

QUAKER SPORTS

QUAKES

H. S. W'ns., Jr.

The fighting Quakers have raised their rating in the race for North State Conference honors considerably in the past week. They have turned in two victories from two games, and are now well on their way from the basement up in the league standing.

Haworth leads in Quaker scoring with 34 points in the conference encounters, and has been outstanding in his brilliant scoring during the past week. He is closely followed by Alley, who has ably supported him. In the meantime other Quakers have not been idle. Jamieson has been showing excellent form as a floor man and center. While Cheek, Chisholm, and Purnell have been keeping well up with the fast pace set by their team mates.

Pop Shepard's track squad has been getting into form for the coming season lately. From what we have heard the Quakers are going to have a classy bunch of cinder pushers this season and it is understood that they are to represent Alma Mater at the annual indoor meet at U. N. C. in March. We wish 'em success.

Assistant Coach Bunn kept the Junior Quakers busy during the absence of the varsity and turned in four out of four victories with his scrub outfit. Milner, who occasionally breaks into Varsity lineups, Royals and others were outstanding players of the Bunn aggregation.

The inter-class basketball schedule has been arranged and several games played. From the looks of things those numerous Frosh "stars" are going to push the upper classes for class honors. The '31 and '32 outfits both look good. In fact they all look so good (?) that we're afraid to predict the victor for fear we'd be wrong.

Elsewhere on this page you will find an announcement of the "Battle of the Decade." From what we know of it we think it worth anybody's time. Being of the younger generation, however, we can't help but bet on 1931.

JUNIOR QUAKERS DEFEAT OPPONENTS 100 PCT

Scrubs Emerge Victorious In All Of Eight Games During Past Week

The Guilford College varsity chasers (scrubs) have showed up exceptionally well in a series of eight games during the past two weeks, having won all of them. Four of the contests were won by a margin of only one or two points. The victory against Oak Ridge was one of the few times that a Quaker Junior Varsity has beaten the cadets.

Guilford won the first three games rather easily with a 27-19 win from Ruffin, and 27-6, and 21-11 conquests over Guilford High School.

THOMASVILLE GAME

The game with Thomasville was close throughout but the scrubs managed to command a small lead during the third quarter which they retained till the final whistle. Royal for Guilford was outstanding with six field goals.

Lineups:
Guilford (20) (18) Thomasville
Zachary Koontz
F.
Williams (2) Mason
F.
Royal (12) (6) Boyles
C.
Monroe (4) Stringfield
G.
Cholerton (2) (2) Bruton
G.

Substitutes: Guilford—Cannon (2), Davis (2). Thomasville—Cranford (6).

The Junior Quakers beat Bethel Hill 22-21 in a very hard fought game, managing to stave off a last minute drive by the scrappy Bethelites.

Another game was registered in the win column when the Guilford Scrubs defeated Kernersville, 20-13, in a rather listless contest.

KING GAME

In a very well played game the Guilford Junior Varsity defeated the ever-dangerous King High School, 25-20. The game was much closer than the score indicates. Wildman and Purnell showed up well for Guilford while Shore was best for the losers.

Lineups:
Guilford (25) (20) King
Milner Voss
F.
Lutz (5) (4) R. Born
F.
Royal (4) (7) Shore
C.
Purnell (8) (6) H. Born
G.
Wildman (8) (3) Petoll
G.

Substitutes: Guilford—Davis, Williams, Lynn, Monroe; King—Slate.

OAK RIDGE GAME

The Little Quakers showed a superiority in floor play and goal shooting to down the Oak Ridge Cadets in a thrilling victory, 37-35. Guilford was barely able to retain her lead in the closing seconds of the game as the plucky Ridgers fought desperately to catch up. Milner for Guilford was the star of the game with fourteen points, being trailed by Purnell with twelve, and by Gold and McCoy of Oak Ridge with ten markers each.

Lineups:
Guilford (37) (35) Oak Ridge
Milner (14) (5) Kitchin
F.
Lutz (10) McCoy
F.
Royal (6) (10) Gold
C.
Purnell (12) (5) Neal
G.
Wildman (4) Glasgow
G.

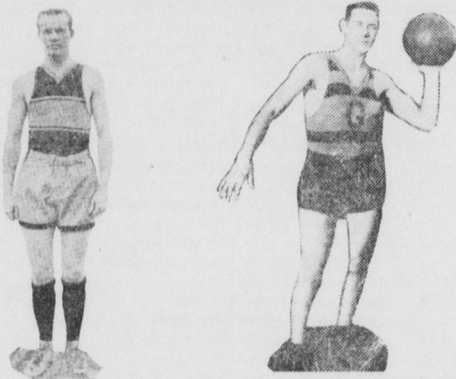

Substitutions: Guilford—Zachary (5), Monroe; Oak Ridge—Williams (1).

1921 VERSUS 1931

Announcement was made by the Athletic Association of an unusual feature for Friday, February 13, at Guilford. The wonder team of 1921 is to meet the present team of 1931. J. G. Frazier (left) was the outstanding star of '21 and H. E. Hayworth (right) is expected to demonstrate the ability of '31.

"Battle of the Decades" To Feature 1921 Vs. 1931

Coach Doak's "Wonder Team" Of 1921 To Again Perform In Effort to Show Youngsters of 1931 How Basketball Should Be Played—Is Today's Team Equal to That Of Yore?

On Friday night, February 13, the basketball fans of North Carolina will be treated to one of the most unique exhibitions ever witnessed in this state. The Guilford College basketball team will have as its opponents the Guilford College State Championship team of about 10 years ago. This is the team that ran rough shod over all opposition. It is Coach Doak's famous "Wonder Team."

The personnel of this team of old timers includes "Riek" Ferrell, of the St. Louis "Browns"; John Gurney Frazier, of Charlotte; Paul Coltrane, of the Columbia "Comers"; George Ferrell, of the Buffalo "Bisons"; Francis Lindley, of Greensboro; Rufus "Shirt" Smith, of Sacramento, California; Grady McBane, of Burlington; and Edgar McBane, of Greensboro. One can easily see that the lineup consists of many big league ball players. These are not old, swivel chair softened business men. They're hardened athletes and they're going to do their best to show the "old days" were the best.

Guilford's team this year is the best in recent years. The boys are determined that they are not going to be shown up by this aggregation "from the past."

Truly, this is going to be a game worth seeing. Alumni will come back to see their heroes of yesteryear attempt to show the youngsters of today "how it should be done."

The college students will be at the game 100% and rooting for their team to "put it on the has been."

No doubt this is the basketball treat of the century. It's a toss up who will win and you can take your pick.

DR. ELWOOD PERISHO ANNOUNCES ORATORY

Contests For College Students Offer Training And Material Awards

GOOD OPPORTUNITY

During a recent chapel period, Dr. Elwood C. Perisho made several announcements concerning oratorical contests open to college students. He stressed the training in poise and self-confidence one gains in oratory, and also announced that material awards were to be made to those gaining first places.

The annual oratorical contest for the North Carolina college men is to be held at Lenoir-Rhyne on April 14, and the one for young women is at the same school on the following day. The State Peace Contest at Raleigh, later in the spring has been scheduled and those interested in competing may get all particulars from Dr. Perisho, who will furnish any desired information concerning any contest open for student participation.

Dr. Perisho concluded by briefly announcing the plans of the Debating Council, their hopes and expectations for this season.

Freshie: "Bob, what are your football colors?"
Bob Cory (with disgust): "Black and blue."

Rev. D. Virgil Pike Is Chapel Speaker

Self-Examination Is Necessary To Know Capabilities Of One's Life

MILNER IS OUTSTANDING

Reverend D. Virgil Pike, pastor of the Friends Church in Graham spoke to the students in Chapel Friday, February 6, on the subject of self examination. "There are times when you need dental examinations. There are times when you need medical examinations. But the greatest of all examinations is the one we give ourselves," he said.

"To know ourselves will reveal our weaknesses and our strengths. One must know his physical abilities, his mental trend, his capabilities, and the things he wants to do. Many valuable years are lost in not being able to decide the things concerning yourself. As you know the things of your soul, you set about doing them, and in striving to do your duty find the depths of ourself in action. But to really give a thorough self-analysis one must wrap himself with the presence of God and let His spirit and assistance help us in the task of keeping people happy," he concluded.

Quakers Defeat High Point In Rough Game By 25-19 Margin

GIRL'S GYM WORK SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

Physical education for the women has taken quite a different trend since the beginning of the new semester. Paddle tennis, the favorite of most of the campus, has been almost entirely replaced by more constructive and aesthetic types of work.

The three hours each week of required classes are devoted to three entirely different types of work. The general program applies to all classes.

The dances, both aesthetic and folk, show the ability of each girl to coordinate brain and muscle, and the result is picturesque work, when the proper finish has been applied.

Matinee waltzes, by the Seniors; Mignonette, by the Juniors, and Animation Polka, by the Sophomores, are strictly types of aesthetic dancing. The simplicity of each is made more striking by the aesthetic interpretation applied. Less complicated but quite charming are the folkdances of the Freshmen.

Guilford Wins From Appalachian Five

Quakers Turn Mountaineers In Seasons Most Exciting Contest 27-26

BOTH TEAMS PLAY WELL

On Friday night, February 6, the fighting Quakers took a thriller from the strong Appalachian five on the local court by the score of 27 to 26. The game was packed with thrills from whistle to whistle as first one team and then the other took the lead. At no time during the game did either team have over a three point lead.

Haworth was possibly the outstanding man on the floor with his great basket tossing exhibition and clever defensive playing. Purnell, a substitute guard played a bang up game the short time he was in. His three over head shots were brilliant. Jamieson played his usual good game on the defence and so did Captain Alley and the rest of the Andersonites.

The Appalachian five played a clever game with their short passes always causing the Quakers plenty of trouble. C. Hinson with nine points and K. Hinson with seven, were the leading scorers.

Panthers Lead At Half But Are Overtaken

HAWORTH LEADS SCORING

Litman, Johnson and Smith Play Fine Game For High Point Team

Guilford College basketball team defeated High Point on their home court Tuesday night, February 3, by a score of 25-19 in a rough and tumble affair which was bitterly fought throughout.

The Panthers took the lead at the beginning and held a slight advantage all the way until the final minutes of the contest when a long shot by Haworth sent the Quakers out in front 20-18. The score at half time was 12-10 for the High Point team.

All through the first half play was wild and rough. Bad passes and poor shooting accounted for the lack of scoring as both teams played a scrappy defensive game. The Quakers kept in the running by making six of their nine free throws good.

With the opening of the second half the Panthers moved out to a greater lead but were unable to shake the dogged determination of the Guilford quint. Play became even rougher but both teams paid the price, Chisholm being put out for Guilford because of too many personal liberties and Walters, Ludwig, Hastings, and Cory taking the count for the visitors.

Haworth led the scorers for the evening with nine points, Jamieson played his usual good game at center for the Quakers and in addition checked in five points for his evening's total. During their time in the game, Chisholm and Cheek played a nice defensive game.

Litman, speedy little Panther guard, played a nice floor game as did Smith. The latter accounted for five points during the first half and was just behind Johnson, who made six points, in the scoring for the losers.

Summary:
