foreign Investments

DEBATE A. C. C. MARCH 9

Feb. 21.—Catawba's debaters administered a double defeat to Guilford's team Tuesday night in a dual debate on the subject, "Resolved: That the United States should cease to protect by armed force, investments in foreign countries except after a formal declaration of war." Luther Frances and Worth Mackie defended the negative side of the query here, opposed by Charles Weir and Henry Dobe, of Catawba; while Byron Haworth and Claire Trueblood upheld the affirmative against Charles Warlick and Robert Fisher at Catawba.

The debate in Memorial Hall was somewhat of an innovation, as the Oxford plan of debating was partially carried out. A vote of the audience before the debate revealed 39 in favor of the affirmative, while at the end 40 favored this side of the query. The debate was carried on more as a discussion than a formal debate and there was only one rebuttal.

Mr. Dobe and Mr. Weir contended for the affirmative that our present policy is a violation of international law and due to its selfish aspects is heaping up "coals of fire" on our heads. They claimed further that there is a more feasible plan and that our armies should not be used to protect the moneyed interests in foreign countries, of American financiers.

Guidford's negative team pointed out that the United States is morally and legally bound to aid the South American countries and that these countries are being benefited by our policy.

The points of contention were similar at Catawba and the debate was hotly contested throughout. In both cases the decision of the judges was unanimous.

Guilford's next debate comes on March 9, when the Guilford negative team will meet the affirmative team of Atlantic Christian College in Memorial Hall.

THE STATE ORATORICAL CONTEST TRYOUTS HELD

Annual Contest to Be March 30—On March 15 Guilford Men to Try for Representative's Places

Try-outs for the honor of representing Guilford in the annual State oratorical contest will be held about March 15. The contest, sponsored by the North Carolina oratorical and forensic league, is to take place at Davidson College March 30. Each member college is permitted and urged to send one representative who may deliver an oration on any subject he desires to choose. The winner of first place will be rewarded with a handsome gold medal and the winner of second place will receive a silver medal. Last year the medal was won by Keith Harrison, of High Point College.

It is not definitely known at this time how many aspiring young orators will enter the preliminary try-outs, but according to all indications the competition will be very keen. Dean Trueblood, who will coach the local orators, is very anxious that a Guilford representative win one of the two prizes.

RECITAL GIVEN HERE BY G. C. GLEE CLUB ON TUESDAY EVENING

Miss Mitchell Best Received in Her Solo Work, "The Swallows" and "Star Eyes"

HAVE A VARIED PROGRAM

Minnesinger and Euphonian Clubs Honor Greensboro Club at Reception After Performance

Feb. 22.—The Glee Club of the Greensboro College for Women presented a diversified program in Memorial Hall Wednesday night. The concert was sponsored by the Euphonian Glee Club, whose members acted as marshals, and gave a reception for the members of the visiting Glee Club after the program.

The numbers presented by the Greensboro Glee Club covered a wide range of variety, including a selection from Grieg's opera, "Peer Gynt," a negro spiritual, a Japanese operetta, a vesper hymn, and various lyrics.

The program as presented was: About Ben Adhem and the Angel, Hosmer; There Was a Pig (English playing song), arr. by Grainger—Glee Club.

Ah Love But a Day, To the Sun—Madge Marley.

In the Hall of the Mountain King, (Continued on Page Three)

TOM SYKES SPEAKS IN CHAPEL TUESDAY

Mentions Importance of a Clear Mind in Order to See Spiritual and Material Things Aright

MUST BE REAL MEN AND WOMEN

Feb. 21.—Rev. Tom Sykes, of High Point, spoke to the student body in chapel Tuesday morning. He chose his text from Matt. 24:21. "Most people," Mr. Sykes said, "care only for the material things rather than the spiritual things in life." Once a small town, by the side of a sea, drove Jesus away from their town because He drowned devils in the form of pigs and they thereby lost their pigs. They thought more of a few pigs than they did of being spiritually clean.

Just as every good housewife has a spring cleaning every year, so should we have a mental spring cleaning and remove all the mental rubbish and trash from our minds. We should not allow our minds to become stopped up with trash so as to hinder us from doing our tasks properly.

There is only one great way to satisfaction and that is to do the right thing in the right way. There is no satisfaction coming to us when we do the wrong thing. Our great danger is a lazy, sluggish satisfaction in becoming too easily pleased and not striving to improve. Do we (the students of Guilford College) realize that we are walking, talking advertisements of Guilford College, and that the college is what we represent it to be?

Recently there has been a great plea for world peace but unless we have self-control we will not be able to make the individual contribution necessary for world peace. We must be real men and women and to be a man or woman in the eyes of God is the highest attainable object.