Guilford Gridmen Take Over Lenior Rhyne

Bunn Scores Twice On Clever Runs—Hayworth Tallies On Bears Tumble

HUGHES MAKES SCORE

That fighting team of Guilford Quakers bit off a healthy chew of Bear meat on Hobbs Field to put themselves on the large end of an 18 to 6 score.

Newton, the highly touted Lenoir-Rhyne triple threat bruin was held at bay until the final quarter when he managed to make three first downs in succession.

Guilford took advantage of the breaks to score early in the game. Newton fumbled the first play after the kickoff, Bouton recovering for Guilford. The Quakers took the ball to the goal but lost it on downs. Newton went back to kick and was hit by Purnell and Hayworth before he could get his foot off the ground. The ball fell over the goal and Hayworth, the ten second end, fell on it for the touchdown. Try for extra point failed.

The remainder of the first half was played in Lenoir-Rhyne territory but the Quakers failed to score. The half ended: Guilford 6, Lenoir-Rhyne 0.

The Quakers opened the second stanza with a crescendo. After receiving a punt in midfield, Jamieson on the first play dashed around end to the Bear's 15 yard line. Three plays netted zip, but on the fourth down Bunn hurdled between left guard and tackle, cut back in an open field and crossed the goal line standing. Newman's placekick for point was low. Guilford 12, Lenoir-Rhyne 0.

Five plays later the Quakers scored again. Sanders fumbled the kickoff on the 30 and lost the ball. A fifteen yard penalty helped the Quaker cause. Bunn went off tackle on a tricky jaunt for the score. Newman's placekick for point was blocked.

In the last quarter the Bears came back to score. After several nice runs by Newton, Hughes plunged over, five minutes before the game ended, Guilford 18, Lenoir-Rhyne 6.

Except for the last quarter the Anderson subjects were superior in all departments of the game, Love and Hayworth were the defensive stars, while the Lenoir-Rhyne line put up a good game.

This victory eliminated the Bears, the team that beat Elon, from the Little Six race, and places all importance on the Elon-Guilford classic.

QUAKS BOW TO LANGLEY FIELD TO COUNT OF 21-7

Guilford Scores In Second Quarter When Jamison Makes Pass to Bunn

AERIAL ATTACK CLICKS

Guilford was defeated by Langley Field last Saturday on the Aviators' field, by a count of 21 to 7. The Quakers could do little with the Aviators forward wall, their gains and touchdown being mostly the result of their aerial attack which functioned very well. It was a scrappy game throughout and kept the crowd enthused from start to finish.

Langley Field kicked off to Guilford but no gains were made. Receiving the return kick, the Aviators worked the ball to Guilford's one foot line where the ball changed hands on downs. When the ball went over and Guilford elected to kick, Turner was out of bounds and Langley was credited with two points on a safety. After an exchange of kicks, the aviators made a pass from the 35 yard line, Owens to Kerr to Howard who stepped over the line for a touchdown. He kicked the extra point and the quarter ended 9 to 0 for the Aviators.

In the second quarter Guilford held Langley Field from scoring until the ball changed hands. The ball was near midfield and after several short gains and a helping penalty, Jamison passed from the 40 yard to Bunn who trotted over the goal line for the first touchdown against Langley Field since October 4. Bunn made the extra point.

Before the touchdown was made, Guilford substituted an entirely new team and throughout the remaining minutes the Quakers held the Aviators evenly.

In the third quarter there was plenty of action but no scoring, with the ball at the end on Guilford's 22-yard line. In the fourth quarter Kerr made a pretty end run that carried him across the goal line. The try for the extra point failed. Again the Aviators brought the ball up to about the same marker and Kerr broke through for his second touchdown. The try for goal was blocked. After this Guilford made some substantial gains by means of passes until one was intercepted when they went on the defensive and held the Aviators for the rest of the game. The final score being 21-7.

SOCCER SQUAD REMAINS ACTIVE, PLAYING 3 GAMES

Tie With Winston-Salem And Jamestown High Schools 2-2, 1-1, Respectively

H. P. COLLEGE WINS 5-0

The Quaker's soccer team tied two games and lost to High Point College in their first big start of the year last week. The first game was against Jamestown High School and ended in a deadlock, 1 to 1. The college started off strong and scored in the first eight minutes of play on a pass from Tonge to Greene. The rest of the game developed into a defensive battle on the part of the Quakers but Jamestown scored late in the last period to deadlock the score.

In the second game of the week the Guilford team played in the best form it has shown this year against the strong R. J. Reynolds High School of Winston-Salem. The Quakers scored in the first three minutes of play on a beautiful penalty kick by Long. During the rest of the half neither team was able to get in scoring distance.

The Winston-Salem team opened up strong in the third quarter and scored twice on penalty kicks. Only the all around playing of Jones and Blackburne saved the Quakers in this quarter.

Guilford opened strong in the last quarter and threatened time after time to score but were held in check till Rasely trapped the goal keepers throw out and kicked the goal that tied the score. The Quakers tried hard to put over another score in the closing minute but Winston kicked out of danger at every advantage and made possible a tie score.

In the third game of the week the strong Purple Panthers took over the Quakers by the tune of 5 to 0. Guilford was forced to play a purely defensive battle and at no time really threatened to score. Only the great playing of Jones and Blackburne saved Guilford from a more humiliating defeat.

Coeds Turns From Hockey To Soccer

Still suffering from bruised ankles sustained in hockey, the girls have also turned to the game of pigskins, commonly called soccer. Although three classes met defeat under the crushing Senior team in hockey, all have waited to take revenge. In a few days the captains and class teams will be chosen, which will challenge every team for the championship.

By Ira Cholerton

With the playing of the big game of the season against Elon, at Greensboro, Saturday, November 21, Guilford's ranking in the Little Six conference will be decided. In the conference games that have been played so far against High Point and Lenoir-Rhyne College, Guilford has won by a comfortable margin. Elon has a strong team this year and the approaching game promises to be full of interest and excitement. The fact that Elon is a traditional rival of Guilford and that this game is the Guilford Homecoming game will make it a special attraction for the old grads.

With the close of the hockey season among the co-eds, soccer is taking another step forward into the ranks of accepted sports on the campus for it is the next sport that is to be undertaken by the Quakerettes, according to rumor. If it meets with as much approval among the women as it has among the men, it promises to be taken up by a large number of them for the soccer "fever" is steadily growing stronger with the men.
