

RUFUS JONES COMES HERE NEXT WEEK FOR CONFERENCE

Stays on Campus Saturday and Sunday Morning—Goes to High Point.

MAKES TWO ADDRESSES

Faculty Social Committee Gives Tea for Distinguished Visitor; Former Haverfordians Invited.

Rufus Jones, nationally known lecturer, editor, author, scholar and religious leader, who is to be on the Guilford campus next Saturday and Sunday, will have as his general topic, "How Students Can Build Up a Wholesome Religious Attitude."

Dr. Jones, who is at present professor of Philosophy at Haverford College, comes to Guilford by special invitation of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. cabinets of this institution. The cabinets are being responsible for his expenses.

His first appearance before the student body will be Saturday morning at a special chapel period.

The Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. cabinets will meet with Rufus Jones that afternoon after lunch for two hours during which time he will probably offer them special advice as to the carrying on of their work.

A faculty tea will be given in his honor that afternoon at 4:00. Besides the members of the faculty and their wives, a number of former Haverford students who live in this state will be invited to attend.

The public has the opportunity to hear Dr. Jones again Saturday night when he speaks in the college auditorium at 8:00.

He will be invited to talk to the student body again Sunday morning at Sunday school. He also speaks at the church services in the New Garden Meeting House on the campus.

CLASSES UTILIZE TALENT OF STUDENT MEMBERS

Dorothy Sturdivant Sings and Plays for Seniors; Graves Is in Demand.

BILLIE OSBORNE GIVES READINGS

Programs in the class meetings during the past two weeks were devoted almost entirely to individual talent programs given by various members of the student bodies.

At the November 2 meeting Dorothy (Kate Smith) Sturdivant entertained the Seniors with two readings and a number of vocal and ukelele selections.

At the same time the junior class listened to Earl Kuykendall and his guitar.

The Sophomore class borrowed Irma Lee Graves from the Freshmen. She read a number of poems, some of them her own work.

Felton Hall sang a number of selections for the Freshman class meeting.

Neither the Seniors or Juniors had any planned program for November 9 and both these classes adjourned shortly.

For the Sophomores Billie Osborne gave two readings.

Piano numbers by V. L. Wyant comprised the last Freshman program.

Perkins Society Editor

Margaret Perkins is acting as society editor of the Guilfordian this year, commencing with this issue. She is replacing Martha Taylor, who resigned last week. Her resignation was required because of her having too many activity points.

President Speaks on Wet-Dry Issue

Oct. 30—Dr. Binford told about a temperance speech he gave.

Oct. 31—Hugh Pain, born in Jarero, Cuba, spoke on conditions in Cuba under Machado.

Nov. 3—Mr. Noah and Miss Wilbur played two pianos.

Nov. 6—Mr. Shepard spoke on "Education in N. C."

Nov. 7—Mr. A. P. Kephart spoke on the deterioration of North Carolina schools due to the political machines that controlled them.

Nov. 10—Mr. Noah spoke on "Music in Education."

COLLEGE PARENTS ARE ENTERTAINED AT BIG RECEPTION

Students and Faculty as Well as Off-Campus People Take Part.

MANY VISITORS PRESENT

Student and Faculty Committee Make Great Preparations and Produce Gratifying Results.

The first Parent-Student reception to be held here in recent years was put on last Saturday night and was quite successful in the opinion of Mrs. Ernestine Cookson Milner who, in the capacity of chairman of the faculty social committee, was in charge of the affair, and of others who attended the function.

Invitations were sent to about 180 parents and a gratifying percentage responded, according to Mrs. Milner.

The college social committee, made up of Julia Blair Hodgkin, Priscilla White, Charles Biddle, Leroy Miller and Nelson Jones, was responsible for issuing the invitations. The faculty social committee also had a part in planning the party.

A committee made up of the presidents of the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., the student council, and the Athletic Association and the girls' dormitories, the social chairmen of the Y's, Mrs. Phillip Furnas from the Guilford College Club, Mrs. Mary Petty, representing the advisory committee, and Mrs. Binford, representing the Girls' Aid committee, planned the reception.

Mrs. A. I. Newlin was supposed to give the faculty different "jobs" for the evening, and Julia Blair Hodgkin, the students.

Marshal Budd took care of the parking of cars and getting guides to plans. Martha Lane got girl guides. Miss Elizabeth Bruce was in charge of the refreshments.

CHANGES MADE IN CAST OF COMING PRODUCTION

Former Actors in Guilford Plays Are Invited to the "Fool," to Be Given November 25.

TIME EMPHASIZED BY PLAY COACH

All alumni or old students of Guilford College who have ever taken a major part in a play have been invited by the dramatic council to attend "The Fool," by Channing Pollock, to be given Saturday night, November 25, at 8 o'clock. They are especially urged to come on time.

Professor Phillip Furnas would like all those who expect to do so to drop him a line. Seats will be reserved for these guests and each guest will be expected to announce at the door the play in which he took part.

Music will be furnished by the college orchestra. The following parts have been changed: Hoyle Young is to take the part of Mr. Barnaby; Warren Bezanon, "Jerry Goodkind;" Wes Vaughn, "George Goodkind;" William Neave, "Joe Henning;" and Annie Lee Fitzgerald, "Mary Margaret."

Practices are progressing nicely according to a pre-arranged schedule.

New Garden Name Changed

For 25 years New Garden Hall, the co-operative dormitory for women students at Guilford had its name changed officially to Mary Hobbs Hall this summer. The old nameplate was unscrewed from the door and the new one attached last week, thus completing the transaction.

DEAN OF WOMEN LEAVES FOR SHORT TRIP NORTH

Mrs. Ernestine Cookson Milner, dean of women at Guilford, left the college yesterday afternoon for Philadelphia where she will join her husband, Dean Clyde A. Milner, and spend the week-end with him. She will be back on the campus Monday morning.

After joining her husband at Philadelphia, Mrs. Milner will go with him to New York, where they will lunch with Dr. Harry Wright, of the New York University faculty, former dean of Earlham.

From New York the Milners are to go to West Point where they will visit Lieut. Forrest E. Cookson, Mrs. Milner's brother, who is instructor in law at the academy.

Mrs. Milner expects to be back at Guilford Monday morning in time to meet her morning classes.

PLANS FOR A NEW CLUB BEING MADE

Music Department Sponsoring
"Fine Arts Club" for Self-Expression.

REPLACE "CLASS LESSON"

A "Fine Arts Club" is being organized at Guilford under the sponsorship of the Music department. It is for those students who are interested in expressing themselves in whatever way they can or want to, such as: playing instruments, singing, aesthetic dancing, and, giving readings. The members of the committee in charge of the organization are L. T. New, Massey Tonge, Helen Stilson, and Naomi Binford. This club is taking the place of the "Music Class Lesson," which met in Mr. Noah's studio every other Monday night at 7:30 o'clock, and will meet at the same time and at the same place.

The last music class lesson met Monday evening, November 6. The program was as follows: Where'er You Walk—"Semele"—Handel, sung by Massey Tonge; "Hummoreske"—Van Dyke, read by Earline Hunter; "Moonlight Sonata," played by Martha Taylor; "Ho! Mr. Piper"—Curran, read by Frances McIver; "Death and the Maiden"—Schubert, played by Richard Binford on 'cello; "Come Unto Him," "Messiah"—Handel, sung by Jewel Conrad; "The War of the Fleas," read by L. T. New; "Frost Tonight,"—Thomas, read by Mina Donnell; a poem by Emily Dickinson, read by Elizabeth Adams; "Nocturne in G Major"—Chopin, played by Naomi Binford; "Empromptu in A flat"—Schubert, played by Frances McIver; "In the Usual Way," read by Louise Lee; "Between Two Loves"—Dolz, by Dorothy Sturdivant; "Creation"—Johnson, read by Virginia Levering, and "The Palace"—Killing, by Mamie Rose McGinnis.

GROUP INTERESTED IN POETRY MEETS TO READ

Mrs. Max Noah and a Number of Students
Meet Wednesday Evenings at the Noah Home.

Those who are deeply interested in poetry are invited to come and enjoy poetry with the poetry group, which meets every Wednesday evening from 6:30 to 7:30. The meetings are held at the Noahs' home, with Mrs. Max Noah as helper-adviser.

The meetings are very informal, consisting in the reading of poetry and the understanding of it. There is no organization. Original poetry may be brought in to be judged.

FOOTBALL BANQUET IS TO BE HELD ON THANKSGIVING

Date Tentatively Set by College
Social Committee—Will Be at Founders.

ANNOUNCE NEW CAPTAIN

Also Present Letters to Men Winning
Monograms for 1933 Season; Is Annual Affair.

The annual football banquet to close the football year at Guilford will probably be held in the dining hall at Founders Thanksgiving night, according to Leroy Miller, chairman of the college social committee.

At this time the letters for members of the 1933 varsity team will be presented and the 1934 football captain will be announced.

No definite arrangements have been made, the committee having met this last week for preliminary arrangements. It is possible that the date of the banquet will be changed from November 30 to December 2, the Saturday after Thanksgiving.

The banquet will probably take the place of the regular evening meal for the boarding students, and will probably be without a great deal of extra cost.

Besides the naming of the letter men for this year a feature of the annual banquet will be the presentation of the traditional hammer from the old captain to the new.

Members of the committee which is engaged in making preliminary plans for the banquet are Leroy Miller, chairman, Priscilla White, Charles Biddle, Nelson Jones, Julia Blair Hodgkin, and Margaret Perkins.

Interest both in the election of the grid captain for next year and in the awards made to letter men is high, as there are nine men on the squad who will be seniors next year, a senior usually being selected for the honor. Johnny Burgwyn, this year's leader, however, will be back next season and is a possible candidate for re-election.

FRENCH CLUB ORGANIZED AT OPENING MEETING

Elect Officers Last Night; Name of the Group Will Probably Be "Est-ce Francais?"

ENTIRE MEMBERSHIP HONORARY

The opening meeting of the French Club was held Friday night, November 10, in what used to be Clay Hall, under the auspices of a committee previously selected, which was Esther Lee Cox, Ruth Fuquay, Gladys Bryan, Bill Edgerton, Samra Smith, and the help of Mr. Fleming.

The next meeting five new members that were eligible were accepted by the club. A committee was elected to plan the first meeting. It met Friday night and settled many problems concerning the club. The name for the club will probably be "Est-ce Francais?" Martha Taylor entertained with some piano solos while refreshments were served.

Those in the club now are: Cleo Stack, Esther Lee Cox, Ruth Fuquay, Gladys Bryan, Martha Taylor, Martha Lane, Clara Bell Welch, Mary Bryant, Lily Bet Hales, Daryl Kent, Bill Edgerton, Samra Smith, Julia Blair Hodgkin, Margaret Pegram, and Ernest White.
