

Baseball Team Returns From Northern Invasion

SUFFERS DEFEAT

Pitching Better Than At Any Time This Season But Team Fails in Pinches.

BUNN'S HITTING FEATURE

Bridgewater, Georgetown, Quantico Marines, Richmond Medical Prove to Be Strong Foes.

The northern trip for the Guilford baseball team this year netted nothing in the win column and four defeats in the lost column. The trip was not without its thrills, though, for Jimmie Bunn got a four-base blow in the Georgetown game and Bob Jamison came through for two clean hits in the Richmond Medical game.

The pitching was better than at any time this year, but the team fell down in the pinches and allowed the opposition to push across the needed runs to put the games on ice.

Johnson and Nelson pitched nice ball against Bridgewater, but ragged fielding by the outfielders lost the game.

Zachary pitched great ball against Georgetown and scattered their hits, but two errors in the outfield gave Georgetown six runs to make the game easy for them. In this game Hendrix and Bunn played a whole of a game afield and were easily the outstanding men for Guilford. Bunn scored all three runs with his clubbing.

The Quantico Marine game was a push-over for the leathernecks, but Guilford fought hard even in defeat. Johnson and Harper allowed only six hits, but errors and weakness with the stick in the pinches caused Guilford's downfall.

In the final game of the season Guilford lost a close one to Richmond Medical College by the tune of four to three. Zachary pitched a whale of a game, but grooved one to the piches and the ball went over the fence with a man on base, after two were out in the ninth inning.

Co-Eds Busy With Outdoor Sports

The Guilford girls are spending much time recently with outdoor athletics. Work on the diamond has been in progress for several weeks. It is understood that some very "remarkable" teams are developing.

Tennis is likewise playing an important part in the co-ed athletics this spring. A "ladder" match is at present in progress to determine Guilford's "Helen Wills." Archery is also a feature of the young women's outdoor program.

ANNUAL FACULTY PICNIC AT LIPSCOMB FARM

Miles, Mumford, and McCracken Give Exciting Element to Events of the Gala Evening

OSBORNE-LOFTIN TWO "SNIPES"

It all happened the night of May 12 at Dr. Lipscomb's summer home. Miss Miles, Mr. Mumford, and Mrs. McCracken—they're the cause of it. How they came to do such a thing no one seems to know, unless D. Elton Trueblood put 'em up to it. What did they do? You'll pretty soon hear. It's the talk of the Guilford College campus now.

There was a picnic that Monday night for the members of the Faculty Literary Club. A crowd of vagabond pioneers—the Faculty Literary Club! And that isn't all. Somebody said—no, I'm not going to tell you about the guilty three just yet—that Miss Osborne caught a "snipe." Whether she did or not, I'll leave for you to guess. Anyway, when Dr. Binford saw her and Dr. Loftin perched on top of the house some time later, he remarked that they made a right good pair of "snipes."

And now for what the guilty three, Miss Miles, Mr. Mumford, and Mrs. McCracken did. Now they appear to be quite calm about it, with no qualms of conscience whatever. But really it wasn't the right and just thing to do at all, even for the enjoyment of the picknickers. Here's what they did: They fed those faculty members loads of sandwiches, fried chicken, and strawberries! And the students are just plain jealous!

Have You Voted for New Officers?

David H. Blair to Be Here

One of the notables expected to attend Alumni Day is David H. Blair. Mr. Blair was born in High Point, was a student at Guilford for a year, and then went to Haverford College, where he received an A. B. degree in 1891. Having studied law at the University of North Carolina, he was admitted to the bar in 1898. Since May, 1921, he has been the Commissioner of Internal Revenue by appointment of President Harding.

BULGARIANS ARE IN DESPERATE NEED

Forty Per Cent of Students Now Living On One Meal Through Entire Day.

APPEAL FOR MORE FUNDS

Dr. Binford has recently received a letter from Clarence E. Pickett, executive secretary of the American Friends Service Committee, telling about the tragic plight of the students in Bulgaria. Mr. Pickett would be glad if any funds could be raised or anything could be done to aid the study of the students in this country.

Bulgaria is probably the poorest land in Europe. Forty per cent of the students there are living on one meal a day, sleeping crowded in unheated, unsanitary garrets, without the necessary books for study, or any proper place in which to work. The International Student Service has been working in Bulgaria since the earthquakes of 1928. Up to the present, it has helped about 80 students to complete their studies. It is collecting funds for a Students' House, which will be a center for self-help work. Only about $2,000 has been raised for this, the estimated cost being $15,000.

Any student who contributes to it is not only relieving genuine distress, but is definitely furthering world peace. The American Friends Service Committee at 20 South 12th Street, Philadelphia, will gladly receive and forward money for its work.

Alumni-Homecoming Day, June 2, 1930

MONDAY, JUNE 2, NAMED HOMECOMING-ALUMNI DAY

Getting and spending, we lay waste our powers;" etc.

The last time a large number of us got together at the college was at the commencement of 1924. This present year, 1930, finds us about half-way between that happy 1924 gathering and the Centennial, which we are looking forward to in 1937; so here's a special call from one of your number that Guilfordians will again be Alma Mater-bound on Monday, June 2, and that all will join heartily again in singing:

"Hail! dear old Guilford!

Thy loyal sons are we,

And we will ever be

Faithful to thee;

Through every changing clime,

Through all the future time

Our hearts will ever be

Loyal to thee.

Though years may come and go,

Yet still our memory clings

To those dear college days

Of long ago.

None can compare with thee,

And we will ever be,

Until our dying day,

Loyal to thee."

STUDENTS OF MUSIC NOW APPEARING IN SEVERAL RECITALS

Mr. and Mrs. Max Noah With Two of Pupils Appeared Sat. Evening, May 10.

PIANO RECITAL IS GIVEN

Song Cycle, "The Morning of the Year," Sung by Nettie Rayle, Glenn Robertson, and Noahs.

A group of the students of the Guilford College Music Department are at present engaged in giving a series of music and piano recitals. There are yet two more to come, Catherine Cox and Glenn Robertson being scheduled.

The first to be put on was a voice recital with Mr. and Mrs. Noah and two of their pupils, Nettie Rayle and Glenn Robertson, rendering special vocal selections, and Josephine Kimrey accompanying them on the piano. This program was given Saturday evening, May 10th, in Memorial Hall.

The second in the series, a piano recital, came Tuesday, May 13th, and featured Argyle Elliott, Marguerite Slate and Sarah Davis. The numbers on the program included selections from Chopin, Mendelssohn, Handel, Rubenstein, and other famous composers if classic music.

The third recital program, offered Saturday at 8 P. M., May 17, was in the form of a song cycle entitled "The Morning of the Year," by Charles Wakefield Cadman, and was sung by Nettie Rayle, soprano; Mrs. Max Noah, contralto; Glenn Robertson, tenor, and Mr. Noah, bass. Josephine Kimrey played the piano accompaniments. The song cycle was divided into two parts—each part including solos and a quartet, and one part a duet also.

ARRIVAL OF "QUAKER" CAUSES AUTOGRAPHIC RIOTS ON CAMPUS

sides being a diversion, these organizations have accomplished some things really worth while in music, athletics etc.

Want a magazine with some good short stories? The 1930 Quaker is it! The book contains three literary productions of students, one of them with the aid of a faculty member that may be called really good.

All in all, the 1930 Quaker is as it should be—a good publication. Everywhere frantic students rush about the campus, exchanging with other frantic students Quakers to be autographed. Senior signatures, and those of members of the faculty are at an especially high premium. The post-office department has suffered from a rush on pen points and writing ink, and Profs everywhere are noting with joy the improved penmanship of their pupils.

G. C. TENNIS SQUAD COMPLETES SEASON AT APPALACHIAN

Yelverton and Spivey Play Last Games As Quaker Net Veterans.

IS SUCCESSFUL SEASON

Entire Schedule of Seven Matches Completed With But One Defeat; Lenoir Too Strong.

With three successful matches in the past week the tennis team completed what may be considered a very successful season. Out of seven matches with schools of the "Little Six" conference six were won and one lost—by the close score of 4 to 3.

In a drizzle of rain and on wet courts the two veterans of the squad, Yelverton and Spivey, sang their swan song tot the Quaker net teams by defeating numbers one and two of Appalachian, in straight sets.

A return match with Lenoir-Rhyne, champions of the conference and the only team to defeat Guilford this year, was scheduled, but this was not played on account of rain and wet courts.

At Catawba the team as a whole probably showed its best brand of tennis of the whole year. After the Catawba team had gained a strong lead in almost every match the Quakers tightened their playing and defeated the Indians by a score of 5 to 1 in the hardest-fought sets of the season. Practically all matches went to three sets, and many sets went into extra games.

The season's record follows:

Home Matches
Guilford defeated Elon5-2
Lenoir-Rhyne defeated G. C.4-3
Guilford defeated Catawba5-1
G. C. defeated Appalachian5-0

Visiting Matches
Guilford defeated Elon4-2
Guilford defeated Catawba5-1
Guilford defeated Appalachian5-2

This record entitles the Quakers to second place in the conference race, and next year with Parsons, Kerr, and Braxton of this year's squad returning and several of the old students combining with the new material every new class brings in, a team will be built up which we hope can take the conference title.
